NO. 38

MAYOR FLYNN ANNOUNCES MINIBOND SALE

Urging residents to "Invest in Boston — Invest in your future!"

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn announced the sale of the city's first fully registered, exempt Minibond issue. Starting on Monday, September 10, Boston began selling up to $1 million of these three-year, general obligation Minibonds in denominations of $100, $500, and $1,000. This issue of Minibonds will pay an annual interest of 8.25 percent if held to maturity.

Mayor Flynn said, "This is a first for the city. The sale of minibonds is aimed at those who lack the financial means to invest in conventional obligation bonds. Because the city is selling these bonds directly to the buyer, no management fees or commissions will be added to the price. It is an opportunity for the average citizen to invest in Boston and its future — something you can't pass up. Because the sale will be conducted entirely in-house," the Mayor continued, "the city will save substantial sums on the cost of registering and marketing the bonds. This allows us to offer the bonds at a very attractive interest rate, 8.25 percent. The Minibond sale is conducted on a first-come first-serve basis, guaranteeing all persons have an equal chance of buying a Minibond. An interested person must submit an application, together with payment to the City of Boston Treasury Department, between September 10, 1984, and September 19, 1984. All approved applications will be processed and the Minibonds will be sent to the applicants by September 19. Interest will begin to accrue October 1, 1984.

The $100, $500, and $1,000 denomination, three-year Minibonds will sell for $100, $392.32, and $784.64 respectively. Interest on the bonds will accrue annually and will be compounded semi-annually. Once a Minibond is purchased, a holder may redeem it at any time prior to the end of the three-year period, if so desired, and will receive the interim value of the Minibond. The city's latest official statement of the city's finances will also be available upon request.

Minibonds are exempt from federal and state income taxes, which means the investments usually available only to wealthy investors are now available to the average citizen. Depending on one's tax bracket, the 8.25 percent yield could translate into an after-tax yield as high as 16.50 percent.

Minibond applications and Minibond informational brochures can be obtained from the Mezzanine Level of Boston City Hall and at all downtown and neighborhood branches of the Boston Public Library, Bank of New England, Bank of Boston, Fleet Bank, and State Street Bank and Trust. The Minibond Information Desk will be open to the public September 10 through September 19, and will provide assistance in filling out the Minibond applications. A hotline has also been established for more general information at the city's Treasury Department at 725-3476.

The Mayor noted that investing in the city "will provide us with monies for capital improvements. The amount of Minibonds one can purchase cannot exceed $1,000, which will eliminate the possibility that a few wealthy investors could buy up all the bonds. When a person invests in a Minibond, he or she is investing in Boston's future in their future. It will give the small investor pride in what his or her money is being used for — improving life in the neighborhoods of Boston."

MAYOR INITIATES OUTPLACEMENT PROGRAM

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn has instructed the city's Department of Personnel and NDEA to initiate an Outplacement Program for City of Boston employees who have been terminated because of the 5 percent reductions ordered for most city departments.

Mayor Flynn termed the effort a means by which the city can work to see to it that there is a minimum disruption in the lives of employees terminated due to financial difficulties. "These employees worked with distinction for Boston and every effort will be made so that they and their families will not suffer unduly. The decision to remove people from the city work force is a serious and painful one, yet if we are to provide the basic and fundamental services, the city must take the stern measures of layoffs," the Mayor said.

Officials from the city's Personnel Office and the NDEA will establish the following procedures:

1. Provide information to callers about outplacement workshops and schedule individual appointments;

2. Assign vocational counselor (on an as-needed basis) to interview candidates, review work history, skills, etc. and assign them to most appropriate workshop(s);

3. Make available the following workshops:

- Interview Preparation
- Resume Preparation
- Career Planning
- Job Search (on an as-needed basis);

4. Refer appropriate individuals to Boston Job Exchange;

5. Provide reports on an agreed-upon schedule to City Hall Personnel the number of individuals who have applied for and received service and the outcomes.

MAYOR LAUDS COOPERATIVE AGREEMENT

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn has announced that the city has reached agreement with the Schaffer Realty Company, which includes Suffolk Services, Inc. and Schaffer Paper Fibers, Inc., to work with the city to close down its hazardous waste storage within thirty days. The company and the city have also agreed to cooperate in removing and relocating the waste paper and baling operations, located at 75-105 Taylor Street, and 7 Water Street, Dorchester, within six months.

Mayor Flynn said, "This is a very positive agreement. The issue of hazardous waste located in a neighborhood where young children play and families live has been a concern of mine since before I was a Boston City Councillor. The Port Norfolk Citizen's Association has been fighting for years to resolve this situation. I'm very pleased that as Mayor, I was able to help them accomplish that."

"Schaffer Realty has agreed in good faith," the Mayor continued, "to work cooperatively with the city through Rosemarie Sansone's Office of Business and Cultural Development over the next six months to try and relocate their paper operations, which employs ninety people. The city has also negotiated with the company strict limits on when and how much truck traffic will be allowed in this neighborhood. This agreement shows the commitment of the neighborhood to protect its rights, the commitment of my administration to ensure that protection, and a cooperative effort with the company to keep it a viable business that can continue to employ our residents without endangering its abutters."

Rick Schaffer, director of Hazardous Waste Services stated, "This resolution has come about through the cooperation of the Schaffer family and the city. We thank all concerned parties for their efforts in reaching the agreement and we anticipate even greater cooperation in the immediate future."

"The willingness of the neighborhood association," Mayor Flynn concluded, "elected representatives, and the Flynn Administration to aggressively pursue this case teaches us how to proceed in the future. A case that had been dragging on for years was resolved in nine months of my administration."

Working cooperatively with business and with neighborhoods is the right way to resolve problems. I am also confident that we will be able to work with Schaffer Realty Corporation to relocate their business so that they can continue to work in Boston."

ARTWORK SET FOR "T" STATIONS

MBTA General Manager James F. O'Leary has launched the T's arts program for the Southwest Corridor with the announcement that proposal guidelines for artworks for the nine new rapid transit stations on the Orange Line are now available.

"Arts in Transit: The Southwest Corridor," which is funded by the MBTA and administered by MBTA consultant Urbanarts, Inc., involves the selection and installation of permanent art in the new stations. Also included is an educational program of nonpermanent art forms, such as dance, theater, poetry, and music in Southwest Corridor Project area communities. The MBTA has allocated a total of $425,000 for permanent art work for the stations, including South Cove, Back Bay, Mass. Avenue, Ruggles Street, Roxbury Crossing, Jackson Square, Boylston Street, Green Street and Forest Hills stations.

O'Leary announced that the proposal guidelines, which provide interested artists with the format for submitting slides and registration forms for consideration, may be obtained by contacting Urbanarts, Inc., at 716 Columbus Avenue, Boston, MA 02120. He said the guidelines are being distributed locally and throughout the country, and represent the first stage of the commissioning process for the selection of artwork for the MBTA's Southwest Corridor Project. O'Leary, noting the MBTA's leadership role nationally in integrating art with transportation, said, "I look forward to seeing what creative minds come forth with to enhance the beauty of our stations for the riding public."

"Arts in Transit: The Southwest Corridor" is a continuation of the MBTA's commitment to place art in its newly renovated facilities. In recent years the MBTA has commissioned more than fifty works of art through "Arts on Line" Program, administered by the Cambridge Arts Council, for the newly built and renovated Red Line Stations. In addition, permanent artwork has been installed in Essex Street, North Station, Park Street, and Haymarket South Stations.

MBTA Board Member Melissa Tillman joined with O'Leary in making the announcement and noted the significance of the art program and its commitment to community emphasis in the Southwest Corridor Project.

"The Southwest Corridor Project has been designed and shaped through a high level of community participation," she said. "We see the art program as an opportunity to build on this tradition."

Urbanarts will work closely with neighborhood agencies, educational institutions, and individual artists to develop a series of educational programs in the performing and literary arts scheduled to take place during the construction phase. According to Patricia Worden, president of Urbanarts, the program will offer many opportunities for artists and communities to work together to highlight the individual neighborhoods and cultural diversity in the Southwest Corridor area.

All artists, community agencies, educational institutions and residents interested in receiving the guidelines should send a letter or postcard to Urbanarts.

The program is scheduled to coincide with the construction of the Southwest Corridor stations, with a target date for completion in December 1986.

ABCD is the largest human services agency in New England and operates a variety of programs including Fuel Assistance, Foster Grandparents, Head Start, Day Care, Adult and Youth Employment and Training, the Summer Youth Employment Program, a tuition-free accredited Urban College administered in conjunction with area colleges and universities, Health Services, Community Services, and others.

HUB FOOTBALLERS GEARING UP

The Boston Senior Football League is back and gearing up for their 54th year season. This fall will see the return of the hardcore regulars — the Howas, the Hanna Club, and the Shelbourne Cobras. Several neighborhood squads are in the mix for the '84 season too. The Senior League also welcomes the re-entry of the always popular Charlestown "Town" which missed during their absence from the league.

A local team willing to play solid football with "the big guys" is encouraged to apply for league membership. The defending champs from the Shelbourne Center guarantee any challenger a long battle for the Mayor's Cup. "We're the best and we're staying that way," promise the Cobras.

WHO WILL BE NUMBER ONE?

Can the Roxbury Hawks retain their title as Boston's best softball team? Will the squad for L Street shake their second place curse this year? How will the Park League Champions fare against neighborhood winners?

Stay tuned as the 1984 Mayor's Cup Softball Tournament, opening September 19, answers these questions and again decides who will have the bragging rights as the best softball team in Boston. "You're the best only if you can prove it" — "that's our motto" explains Sports Coordinator Walter Pisarski.

Annually, the survivors of a gruelling double elimination tournament (Commissioner's Cup), which features the pennant winners of the thirty-five Park Leagues, become the Park Champions. The Park Champions then host the Mayor's Cup Tournament inviting the championship teams from recognized neighborhood leagues to compete.

All this includes the Women's Park Champions who are hosting a Mayor's Cup for neighborhood women's champions. The Roxbury-North Dorchester Community League Champions, the TKOs, easily took top honors in '83 and the RNDL promises a tough scrap to any challengers waiting to unseat them.

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn has announced that he has signed an ordinance banning the distribution of tobacco products and non-tobacco cigarette products in public places in Boston.

The ordinance was proposed by City Councillors Thomas Menino and Charles Yancey.

The Mayor said, "I have signed this ordinance after careful consideration of all the facts. I heard from many people who oppose this bill, but as a father and as a mayor concerned with the health and well-being of the people of Boston, I made the decision to sign it. Opponents of this ban made their arguments intensively. But the unregulated distribution of tobacco products gives our children and teenagers too much easy and cheap exposure to this health danger."

ART IN THE PARK: GREAT SUCCESS

Hundreds of multi-colored helium balloons were released into the air on September 8th to mark the opening of Art in the Park Festival on the Boston Common. The festival started at 10 a.m. and continued until 4 p.m. on both Saturday and Sunday.

The official opening commenced with brief remarks by Rosemarie E. Sansone, director of the Mayor's Office of Business and Cultural Development.

This year's festival featured the work of many local artists representing a cross-section of Boston's neighborhoods. There were exhibits of some 200 local painters, sculptors, craftspeople, and photographers.

Art in the Park is co-sponsored by the Mayor's Office of Business and Cultural Development, WBZ-TV "Fund for the Arts," the Boston Phoenix, and the Boston Marketplace.

Boston students and their teachers were asked to take part in this year's festive event. Children's Art in the Park is a celebration of the arts designed with kids in mind, including special performances and activities during the celebration.

"This Administration has a very real commitment to our resident artists in both the visual and performing arts. Local artists contribute greatly to the cultural life of our city," said Mayor Flynn. "I urge all of our citizens to join me in celebrating the creative talents of artists from South Boston, Roxbury, the South End, the North End, Back Bay, and other sections of our city."

Admission to Art in the Park was free.

Two copies of the general bids shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the office designated above, accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of a bid bond, or cash, or in the form a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston in the sum of 5 percent of value (not to be less than $100, not to exceed $50,000). One copy of the general bid shall be filed with the City Auditor. The general bids shall be filed before time stated above for the opening of the general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the general bids. In addition, no general bid filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders may be withdrawn prior to execution and delivery of the general contract, unless no award has been made upon expiration of the prescribed time therefor.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed shall not be less than the rate of wages determined for this work by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth under the provisions of General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 149, section 26, as amended. This schedule will be available to the successful bidder.

The successful bidder will be required to provide insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

Attention is called to the fact that not less than the minimum salaries and wages as set forth in the contract documents must be paid on this project and that the contractor must ensure that employees and applicants for employment are not discriminated against because of their race, creed, color, or national origin.

The Inspectional Services Commissioner is allowing a thirty-day period to complete the boarding and securing of these buildings starting with his signature on contract.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest to do so.

Notice

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the City of Boston Supplemental Minority Participation and Resident Section contract provision of the specifications for and the obligations of the contractor and subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices in the performance of this contract.

Attention to All Bidders

I. Minority Business Requirements:

No bid for the award of this project will be considered acceptable unless the general contractor complies fully with the following requirements for minority business enterprise utilization.

Pursuant to the Supplemental Minority Participation section of this contract, the general contractor must give satisfactory assurance that at least 10 percent of his bid price shall be expended for minority business enterprise, if the bid is over $10,000. For the purpose of this paragraph, the term minority business enterprise means a business in which at least 51 percent of the beneficial ownership and control is held by one or more minority persons (Black, Hispanic, Asian-American, or American Indian).

Each general contractor must complete, sign, and file with his bid the Minority Business Utilization Form. The Minority Business Utilization Form shall be completed and signed by the minority business enterprise and the general contractor. Failure to submit a Minority Business Utilization Form with the bid proposal will result in the rejection of the bid.

The City of Boston Minority Business Directory lists all minority-owned businesses that have been certified as such by the City of Boston. A copy of this directory can be obtained from the Awarding Authority or the Minority Business Office, 15 Beacon Street, fifth floor, Boston, MA 02108, telephone number 720-4300. If a contractor wishes to use a minority business that is not listed in the directory he must contact the Minority Business Office to obtain a copy and submit with his bid, a Minority Business Identification Statement. The dollar amount obligated to a non-certified (City of Boston) minority business will not count towards the minority business percentage requirements.

II. Workforce Requirements:

During the performance of this contract, the general contractor shall agree and shall require that his subcontractors agree to the following workforce requirements (labor).

1. Minority Workforce: The contractor and its subcontractors shall maintain a not less than 25 percent ratio of minority manhours to total employee manhours in each trade worked on the contract.

2. Female Workforce: The contractor and its subcontractors shall maintain a not less than 10 percent ratio of female employee manhours to total employee manhours in each trade worked on the contract.

3. Boston Residents: The contractor and its subcontractors shall maintain a not less than 15 percent ratio of Boston resident employee manhours to total employee manhours in each trade worked on the contract.

4. The workforce requirements of paragraphs (2), and (3) above shall apply to each trade that appears on the list of "Classification and Minimum Wage Rates" as determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries under the provisions of chapter 149, sections 26 through 27G, of the General Laws of Massachusetts, as amended. If you have any questions pertaining to the application of these requirements, please call the Compliance Office at 720-4300.

NOTICE OF REQUIREMENT FOR AFFIRMATIVE ACTION TO ENSURE EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY (EXECUTIVE ORDER 11246).

The contractor's attention is called to the "Affirmative Action Clause" and "Standard Federal Acquisition Regulation Contract Specifics" set forth in this part.

The goals and timetables for minority and female participation are expressed in percentage terms on the contractor's aggregate workforce in each trade on all construction work in the covered areas (pages EEO-1 and EEO-2 of the bid specifications for goals and timetables.)

These goals are applicable to all the construction work (whether or not it is federally assisted) performed in the covered areas.

As used in the notice, and in the contract, the covered area is Arlington, Boston, Belmont, Brookline, Burlington, Cambridge, Canton, Chelsea, Everett, Malden, Medford, Melrose, Norwood, Reading, Revere, Somerville, Woburn, Wakefield, Westwood, Winthrop, Woburn, and the Islands of Boston Harbor, Massachusetts.

The contractor's compliance with the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4 shall be based on its implementation of the Equal Opportunity Clause, specific affirmative action plans required to meet the goals established for the geographical area where the contract is to be performed.

The hours of minority and female employment and training must be substantially uniform throughout the length of the contract in each trade. The contractor shall make a good-faith effort to distribute minorities and women evenly on each of the contracts.

The transfer of minority or female employees from contractor to contractor or from contract to project for the sole purpose of meeting the contractor's goals shall be a violation of the contract, the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4. Compliance with the goals shall be measured against the total workhours performed.

The attention of all bidders is specifically called to the provisions of the contract documents, including, with limitation, the notice to all bidders (including subbidders), and the provisions with respect to bonds, insurance, equal employment opportunity, minimum wages, time of performance, liquidated damages, and the requirements set forth in the specifications on supplemental equal employment opportunity, anti-discrimination and affirmative action program contract provisions, and the requirements of mandatory compliance with 3 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 and Executive Order 11246.

MAYOR STRIVES TO KEEP WESTINGHOUSE PLANT OPEN

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn has expressed concern that despite serious attempts by the city to assist Westinghouse Electric Corporation's Sturtevant Division to maintain and expand operations in Hyde Park, little progress has been made.

One of Mayor Flynn's first acts on the job as mayor in January was to set in motion a variety of efforts to keep the Westinghouse plant open and viable. Working closely with District City Councillor Thomas Menino's office, the Mayor requested meetings be set up to discuss avenues of support for the facility. Rosemarie Sansone, director of the Mayor's Office of Business and Cultural Development, Robert Consalvo, from the Mayor's Office and himself a Hyde Park resident, met with Westinghouse officials this winter to work out ways to prevent layoffs and keep the plant alive.

Mayor Flynn said, "The goal of my administration is to keep and develop industry in our city and in our neighborhoods. When jobs are lost, the city pays in enormous social costs. Families lose income and neighborhoods lose their stability. My objective is and always has been to keep the Westinghouse plant open and keep businesses operating in the plant."

In addition to involvement by the Mayor's Office, the city's Economic and Industrial Development Corporation (EDIC) has developed marketing strategies directed at utilizing Westinghouse's Sturtevant production capabilities in areas not related to production of electric utility and industrial fans, which is their principal product. Meetings have been arranged and contacts made with a number of private firms such as General Ship, Balco Engineering, and others. Several of these companies intend to assist Westinghouse to respond to requests for bids. Similar efforts have also been made into governmental agencies including the MBTA and state contract agencies to find new and creative ways to use the skills of Westinghouse workers and the capabilities of its production equipment.

Councillor Menino has also expressed a personal interest in keeping the plant employed. Through contact with the city, and the International Brotherhood of Machinists Union, Councillor Menino is concentrating efforts toward an agreement that will prevent any temporary shutdown or temporary layoff of employees.

A meeting convened by the Mayor on September 1, and attended by Councillor Menino, Rosemarie Sansone, Marilyn Lloyd, director of EDIC, as well as Timothy Spencer from the International Association of Machinists, Joseph Fitzgerald of the MBTA, J. Richard Webb, general manager of Westinghouse's Sturtevant Division, and George Dann, director of Human Resources at Westinghouse Headquarters in Pittsburgh, Westinghouse officials indicated a willingness to follow the city's lead and try to procure additional work for the plant. An example is in the area of metal-welding trades. In fact, Mr. Webb and Mr. Dann clearly stated they wanted to remain in Hyde Park. In a letter to the Mayor, Mr. Webb noted that, "This was a good meeting. I hope it is the beginning of a conducive relationship."

Speculation about plans to close or sell the plant, however, continues to abound. Mayor Flynn, in a letter to Douglas Danforth, chairman of Westinghouse Electric Corporation in Pittsburgh, said, "My administration, Councillor Menino, and Dr. James Howell of Bank of Boston remain committed and ready to stand together to work aggressively to present financial incentives to a prospective buyer of your plant who would make a long-standing commitment to continued operations."

Mayor Flynn offered Westinghouse information on available incentives offered through EDIC. Rosemarie Sansone, who is also chairperson of the Board of Directors of EDIC, said "EDIC can provide valuable incentives to assist with acquisition and working capital, and which would help greatly in any negotiations with prospective buyers."

Councillor Menino has called upon the city's Neighborhood Development and Employment Agency (NDEA) to assist with any training of employees noting that, "We need to make every effort to assist these workers to adapt to any new job requirements of a new owner."

A meeting was held on September 13, in Washington, D.C., with representatives of the Mayor's Office, Councillor Menino, Congressman Brian Donnelly, and officials from Westinghouse to discuss ways to insure that production is maintained at the highest possible level at the Hyde Park plant, whether by Westinghouse or another firm of similar character.

Mayor Flynn said, "Several generations of workers have made their livelihood at this plant. Westinghouse has a proud tradition, as do these workers. I will continue to do everything in my power to see that another generation has that opportunity."

BOSTON SALUTES NEW ENGLAND OLYMPIANS

In tribute to some of America's finest athletes, Boston Mayor Raymond L. Flynn recently hosted a parade and awards ceremony at Faneuil Hall for forty New England men and women who completed in this year's Summer and Winter Olympics, as well as members of past Olympic teams.

The elaborate celebration entitled, "Boston Salutes the New England Olympians," featured athletes from throughout New England. Among the sports celebrities highlighted during the day-long event was Joan Benoit, Gold Medal winner in the Women's Marathon and victor in the 1983 Boston Marathon, Tim Daggett, member of the Gold Medal winning Men's Gymnastics Team and Holly Metcalf and Jeanne Flanagan, who helped steer their team to a Gold Medal in the Women's Rowing competition. Marching to the drums and bugles of the U.S. 18th Army Band were six Gold Medalists, twelve Silver Medal winners and two recipients of the Bronze Medal.

Curt Gowdy, longtime ABC announcer and former voice of the Boston Red Sox, served as master of ceremonies for the Olympic celebration at Faneuil Hall, which was held on Wednesday, September 12. Following Mr. Gowdy's remarks Mayor Flynn spoke on behalf of the City of Boston. He introduced Rosemarie Sansone, director of the Mayor's Office of Business and Cultural Development, who planned and executed the event. Ms. Sansone presented gifts to the New England Olympians. Speaking for the Olympic athletes was Joan Benoit. The Faneuil Hall celebration was preceded by a parade that reached the final destination, Faneuil Hall.

Prior to the ceremonies, athletes from several Boston area universities and high schools put on special performances, including track and wrestling exhibitions by teams from Boston University, weightlifting by members of the Boston College football team, a fencing exhibition by students from M.I.T. and a gymnastics display by teams from Boston Latin High School.

"Boston Salutes the New England Olympians," was in keeping with the new spirit of the city. "We think it is important to promote good-will and a climate of unity in Boston," said Mayor Ray Flynn. "These events were just one way in which we are trying to achieve this goal."

The new spirit of the city was exemplified by the donations and contributions that flowed from Boston area businesses in order to stage the festival of Olympians. The ticket tape that poured from the windows of buildings in the Financial District and Downtown Crossing was supplied by Kimbell and Cross Investment firm. AT&T donated 1,500 American flags. Other contributors included the Boston Phoenix (signs), John Hancock (banquet), Perrier Co. (transportation) and Boston Gas (the large torch). Volunteers for the occasion were provided by Ellie Rosenthal Associates.

Olympic medal-winning high jumper John Thomas lit the torch when the celebration began officially.

SUNLAB OPENS AT MUSEUM OF SCIENCE

Solar physics, the ecosystem, and photosynthesis are all terms you have probably heard, but may not completely understand.

With this in mind, Boston's Museum of Science has established a permanent exhibit, Sunlab, to let you see and work with these sometimes mysterious concepts as they actually function in nature.

A solar experiment center that is a major part of SunLab offers you an intriguing way of learning the basic principles of heat, light and work that are involved in the discipline of solar physics.

No matter what your age or ability, you can use innovative scientific devices to determine the sun's exact altitude and compass position, bounce light around to where it is needed to accomplish work, and play a variety of other educational "sun games."

FOR SIGNS AGREEMENT FOR CLEANUP

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn has signed an agreement with the Whittier Equipment Corporation, of Milton, Mass., regarding removal of illegally dumped construction debris and bulldozing of property on 29-43 Sargent Street in Dorchester.

The agreement, reached between the city's Real Property Department Inspectional Services with Whittier Corporation, resulted from catching the corporation dumping debris on vacant lots on Sargent Street. The agreement requires Whittier to restore the Sargent Street property and, as a penalty, to clean up certain properties on Erie Street. The city has agreed not to prosecute the corporation for the dumping violations in regard to the work.

Mayor Flynn described the events leading up to the agreement. "We got a complaint from a resident on Sargent Street, that certain vacant lots across from this resident's house had been dumped on and bulldozed. The resident got the license numbers of the two pieces of construction equipment used for the illegal dumping. Our Real Property Department and my office of Community Participation called the owner of the equipment, told them they had been dumping without a permit and had broken the law. Now there is a law regarding dumping.

The city cited the company with violations." The Mayor continued. "The Corporation agreed to correct the problem. Otherwise, we would have taken the book at them. We would take the company to court, possibly revoke the permit to do business with the city, require compensatory damages, and we would have taken the operator's license. I am letting Whittier and others know they can dump on our neighborhood. They know that it will cost them to do so."

The city has agreed to remove debris, rubbish, and other waste materials from the Sargent Street lots, loan and equipment to the property, and set up stone barriers to prevent further dumping. The city has also agreed to clean and restore property adjoining the Erie Market on Erie Street in Dorchester. The cleanup work has been completed. The Sargent Street work is nearing completion.

Mayor Flynn added, "Thanks to residents in the neighborhood who felt they could get a response from the city, we were able to track this and stop it. This is the first case we've made public, but we have identified at least ten other illegal dumpers.

"We also have inspectors in unmarked cars who, as part of their other duties, are monitoring dump trucks. We plan to post a list of all the lots the city owns — all 19,000 of them — and to mount a public information campaign to encourage people in the neighborhoods to apprise us of dumpers, and we will prosecute to the full extent of the law."

The agreement also stipulates that Whittier shall pay for all labor and materials for the work performed. The city will be introducing a comprehensive legislative package this fall to increase fines for illegal dumping. Mayor Flynn concluded, "Next time we may confiscate the trucks. Illegal dumping won't be allowed."

NATIONAL ISSUES AT BPL

During September and October, the Boston Public Library is sponsoring "National Issues Forums" at the Central Library and in seventeen Branch Libraries. Each of the twenty small discussion groups will address one of three issues: "Difficult Choices about Environmental Protection," "Jobs and the Jobless in a Changing Workplace," and "The Soaring Costs of Health Care." On October 23, 24, and 25, participants from the small discussion groups may attend one of the three National Issues panel forums at the Rabb Lecture Hall, Boston Public Library. There will be local political leaders and esteemed representatives from the fields of health, employment and environment participating in our discussion groups and as panelists for our Rabb Lecture Hall programs. All programs are open to the public.

The Boston Public Library is sponsoring the National Issues Forums in cooperation with the Domestic Policy Association, a Kettering-funded organization dedicated to promoting local discussion of national issues. In April, the Domestic Policy Association will use surveys completed during the Boston Public Library forums to convey public opinion to national policymakers during a nationally televised conference at the John F. Kennedy Library.

WHAT THE UNITED WAY IS ABOUT

Why the United Way?

When you give to the United Way, you are giving the most for your money! Why! It's simple. The United Way of Massachusetts Bay helps one out of three people in eighty-six cities and towns in eastern Massachusetts. We are a local organization, run by local volunteers, dedicated to meeting our community's rising health and human care needs.

What makes the United Way unique?

Why is the United Way the best way to show you care? Four reasons stand out:

1. Responsiveness: This year, we support 183 local health and human service agencies with the money raised from last year's campaign.

2. Cost efficiency: Of every dollar contributed to the United Way, 88 cents goes for services; just 12 cents is spent for administration and fund raising combined.

3. Accountability: Local volunteers examine community needs and review agencies to make sure money is well spent and goes where it's needed most.

4. Flexibility: We shift funds to meet changing community needs and emergencies throughout the year. We also add qualified agencies every year. If you need help.

PWD ANNOUNCES RECONSTRUCTION SCHEDULES

The City of Boston's Public Works Department announced the continuing resurfacing project for the South End, South Boston, and Roxbury Area. The renovation cost for South Boston is $245,000, for South End $80,000, and for Roxbury $35,000, and the district's streets should be completed by September 24, October 1, and October 20 in that order.

In the winter months, particularly, hazardous conditions are made significantly worse by unpaved roads. Therefore, in order to keep our streets up to adequate safety standards and minimize the public risk, it is necessary to make these substantial repairs now. The city and the DPW are grateful for the public's cooperation and patience."

The resurfacing is a 1 1/4" bituminous concrete covering of high quality and should last five years. The following streets will be done:

South Boston:

Athens Street Bridge, Bolton Street Bridge, D Street, Dorchester Street,

COMMISSION ON PHYSICALLY HANDICAPPED

Clerical Support

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Due to the problems in resolving a quagmire and unexpected additional time needed to complete the project, I am forced to write this letter in a late status. I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and award a contract to Dunhill Temporary Services, Inc., located at 5 Faneuil Hall Market Place, Boston, for clerical support.

Under the terms of the contract, Dunhill shall sign a clerical person to organize resources for a revised edition of Access to Boston. This is a comprehensive listing of public and private services (hotel/motel, food, theatre, health services, etc.) with annotation as to their accessibility for persons with disabilities. However, due to the year of the Access project, the amount needed to complete the book was in excess of $50,000. I now stand ready to respond to community requests for a revised/updated edition. By utilizing the financial support, we will be able to limit the actual cost to the city to $3,348.51 by developing a grant application to present for funding from the private community.

Compensation for this contract shall not exceed the amount of $3,348.51, which I have determined to be reasonable for the work performed. We will advertise this service due to the time constraints placed on us by the funding cycle we have responded to. Following a telephone survey of services, Dunhill responded as the lowest bidder with all the necessary skills required in the field. The duration of the contract will be from 1-1-83 to 4-17-83.

Sincerely,
Doe V. Jones,
Commissioner.

and, however, that all tasks involving litigation approved in advance by Corporation Coun-the city. Charges will be based on hourly t to exceed $110 per hour for attorneys and Therefore, because Choate, Hall and Stewart are ed experts in the field presently represent-fifty hospitals, are knowledgeable of the dent's particular needs, and because the would inure to the city by publicly advertis-

and Hospitals, the contract may be renewed ear under the same terms or those more ame terms to the city, and Aetna Fire Alarm Co., Inc., who was awarded the original contract pursuant to public bidding, has provided excellent services, at a cost I deem to be reasonable, no useful purpose would be served by further

INSPECTIONAL SERVICES DEPARTMENT Razing of Buildings

Dear Mr. Mayor:

The following buildings or structures have been condemned by me as being in an unsafe and dangerous condition. These buildings are a menace to the neighborhood. The locations are 1-9 Corinth Street, Ward 20.

Accordingly, in conformity with the provisions of chapter 802, Acts of 1972, as amended, particularly section 123.1 thereof, I have asked and have received your Honor's permission to enter these various premises and to raze the buildings or structures.

Bidders were requested to submit an aggregate bid for the entire lot of buildings or structures, but to break down their bids to show the charge against each separate address. This breakdown is necessary for later departmental use in billing demolition costs incurred against each separate address. This breakdown is necessary for later departmental use in billing demolition costs incurred against the individual property owner of each house.

We have solicited invitation bids, award to be made to the lowest qualified bidder, and have received the following: Duane Corp., $4,566.45.

Duane Corp. has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work, it carries all necessary insurance and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

The Inspectional Services Commissioner considers the price of this contract as reasonable. Accordingly, the general safety so requiring, I ask your Honor's approval for the awarding, without advertising, as required in the City Charter of a contract in the sum of $4,566.45, to the Duane Corp., 426 Stuart Street, Boston.

Very truly yours,
Anthony Peppicelli,
Commissioner.

sis, programming and related systems maintenance for the IBM 3033 computer located in Room 103, Mr. Tanner will perform this work on a full-time basis, providing assistance with special reports, back-up and maintenance procedures.

Mr. Tanner has done work of this nature in the past and has considerable knowledge in the programming and analysis on the IBM 3033 computer.
I have determined that the cost of this service is reasonable, and therefore no useful purpose would be served by public advertising. This contract will be charged to the account number 1-01-49-290.

Sincerely,
Joseph A. Sarno,
Executive Assistant.

MAYOR'S OFFICE

Services on Intolerance Problems

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with public advertising and award a contract to the Civic Foundation for Boston, Inc. c/o Harold Hestnes, Esquire, 60 State Street, Boston.

Under the terms of the contract, the Civic Foundation will support, through the work program of the Boston Committee, Inc. the joint efforts of the public and private communities in Boston to address the problems of intolerance between classes and races, between races of the same class and among communities and neighborhoods; address the problem of racial violence; and increase the participation of racially, ethnically, and culturally deprived residents in the mainstream of Boston's institutions.

Compensation for all services performed, including necessary equipment, travel and all other expenses incurred, in carrying out these duties is not to exceed $200,000, an amount I have determined to be reasonable for the work to be performed. The City Council, as part of the City of Boston's Fiscal Year 1984 budget, ordered a special appropriation to support these activities.

The term of this contract shall begin on July 1, 1983, and end June 30, 1984.

The Civic Foundation for Boston, Inc. was established by local business groups especially to lend financial support to activities to improve all facets of the quality of life in Boston. Since the foundation is receiving funds from private sources as well for this same purpose, it would not be efficient or economical to advertise for this contract.

Sincerely,
Edward T. Sullivan,
Vice-Mayor.

PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT Youth Recreation Program

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with inviting proposals by advertising in the City Record, and to award a contract to the Fund for Parks and Recreation in Boston, Room 816, City Hall, Boston, MA 02201.

The Fund for Parks and Recreation in Boston will administer the Boston Neighborhood Basketball League and coordinate the activities for same during the period July 1, 1983, to August 31, 1983. The sum to be paid will not exceed $80,000, which will be charged to the Parks and Recreation Department Budget 1-11-41(29) Miscellaneous Contractual Services. This is a reasonable rate for the services which will be rendered.

Under the terms of the proposed contract, the Fund for Parks and Recreation in Boston will aid recruitment of city youth in the league, coordinate entry and playoff competition and administer all incidentals in the day-to-day activities of the league.
In so doing, the Fund for Parks and Recreation in Boston will be responsible for all costs pertaining to the league to include, but not be limited to, referee fees, trophies, equipment and transportation.

The Fund for Parks and Recreation in Boston is ideally suited to perform the obligations inherent in this contract due to the fact that its purpose is to promote recreational programs, for residents of the City of Boston among which are youth services programs. It is my opinion that public advertising would serve no useful purpose in this case. I therefore respectfully request your permission be forthcoming to enter into this contract.

Very truly yours,
Robert R. McCoy,
Commissioner.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with inviting proposals by advertising in the City Record, and to award a contract to Colette K. Ayache, 35 Congreve Street, Roslindale, to teach oriental ballet and to conduct slimmastic classes for women from August 3, 1983, to June 26, 1984, forty-seven weeks, fifteen hours per week at $10 per hour. The total cost of these services to be performed by Ms. Ayache is not to exceed $7,050. This is to be charged to the Parks and Recreation Department budget 1-11-41 (29) Miscellaneous Contractual Services. Due to Ms. Ayache's prior excellent performance in providing these services for the Parks and Recreation Department and because of the professional nature of the services, I feel that no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,

Robert R. McCoy,
Commissioner.

SCHOOL DEPARTMENT Policy and Procedure Manual

Dear Mr. Mayor:

As Superintendent of the Boston Public Schools, I request authorization for the award of a contract to Information Mapping, Inc., Lexington. The contract shall be in effect during the period June 16, 1983, to June 30, 1983, and occur at a cost not to exceed $8,876, which is deemed to be reasonable.

The contractor will provide a policy and procedure manual for school administrators that will provide and clarify procedures for student attendance/dropout reporting, and follow-up and record maintenance.

The contractor is especially qualified to provide the above services because of their unique set of integrated methods, principles, and standards for efficiently analyzing and redesigning procedures, and writing and presenting information to insure a reliable data base. Their method replaces traditional structured writing procedural manuals with information blocks and information maps which provide flexibility, modularity, and retrievability of information and effective and efficient statistical data collection.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this agreement and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is my determination that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

The only suitable time to do this project was at the end of the school year so that complete school records for the past year would be available, and so the manual and training would be completed by schools' opening in September.

This material is being submitted late because preliminary analysis of the scope of the project exceeded the time limits originally projected.

Very truly yours,

Robert R. Spillane,
Superintendent.

RAYMOND L. FLYNN

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE, MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

 PRESIDENT, CITY COUNCIL

NO. 40

MAYOR FLYNN INTRODUCES THREE NEW BUSINESSES

Mayor announces BLDC loan approval for businesses moving to Roslindale.

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn has announced that Kinetic Systems, Inc., a manufacturer and designer of highly specialized vibration isolation systems, has received approval from the Boston Local Development Corporation (BLDC) for a interest loan of $172,800.

The loan is a portion of a fifteen-year, $576,000 total loan package arranged through BLDC, a private nonprofit corporation affiliated with the Economic Development and Industrial Corporation (EDIC/Boston), in conjunction with the U.S. Steel Company. The loan will be used for the purchase of a 36,000 square-foot, eight-story manufacturing building on 77,000 square feet of land at 18-26 Arboreoad in Roslindale. Kinetic will occupy 50 percent of the total building.

BLDC provided the initial real estate assistance, identified the Roslindale site, and offered further assistance to other companies which will be occupying the remaining available space.

Kinetic Systems, Inc., a family-owned business founded in 1968 by Mike Gerety, the company's owner and chief executive officer, manufactures vibration isolation tables and systems for use in industrial research, semiconductor fabrication, and genuine quality control and laboratory testing.

In addition to announcing the loan approval, Mayor Flynn introduced the three new businesses which will lease space at the Roslindale site. Commonwealth Roofing, Inc., and American Fire Equipment Co., from Needham are all new businesses to the City of Boston. "This is another example of our continuing commitment to bring economic and industrial development to all neighborhoods in Boston," Mayor Flynn said. "It represents the continued expansion of business and employment in the City." Marilyn Swartz Lloyd, director of the City of Boston, explained the low-interest loan which resulted through the cooperation of the city's public and private sectors. "The public/private partnership that we have developed in the City of Boston allows us to combine a number of creative elements which bring together businesses and economic prospects to all Boston's neighborhoods," Lloyd emphasized.

Kinetics Systems presently employs twenty-two, full-time and seven part-time workers, including 59 percent who are Boston residents and 23 percent who are minorities. The jobs include entry-level positions, clerical, machinists, technicians, and engineers, as well as managerial and sales personnel.

Company President Gertel recently hired three new employees, all Boston residents, and plans to eventually increase his work force to thirty-four, full-time, and twelve, part-time employees. "Many of our employees depend on public transportation and in our new location we are only a short distance from the Forest Hills MBTA station. We relocated in Roslindale because we feel the area has many good qualities, including access to transportation."

In addition, companies occupying leased space will employ a total of forty-two full-time positions and nineteen, part-time jobs in fields ranging from roofing, furniture finishing, and fire equipment sales and installation.

MASSHEALTH ACTION ALLIANCE

Action for Boston Community Development (ABCD), Boston's official anti-poverty agency, announced in September its affiliation with the MassHealth Action Alliance. A principal mandate of ABCD is to "address itself successfully to activities having a measurable and potentially major impact on the causes of poverty in the community and those areas of the community where poverty is a particularly acute problem." The MassHealth Action Alliance, a coalition of over twenty Massachusetts citizens groups, recognizes that a major cause of poverty in Massachusetts is the spiraling cost of health care. Massachusetts residents spend more than 20 percent above the national average for health care and in cities like Boston, people pay 40 percent above the national average for hospital care.

In the MassHealth Action Alliance, ABCD joined with the Massachusetts Association of Older Americans (MAOA), the Massachusetts Senior Action Council, Massachusetts Fair Share, the Caucus and Center on Black Aged, the Boston Elderly Commission, the Older Women's League, Cape United Elderly, La Alianza Hispana, and the Villers Foundation.

As a result of health care hearings held in Boston, Cape Cod, and Westfield, which documented the personal difficulties and outrage Massachusetts seniors are experiencing under our "sick" health care system, ABCD and other organizations are preparing a statewide series of actions to bring attention to the needs of the elderly, the poor, the unemployed, those with special needs, and minorities.

On September 13th, MassHealth Action Alliance sponsored rallies across the state, asking legislators to support programs which bring relief to those suffering under the current health care system.

In addition, a "Health Action '84" campaign will mobilize older voters to make health care a major issue in our state and federal governments. Older people themselves will become empowered to make their needs known and to demand action in this election year. We are urging elders to register and vote for the health of it!

Stueart of Wellesley, dean, Simmons College Graduate School of Library and Information Science. In addition, the Library's Professional Staff Association and the collective bargaining units affiliated with AFL/CIO have been asked by the trustees to name representatives to serve on the Screening Committee.

Members of the Board of Trustees of the Boston Public Library are William M. Bulger, Berthe M. Gaines, Doris Kearns Goodwin, Marianne Rea Luthin, and Kevin F. Moloney, president.

BRA RENOVATION PROJECT IN SOUTH END

The Boston Redevelopment Authority has designated a South End resident to renovate a former furniture warehouse on East Concord Street into twenty-six low- and moderate-income apartments.

The $1.3-million project will be carried out by Old Boston Restorations, a firm headed by David Parker. The BRA designation requires that eighteen of the units be available for moderate-income residents and that eight of the units be available for low-income rentals.

BRA Director Stephen Coyle said, "We are selecting a developer who has made a commitment to produce low- and moderate-income housing by renovating a structure which is currently in deplorable condition. Further, this developer is able to start work on the project almost immediately and that's of vital importance for a building which is in dire need of major structural repairs."

A rate of $8 per inch of 12 lines (set solid) has been established for such advertisements as under the law must be printed in the City Record. Advertising and other copy must, except in emergencies, be in hand at the City Record office by noon, Monday of each week to insure its publication in the following Monday's issue.

Coyle said the development has been reviewed and recommended by the Worcester Square Neighborhood Association.

The project will consist of four, one-bedroom units; ten, one-bedroom units; eleven, two-bedroom units; and three-bedroom unit.

The vote of the BRA Board requires that the developer provide a minimum of eight low-income units for at least five years. The BRA also prohibits conversion of the project to condominium at least five years and if conversion takes place, a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the units will be used to fund neighborhood revitalization and housing rehabilitation in the South End.

"T" PACT WITH CONTRACTORS ASSOCIATION

The MBTA Board of Directors recently approved a one-year extension of a contract with the Contractors Association of Boston (CAB) to provide supportive services aimed at increasing participation of minority and women-owned businesses in the South Corridor Project.

Under the $461,000 agreement, CAB will provide a range of services to eligible firms, including notification of Authority projects and technical assistance in preparation of proposals. CAB will also assess their track record, financial and bonding capabilities, and other specific needs.

Monitoring of workforce utilization is another important aspect of the contract. Participation of Disadvantaged Business Enterprises (DBEs) in the South Corridor Project construction increased from 14.6 percent to 18.5 percent over the last twelve months.

"Improving the participation of women and minority workers in construction projects is an important aspect of the comprehensive affirmative action program adopted last June by the Board of Directors," MBTA General Manager James F. O'Leary said. "It is a step toward our goal of achieving equal employment opportunity for everyone."

The board also authorized an agreement with Hugh Stubbins/Carter Blanco to modernize South Station, including extension of the platform to accommodate six-car trains, ators, new elevators to make the on accessible to the handicapped, public address system, realignment of track, power and signal improvements, and complete refinishing interior. Cost of the project, which scheduled for completion in 1985, is $237. Red Line Station platforms from al Square to Andrew are being renovated to allow the use of six-car trains in 1986.

NATIONAL FUNDING FOR HISPANIC VOTER REGISTRATION

National Puerto Rican/Hispanic Participation Project, Inc. announced at a press conference in Union Corner, that Boston, along with Framingham, Holyoke, and Weymouth, will receive funding to register Hispanics to vote. The voter participation project is an independent, privately funded organization based in Union, New Jersey.

Mayor Flynn said, "As a general trend, in the United States, the more you are the less likely you are to vote. Over 178,000 of the 1.3 million unregistered voters in our Commonwealth live in our city. Of those who are not registered, roughly 50 percent of them are Hispanic.

"This project," the Mayor continued, "is the first step for Massachusetts to become involved in a national effort to register new Hispanic voters, and I am proud to have been a part of the effort to bring this important funding to our city and state."

The money from the voter registration project will fund a coordinator and assistants and will provide a stipend for volunteers for their transportation, and childcare costs in order to allow them to work on the project in each city. Unregistered voters will be identified and encouraged to register. One coordinator in each city will be a registered voter, a sort of "traveling office" will move throughout the Hispanic neighborhoods targeted to register new voters. Flyers and voter educational materials will also be funded through the registration project.

John Pola, the director of the Mayor's Office of Constituent Services said, "This is a five-year effort. We want to begin working around the dismal statistics in this city and this state regarding Hispanic registration. This money will help us do that."

Henry Gonzalez, Esq., coordinator of Field Operations for the National Puerto Rican/Hispanic Voter Participation Project, Inc., pointed out that "Massachusetts is a challenging state for us because of the lack of Hispanic elected officials and the current lack of voter participation in the Hispanic communities. By registering and voting, Hispanics will begin to have more voice in their local and state government."

Other states funded by the project include Connecticut, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, and Illinois.

GIVING AND RECEIVING

The United Way of Massachusetts Bay is an integral part of our community. So much so, in fact, that it's often easy to take for granted its impact on our daily lives. But right now, as United Way volunteers are attempting to raise a record $35,230,000, its appropriate to consider just how much the United Way means to all of us.

We need only look around to see the United Way's 183 health and human service agencies at work throughout eighty-six communities in eastern Massachusetts. This year, more than one million people — one out of every three — in Massachusetts will be helped by United Way agencies. These agencies work to alleviate such contemporary problems as hunger and homelessness, child abuse and neglect, and drug and alcohol abuse. United Way agencies also work to prevent problems by supporting programs for community and youth development through local YMCAs and YWCAs, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, boys and girls clubs, neighborhood centers, and more.

So our local United Way is a vital part of our community. But why is it one of the best ways to show we care about one another? Five reasons stand out: First, the United Way is responsive to a wide range of service needs. Second, it is a local organization, channeling contributor's dollars back into the local community. Third, the United Way is very cost efficient, spending 88 cents of every dollar pledged for services and just 12 cents for administration and fund raising combined. Fourth, the United Way is accountable, with local volunteers examining community needs and reviewing agencies to make sure money goes where it's needed most. Fifth, the United Way is flexible, shifting funds to meet changing community needs every year.

This year, as local demand for services continues to rise dramatically, the United Way is counting on our help. It's a question of giving and receiving. Every day throughout the year, your neighbor, friends, and fellow workers count on the United Way's help. Chances are one in three that you will, too. So please, be generous when the United Way calls on you during this year's drive — September 6 through November 20.

SEXUAL ASSAULT UNIT COMMUNITY MEETINGS

Alana Murphy, Mayor Flynn's Advisor on Women's Affairs, and the Boston Police Department are sponsoring a series of neighborhood forums to acquaint residents of each section of the city with the department's new Sexual Assault Unit.

The first meeting took place at the Agassiz Community School, on September 20.

The purpose of the forums is to publicly introduce the members of the Sexual Assault Unit and to outline its specific goals and functions, especially its role in investigating and prosecuting sexual crimes. Residents of each neighborhood will also be encouraged to present their specific concerns and problems.

The complete schedule of meetings will be finalized soon. Any interested group wishing to host similar meetings may contact the unit at 247-4400.

The Sexual Assault Unit became fully operational on July 1, 1984. It is composed of ten officers and two detectives and replaces the old Stop Rape Unit which was composed of a single detective. There are six males and six females in the unit, including one Chinese-speaking officer and one Hispanic-speaking officer.

The unit also works closely with a special assistant district attorney in prosecuting offenders and also conducts an extensive educational program in the community, especially among school-aged children, about the dangers of sexual assault, as well as methods of protection.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK PARADE

The Boston Fire Department, Fire Safety Council, Boston Sparks Association, and the Boston Fire Museum invite your participation again this year in the Annual Fire Prevention Week Parade to be held in Boston on Sunday Afternoon, October 7, 1984, commencing at 1 p.m.

Another large gathering of modern and antique fire apparatus is expected, with awards to be presented for the "Newest Unit," "Oldest Unit," that unit which "Traveled Farthest," to participate and the grand award "Best of Parade."

The parade begins at 1 p.m. at the Boston Fire Museum, at 344 Congress Street, rain or shine, and ends about two miles away at the Boston Common ballfield, where light refreshments will be served to participants and awards will be presented, and a mini-muster will be held.

All marching units and apparatus will meet at 12 noon at the Fire Museum on Congress Street. Participants will receive specific staging locations at that time. The reviewing stand will be located near Boston City Hall, where the judges will evaluate units. After the parade, apparatus will be displayed on the Common during the Fire Prevention Activities.

MAYOR LAUDS CITY EMPLOYEES

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn praised the efforts of city workers who volunteered to help staff the Election Department. In the past, the city has hired temporary employees who were paid $7 per hour to work on Election Day.

The volunteer effort, which was coordinated by Budget Director Stuart Vidockler, involved eighty-one city employees from thirty-one departments. By using the volunteer workers rather than hiring temporary employees, the city saved more than $3,000.

"So far, this election has been one of the best ever," said Mayor Flynn. "The cooperation between workers and department heads shows a real willingness to work together to benefit the city."

"The staffing of the Election Department by volunteer city workers is really an experiment," continued the Mayor. "Because of its success, we plan in future elections to increase the number of volunteers, and at the same time save the city additional money."

BOSTON HOSTS JAPANESE POTTER

The Mayor's Office of Business and Cultural Development hosted a reception for noted Japanese potter, Toshio Ohi, at Boston City Hall, on Friday, September 28, 1984. Ohi is a student in the artisanry program at Boston University. His progenitors were renowned pottery masters of the raku style. He represents the eleventh generation.

Among the guests who attended the reception were Rosemarie Sansone, director of the Mayor's Office of Business and Cultural Development, the Consul General of Japan, Sadakazu Taniguchi, and other Japanese dignitaries and the Executive Vice-President of Boston University, Dr. Edward Penn. Toshio Ohi's father also flew in from Japan for the exhibition.

"It is a tremendous honor for the City of Boston to be able to sponsor an exhibition of this kind, which is clearly of the first calibre," said Rosemarie Sansone after viewing Ohi's "Traditional Vessels and Sea Images."

The Ohi exhibition will be on display through October 16.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without advertising, based on the following communications:

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT

Personnel Division

Legal Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request authorization to dispense with public advertising in the award of a contract to Attorney Lawrence J. Ball of Ten Tremont Street, Boston, in an amount not to exceed $30,000, for the period July 1, 1983, to June 30, 1984.

The purpose of this contract is to provide department with advice, consultation and representation relative to Civil Service and personnel laws. We wish to award this contract to Mr. Ball because Mr. Ball is an expert in the areas of Civil Service and personnel. The rate of compensation shall be $75 per hour, not to exceed a total of $30,000, an amount which I have determined to be reasonable.

In view of the professional nature of the services to be performed, I see no practical purpose to be served by further public advertising for these services.

Very truly yours,

Edward T. Sullivan,
Director.

Purchasing Division

Computer Equipment, etc.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Sears Business Store, located at 1100 Burlington Mall, Burlington.

Under the terms of the contract, MIS will purchase: one IBM personal computer 128K, with two double-sided double-density disc drives; one IBM Monochrome display and printer adapter; one IBM color graphics monitor adapter; two IBM color display; one DOS 1.1; one Visicalc.

The Police Department has been training on a consultant's equipment and now needs their own equipment immediately. The consultant's program required a specific computer configuration and only an IBM personal computer could accomplish its goals. IBM makes its personal computers available at only three locations: IBM, Computerland, and Sears Business Store. Neither IBM nor Computerland had this equipment in stock and IBM recommended that we contact Sears Business Store, where the equipment was on hand.

This contract is necessary because the customer vendor, IBM, is unable to deliver the above items in an expedient manner. Since the products to be purchased are standard products and are uniformly priced, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose and would only result in further delay.

The total amount to be expended under this contract will be $4,771.92, a sum which I consider to be

CONTRACTS AWARDED

The Mayor has approved the award of following contracts to the lowest bidders:

Furnishing and delivering paint materials to Spark Plugs

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Under state law, any Massachusetts municipality may make purchases under state contracts which have been publicly advertised and awarded by the Collective Purchasing Bureau, Department of Administration and Finance. In order to take advantage of these state contracts, the city's Law Department has ruled that the city must award its own contract, based on the state awards.

Because this can only be accomplished by dispensing with public advertising, your permission is therefore requested to award a contract, without public advertisement, to the following company which is the lowest acceptable bidder on publicly advertised bids for spark plugs for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and have existing contracts with the Department of Administration and Finance.

B & D Electric Co., Inc., 5,000 regular plugs, at $.74 = $3,700; 25,000 resistor plugs, at $.81 = $20,250; total, $23,950.

Therefore, permission is requested to award a contract, without advertising, to B & D Electric Co., Inc., 46 Arsenal Street, Watertown, in the amount of $23,950, net, a cost I consider reasonable.

Respectfully yours,
Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

Steel Containers

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On July 1, 1982, after public advertising, contract No. 5132 was awarded to Sherman Disposal Company, 172 Hampden Street, Roxbury, for leasing two 20-cubic-yards capacity, all-steel containers to be situated at the Boston Police stable located at Franklin Park, Jamaica Plain. These containers will be picked up twice a week on Monday and Friday for $135 per load, $540 per week.

Since the vendor has agreed to hold his price for the next year, I feel no useful purpose would be served by public advertisement. Therefore, authority is requested to award a contract to Sherman Disposal Company, 172 Hampden Street, Roxbury, for the period July 1, 1983, to June 30, 1984, in the amount of $28,080, 2 percent TP, a cost I consider reasonable.

Respectfully yours,
Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

ASSESSING DEPARTMENT Computer Software

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and award a contract to Bolt, Beranek & Newman, Inc., Cambridge, for use of its RS/1 computer software.

Under the terms of this contract, the contractor shall supply the Assessing Department with maintenance of specialized computer software that has been developed by BBN especially for the needs of the data base management system such as that being installed in the Assessing Department as part of its revaluation of real and personal property within the City of Boston. BBN is uniquely qualified to supply this computer software and maintenance thereof. Research into the feasibility of using alternative systems has clearly indicated the advantages of the RS/1 system to be contracted for.

Compensation under this contract shall not exceed $3,825, which I have determined to be reasonable for the work to be performed.

The term of this contract shall be from July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984.

Because of the professional nature of the work to be performed, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Sincerely,
Edward W. Jay, Jr.,
Commissioner.

ELECTION DEPARTMENT Consultant Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to William L. Barry, an individual located at 11 Charme Avenue, Roslindale, for consulting services.

Under the terms of this contract, Mr. Barry will assist the Board of Election Commissioners on the compilation of the Annual Report, the processing and certification of nomination and initiative petitions, the conduct of the City Preliminary and the canvass of the votes, the conduct of the City Election and the canvass of the votes, the conduct of the Presidential Primary and the canvass of the votes.

Mr. Barry is uniquely qualified to perform this work because of his long experience and intimate knowledge of the electoral process and the election laws. Mr. Barry was employed for forty years with the Boston Election Commission holding all positions in the department, retiring on October 31, 1980, as supervisor of elections. May the board further point out that the Election Commission at this time, because of retirements, has very few experienced employees.

Compensation under this contract shall not exceed $30,000 for professional services which the Board of Election Commissioners has deemed to be reasonable for the work to be performed.

The term of this contract shall be July 11, 1983, to April 30, 1984. This contract shall be charged to appropriation code 1-01-21-29. Compensation shall be at the rate of $30 per hour.

Respectfully submitted,
Michael A. Joyce,
Chairman.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Eugene C. Hillis, an individual located at 17 Dickinson Road, Brighton, for consulting services.

Under the terms of this contract, Mr. Hillis will assist the Board of Election Commissioners in the setting up of the absentee ballot system, i.e. receiving and processing absentee applications, processing absentee ballots, and establishing a security system for absentee ballots.

Mr. Hillis is uniquely qualified to perform this work because of his long experience and intimate knowledge of the laws relating to absentee ballots. Mr. Hillis was employed by the Boston Election Commission for fourteen years and retired on July 8, 1980, as an Election Commissioner.

May the Board further point out that the Election Commission has been subject to court challenges and investigations in the past due to untrained personnel processing absentee ballots.

The board feels in awarding this contract to Mr. Hillis it will stabilize the absentee process.

Compensation under this contract shall not exceed $20,000 for professional services to be rendered which the Board of Election Commissioners has deemed to be reasonable for the work to be performed.

The term of this contract shall be July 11, 1983, to April 30, 1984. Compensation shall be at the rate of $20 per hour.

Respectfully submitted,
Michael A. Joyce,
Chairman.

HEALTH AND HOSPITALS DEPARTMENT Shelter for Homeless

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to Trustees of Health and Hospitals, 725 Massachusetts Avenue, for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $330,000.

Under this contract, the Trustees of Health and Hospitals will supply, subject to departmental approval, personnel services for the operation of the Shelter for the Homeless in the Tobin Building, Long Island Hospital. The persons employed under this contract must be sensitive to the issue of homelessness and must have a long background deal with this complex problem.

Inasmuch as the Trustees of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston, Inc., a nonprofit organization, have demonstrated their expertise in recruitment and fiscal management at a reasonable cost, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

Because the City Council did not appropriate funds for these services until the end of June, this letter of award is being submitted late.

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Various Public Health Services

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to Trustees of Boston University, acting by the Boston University School of Medicine, 80 East Concord Street, for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $274,357.

Under this contract, the university will provide salaries for seven physicians and two epidemiologists. They will provide city-wide services in the areas of community epidemiology, environmental health hazards and health needs planning; public school health and community education services; collaborate with the neighborhood health center to integrate public health and primary care services; identify health risks on Boston; and develop primary and secondary prevention programs that are appropriate to address these problems. The university will also provide computer services, including system hardware, software and systems support to the Community Health Services Division of the Department of Health and Hospitals.

Therefore, because of the professional nature of the services to be rendered, and because the cost is reasonable, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

This letter of award is being submitted late because of prolonged contract negotiations.

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Geriatrics Services

uant to the authority delegated to me by the
of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully re-our Honor's permission to award, without sing, a contract to the Trustees of Boston City, acting by the Boston University School of Health, School of Medicine, 80 East Concord Street, for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $36,510.

For this contract, the university shall provide a physician specializing in geriatrics to plan and develop long-term care services for the City of Boston. The aforesaid personnel shall serve under this contract. The individual assignment to the contract will be by the university with the approval of the Department of Health and Hospitals.

Because of the special fitness of the university to provide these services, because of the personal and professional nature of the services to be provided and as the cost, in my opinion, is reasonable,
I hereby respectfully requested to dispense with public advertising and award this contract to the university under the terms and conditions above.

This letter of award is being submitted late, because of prolonged contract negotiations.

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

X-ray Tubes

uant to the authority delegated to me by the Department of Health and Hospitals, I hereby request your Honor's permission to extend for five months, without advertising, the following contracts for furnishing X-ray tubes to the Department of Health and Hospitals for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1983:

General Electric Medical System, $50,000, no advance payment; Radiology Unlimited, $10,000, net thirty days from date of invoice;
Dunbar Corporation of Mass., $50,000, no discount on the original contracts, at the option of the Department, the contracts may be renewed for five months under the same terms or those more favorable to the city.

Therefore, as the contracts are being extended on the same terms to the city and the vendors, I have awarded the original contracts pursuant to public bidding, have provided excellent services, and seem to be reasonable, no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

This letter of award is being submitted late because the department evaluated the services of the vendors before taking the option to renew the above

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Testing Services

uant to the authority delegated to me by the Department of Health and Hospitals, I hereby request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to St. Margaret's Hospital for 90 Cushing Avenue, Dorchester, for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $3,500.

For this contract, St. Margaret's Hospital will perform cephaladex tests at $23.50 per test and Bilirubin tests at $9.40 per test. These tests are required for newborns at Boston City Hospital.

This contract is necessary because these tests are not performed at Boston City Hospital. St. Margaret's Hospital is the sole provider of these services.

Because of the special fitness of St. Margaret's Hospital to provide these services, and because the cost is reasonable, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

This letter of award is being submitted late due to the evaluation of the costs of the tests to be performed.

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Clinical Pathologist

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I hereby request
your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to Dr. Bernard Statland, c/o University Hospital, 75 East Newton Street, for the provision of consulting services in clinical chemistry in compliance with the requirements of the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals, during the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $24,000.

Under this contract, for the flat fee of $24,000 per year, Dr. Statland will serve as acting clinical pathologist for Boston City Hospital, a position required by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals. Dr. Statland will act as a consultant for all laboratory issues. He will meet with the laboratory managers on a weekly basis, will review all quality control procedures for the laboratories, will assist in developing new methodologies and will input into decisions for capital equipment purchases. The hospital is continuing to search for a full-time clinical pathologist.

Because of Dr. Statland's special expertise in the field of clinical chemistry, the professional nature of the services to be provided and the importance of remaining in full compliance with the requirements of the Joint Commission of Accreditation of Hospitals, and as the cost, in my opinion, is reasonable, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Orthopedic Implants, etc.

Dear Sir:

An invitation for bids for orthopedic instrumentation implants and accessories and related O.R. supplies, Proposal No. 212, was advertised in the City Record on May 9, 1983. Bids were publicly opened and read on May 26, 1983.

Certain medical supplies are generic and are freely interchangeable and therefore the hospital will select the lowest cost, acceptable item. Orthopedic instrumentation implants and accessories are not generic items and differ with each manufacturer. In the selection of orthopedic instrumentation implants and accessories, price is not the prime consideration. The medical condition of the patient is of paramount importance when determining which implants and accessories will be used. With this in mind, the Department of Health and Hospitals approached the Law Department for permission, which was granted, to have the contract period run for three years.

A defective bid was submitted by the following vendor, but their products are required by the Boston City Hospital.

Therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award a contract, without advertising, to the following vendor who submitted a bid with prices that I consider reasonable:

Cordis Corporation, Florida, $60,000, net thirty days, FOB destination.

The above contract amount is approximate figures based on estimated volumes. The contract period is July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1986.

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Blood Donor Program

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I hereby request
your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to the Trustees of Boston University, Division of Hematology, 80 East Concord Street, for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $9,000.

Under this contract, the Trustees of Boston university, Division of Hematology, will perform consulting services in the Blood Bank at Boston City Hospital. The hospital is initiating a Blood Donor Program and according to regulations the program must be overseen by a physician. This physician will coordinate all activities between the hospital and Donor Resource Systems, Inc., the vendor handling the recruitment program, will resolve any questions raised regarding donors, and will provide for antologous transfusion and preoperative deposit. All the services will be rendered for the flat fee of $9,000 per year. This program should dramatically decrease the hospital's expenses incurred when procuring blood from the American Red Cross.

Therefore, because of the professional nature of the services to be rendered, and because the cost is reasonable, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Plasma

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to American Association of Blood Banks, California, for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $51,612.

Under this contract, the American Association of Blood Banks will supply plasma through AABB National Clearinghouse Blood Cooperative at a cost of $18 per unit plus .40 cents transaction fee per unit.

Because of the special fitness of American Association of Blood Banks to render these services, as the price, in my opinion, is reasonable, and because of the nature of the services to be provided, no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

This letter of award is being submitted late due to reevaluation of the cost of the contract.

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Ratio Testing

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I hereby request
your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to Brigham & Women's Hospital, 10 Vining Street, for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $5,000.

Under this contract, Brigham & Women's Hospital will perform L/S ratio testing for Boston City Hospital patients at a cost of $65/test before 2 p.m. and $135/test after 2 p.m. and weekends.

Therefore, because Brigham & Women's Hospital is the only vendor in the area that performs this test on a stat basis, and also because the cost, in my opinion is reasonable, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

This letter of award is being submitted late because of difficulties encountered in locating an institution which could perform these tests on a stat basis.

Very truly yours,

Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Ambulatory Care Physicians

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to renew, without advertising, the city's contract with the Trustees of Boston University, acting by the Boston University School of Medicine, to provide physicians' clinical services in the Primary Care Center of the Ambulatory Care Center for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $256,450.

Under this contract, the university will provide qualified physicians for specified positions to render clinical services in the Ambulatory Care Center of the Department of Health and Hospitals. The aforesaid physicians will serve under the department. The individual assignments to the positions will be by the university with the approval of the department.

Because of the special fitness of the university to provide these services, because of the personal and professional nature of the services to be provided, and as the cost, in my opinion, is reasonable, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

This letter of award is being submitted late due to prolonged contract negotiations.

Very truly yours,

Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Hormone Testing Services

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to Trustees of Boston University, 80 East Concord Street, recipient Dr. Wotiz, for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $4,000.

Under this contract, Dr. Wotiz will perform hormone testing to include 3D receptor assay, estrogen receptor assay at $80 per test, progesterone assays at $30 per test, and a combination estrogen and progesterone receptor assay at $110 per test.

Because of the special fitness of the university to provide these services, because Dr. Wotiz is particularly qualified to perform the needed tests and also because the cost is reasonable, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

This letter of award is being submitted late due to the evaluation of the cost of the tests to be performed.

Very truly yours,

Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Mental Health Services

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to University Mental Health Associates, Doctors' Office Building, 720 Harrison Avenue, to provide physicians' services in the Inpatient Services Department at Boston City Hospital for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $94,380.

Under this contract, University Mental Health Associates shall provide one, full-time psychiatrist, one part-time psychologist, and one, part-time psychometrician to render clinical services in the Inpatient Services Department of the Department of Health and Hospitals. The aforesaid physicians will serve under the department. The individual assignments to the positions will be made by the University Mental Health Associates with the approval of the Department.

The amount to be paid under this contract will be $50,000 for a full-time psychiatrist; $19,999 for a part-time psychologist; $9,000 for a part-time psychometrician; plus fringe benefits of $16,380.

Because of the special fitness of University Mental Health Associates to provide these services, because of the personal and professional nature of the services to be provided, and as the cost, in my opinion, is reasonable, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids. This letter of award is being submitted late due to evaluation of cost.

Very truly yours,

Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Computer Hardware Repair, etc.

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to Digital Equipment Corporation, Waltham, for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $46,100.

Under this contract, Digital Equipment Corporation will provide computer hardware repair and maintenance service, including parts, labor and travel for the equipment listed as follows: Digital PDP 11/34 computer system: DEC service Monday-Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding locally observed DEC holidays; Digital PDP 11/70 computer system: DEC service Monday-Sunday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding locally observed DEC holidays; Console Terminal: DEC service Monday-Sunday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding locally observed DEC holidays; and Peripheral Equipment: basic service Monday-Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding locally observed DEC holidays.

Inasmuch as the equipment is of a highly specialized nature, as Digital Equipment Corporation is the manufacturer and the price, in my opinion, is reasonable, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,

Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Welfare Claims Services

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to Kent and Pamp, Danvers, for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $30,000.

The department routinely makes applications to the Commonwealth's Department of Public Welfare on behalf of patients which it has reason to believe are qualified for welfare benefits contributing to the cost of their care. Under this contract, Kent and Pamp will provide a variety of services in the welfare claims and appeals for Boston City, Mattapan, and Long Island Hospitals, all at an hourly rate of $60. More specifically they will: provide consulting services to departmental managers on a needed basis; assist in training departmental employees to better process and handle applications and claims; and subject to the approval of the department counsel, provide legal representation to the department on those selected cases where department determines merit judicial review.

Therefore, because Kent and Pamp are considered the experts in the state of Massachusetts in handling welfare claims and because the cost will be provided at a reasonable cost, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly bids,

Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Infusion Pumps, etc.

Dear Sir:

An invitation for bids, Proposal No. 120, for medical equipment for the Department of Health and Hospitals was advertised in the City Record, June 16, 1983 for immediate delivery. Bids were received, opened and read on June 6, 1983. Ten companies were solicited to bid and ten companies responded to the invitation to bid.

The department has decided to reject the bids submitted for Items 6, 7, and 10 of Proposal No. 120, and award the contract to a bidder who submitted an alternate proposal to the above items. Items 6 and 7 were for infusion pumps for Mattapan, Long Island Hospitals but PRC Medical Specialists submitted an alternate proposal for consultation. Upon consultation with the biomedical engineering department of Boston City Hospital it was decided that since patients at Long Island and Mattapan Hospitals would not be using arterial lines the lowest priced controllers could be used satisfactorily.

Item 10 specified Gaymar hyper-hypothermia equipment or equal. PRC Medical Specialists submitted an alternate proposal for Cincinnati Sub-Zero hyper-hypothermia equipment at a price. At the time the bid was advertised, the Cincinnati Sub-Zero equipment was just introduced on the market and the department was unaware of its existence. Clinical evaluations were done and it was found that the Cincinnati Sub-Zero equipment had a lower noise level than the Gaymar equipment did not throw excess heat into the area and it was impossible to hook-up the equipment the wrong. Biomedical Engineering preferred the Cincinnati Sub-Zero equipment for technical considerations and thought the quality of the equipment was superior and it would perform better in the long run.

Therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, to the following vendor at a cost I consider reasonable: PRC Medical Specialists, South Weymouth, $10,704 plus freight, thirty days, FOB South Weymouth.

Because evaluations were not conducted until late in June and the necessary paper work could not be submitted until the unliquidated reserve was approved this letter of award is being submitted late.

Very truly yours,

Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

LAW DEPARTMENT

The contractor is uniquely qualified to perform this service. It has been providing this service to the city for six years in a professional and timely manner.

Given the professional nature of the services performed, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,
James P. McGuire,
Corporation Counsel.

Legal Services

Mr. Mayor:
I respectfully request your permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Erlin, Hime Associates, Inc., materials and consultants, of Illinois.
Under the terms of the contract, Erlin, Hime Associates, Inc. will provide the City of Boston the services specified. The services will be rendered in connection with the case of *City of Boston v. Very truly yours,
James P. McGuire,
Corporation Counsel.

Materials for Renovations

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Under the terms of this contract, the contractor shall purchase paint, light fixtures, locker parts and plumbing supplies to be used to further renovate their facility. The term of this contract shall be from July 1, 1983, to June 30, 1984, and shall be funded under program Year IX of the Community Development Block Grant program. This request has been delayed due to continued negotiation with the contractor.

As this is a negotiated contract and because of the reasonable cost of the materials to be purchased, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose. I, therefore, request approval to dispense with inviting sealed bids by advertising in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
Paul S. Grogan,
Director.

Various Job Training

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to contract with the Economic Development and Industrial Corporation/Boston Technical Center, a nonprofit organization with offices at 660 Summer Street, for the operation of a cable television program for thirty CETA participants. Under the terms of the contract, the participants will be trained in the areas of installation and construction pole/ladder climbing and safety; basic electronics; cable lashing/installation and overall systems operation. In addition, first aid and customer relation training will be provided to the participants.

The contractor was selected based on its successful operation of this type of program with Cablevision of Boston, and based on the merits of its proposal in the areas of program and curriculum design and cost effectiveness. This program is being funded under the Boston Private Industry Council business partnership initiative.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the City of Boston through a federal government grant under Title VII of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) Amendments of 1978, P.L. 95-524. The contract will be effective for the period July 1, 1983, through September 30, 1983, a total cost not to exceed $31,500. This request is retroactive due to the time involved in negotiating final program structure and funding level.

As this is a negotiated contract at a reasonable cost, which conforms to federal procurement requirements for CETA programs, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising. I therefore request approval to dispense with inviting sealed bids by advertising in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,

Paul S. Grogan,
Director.

OFFICE OF HOUSING Establishing Rehabilitation Fund

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to the First American Bank for Savings, a banking association located at 572 Columbia Road, Dorchester, for the Rental Rehabilitation Program, a principal subsidy program to provide homeowners in four residential districts with financing at lower interest rates and for longer terms than is usually available to undertake property improvements.

Under the terms of the agreement, the First American Bank for Savings will receive a deposit of funds from the city's Community Development Block Grant under a lump-sum drawdown, and will hold these funds in a rehabilitation account pending their use as a subsidy deposit in conjunction with home improvement loans with longer terms and lower interest rates. As below-market rate loans are made to property owners in the target areas, funds will be transferred from the interest-bearing rehabilitation account to an interest-free escrow account to be drawn down as the rehabilitation work is completed. At all times these funds remain the possession of the City of Boston.

The First American Bank for Savings is qualified to do this work because it is one of the largest savings banks in the city, it has many customers in the four target areas (Meetinghouse Hill, Highland Park, Egleston Square, and Hyde Square) and it has the ability to and the interest in making loans for residential property improvements in the city's neighborhoods.

Compensation under this agreement will be $375,000. The First American Bank for Savings will receive and hold this sum until the termination of the agreement. At such time the city shall withdraw the remaining funds and use them for other eligible Community Block Grant activities.

The term of this contract shall be from September 15, 1983, to September 14, 1985.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be performed, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,
Joseph M. Courtney,
Director.

PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT Franklin Field Improvements

Dear Mr. Mayor:

You are respectfully notified that advertised proposals for design services for improvements to Franklin Field, Dorchester, were received in this office on Tuesday, May 24, 1983.

The services to be provided consist of the preparation of plans, specifications, contract documents, construction cost estimates and supervision of construction of improvements to Franklin Field.

Ten firms submitted design proposals which were reviewed and numerically rated by the department's Designer Selection Board. From this rating, the three firms with the highest numerical rating were interviewed and a final selection of Bryant Associates, Inc., as the designer for the project, was made.

The designer's basic fee 10.30 percent. (Public Facilities Department's Memorandum effective January 1, 1980, Architectural Services, Renovation "A" rate) of the presently estimated cost of construction of $320,000, shall not exceed $58,960, including $26,000 for supplementary services.

Bryant Associates, Inc. has performed satisfactory design services for this department in the past, and is qualified to perform the services proposed. The compensation to be paid the firm is fair and reasonable and conforms with the rate paid for similar professional services by other city departments.

Your approval is respectfully requested to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record, and to award this contract to Bryant Associates, 648 Beacon Street, for the sum not to exceed $58,960.

As the proposed contract is to be one for the performance of professional services, a public solicitation for bids would serve no useful purpose. Contract to be charged to Loan Order 6-61-44-699.

Very truly yours,
Robert R. McCoy,
Commissioner.

Rodent Control

Dear Mr. Mayor:

It is respectfully requested that your Honor approve my selection of the Trustees of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston, Inc., with principal offices located at 818 Harrison Avenue, to implement a program of rodent control at the Public Garden, Boston Common, Granary Cemetery, King's Cemetery, and Waterfront Park for a period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $4,875.

The program will include a monthly inspection of all areas starting in July, 1983, to determine the presence of active rodent infestation. The activity will be noted and the burrows poisoned and closed.

A monthly report will be submitted to the Parks and Recreation Department which will detail detected potential infestation or sanitary problems which may lead to increased rodent population. In addition, the contractor will provide a half day's baiting service to coincide with the spring period of high population growth.

Additional monies will be provided under supplementary services to compensate the contractor for any services required in addition to the monthly program and the spring baiting program if due to anticipated outbreak of infestation emergency extermination services are required.

The services to be provided will be paid for the following rates:

Monthly service, 12 months, $350, $350; spring baiting, ½ day at $175, $175; supplementary services, $500; maximum liability, $4,875.

The contractor will utilize the expertise and sources of the Boston Environmental Health Department and is therefore uniquely qualified to perform these services. In my opinion the compensation to be paid is fair and reasonable.

As the proposed contract is one for performance of special services, a public solicitation for bids would serve no useful purpose. Therefore, the City's authorization is requested to dispense with public advertising in the City Record, in the award of this contract.

The proposed contract will be charged to (29) FY '84.

Very truly yours,
Robert R. McCoy,
Commissioner.

POLICE DEPARTMENT Site Rental

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request authorization to dispense with public bidding in the award of a contract to Motorola C & E Inc., New Jersey, in an amount not to exceed $11,034.36, total for a period of time commencing July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984.

The purpose of this contract is to provide site rental atop the Prudential Building for the placement and storage of an emergency generator.

Because of the unique location and height of the Prudential Building, it is believed that public advertising would serve no useful purpose. I have determined that the contract price is reasonable.

Respectfully submitted,
Joseph M. Jordan,
Police Commissioner.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

During the period of July 1, 1982, through June 30, 1983, the Boston Police Department used site rental atop the Prudential Tower for the placement and storage of a police radio antenna and storage of an emergency generator.

A contract for this site was never awarded because the Police Department understood that another city department would handle the matter. It is not the case however. Therefore, I respectfully request authorization to pay a contracted amount not to exceed $10,400 to Motorola C & E Inc., New Jersey, for the purpose of the site rental for generator and storage for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984.

Under the circumstances of this contract, advertising at this point in time would serve no useful purpose. I have determined that the contract price is reasonable.

Respectfully submitted,
Joseph M. Jordan,
Police Commissioner.

Promotional Exam Development

Dear Mr. Mayor:

This department respectfully requests authorization to dispense with public bidding in the act for $20,000 to the consulting firm of Assessment Designs, Inc., Florida, for the purpose of conducting a job-related and valid promotional examination for the position of police sergeant. This is a two-part contract covering fiscal years 1983 and 1984. The first part of the contract which was awarded was for job analysis and overall evaluation of the selection system. The second part of the contract to be completed in fiscal year 1984 for which approval is requested, is for actual conduct of the examination and validation study and the attendant statistical and adverse impact analysis.

Work is being done under the supervision of the Boston Police Department as a result of a court order entered in the case of MAAAP v. Jordan, a suit alleging discrimination in promotion practices. The test development process is being carried out pursuant to a delegation agreement entered into with the Massachusetts Department of Criminal Administration (DPA), a copy of which is attached.

Assessment Designs, Inc. was selected to do this work after careful solicitation and review of proposals from consultants nationwide. A detailed report and proposal was prepared and approved by the Mayor and was released to approximately 105 consultants, using a list of companies with experience in examination development work maintained by the Department and supplemented by our own prior experience.

Within the prescribed response time to the RFP, proposals were received. They were reviewed according to the criteria set forth in the RFP, responsiveness to the proposal to the RFP, and used to assure validity, professional expertise and qualifications, proposed time (security and price) by a five-member review panel including two sworn and two civilian members of the Police Department and a professional expert from the State D.P.A. The Assessment Designs proposal was the unanimous choice of the selection panel as the most appropriate contract. All proposals were also forwarded to counsel the plaintiffs in the MAAAP v. Jordan case, and forwarded them to their selection expert. Plaintiff's counsel has informed us that they concur that the Assessment Designs proposal was the best.

Assessment Designs has had substantial experience in the specialized field of police promotional examination development. They are currently performing work for the New York City Police Department under a similar antiretro to that to be performed under similar legal circumstances. New York has been satisfied with their work and recently renewed their contract to cover another promotional examination.

Assessment Design's substantial experience and qualifications, and in light of the extensive work process already undertaken, it is determined that no useful purpose would be served by advertising for this contract. I have determined that the contract price is reasonable for the work to be performed. The period of this contract is from July 1, 1983, to June 30, 1984.

Very truly yours,
Joseph M. Jordan,
Police Commissioner.

Procedures Evaluation

Dear Mr. Mayor:
I respectfully request authorization to dispense with public bidding in the award of a contract to Mr. R. Cass, 17 Burley Street, Roslindale, to hire a consultant to the Boston Police Department. The contract price will not exceed a total of $105,000, which I have determined to be reasonable for the work to be performed. On a per diem charge of $200, for the period commencing July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984.

The purpose of this contract is to provide a complete review and evaluation of the security procedures and operation of the Drug Control Unit.

The study will concentrate specifically on the organization, supervision and administration of the Drug Control Unit, focusing on certain problems we have experienced in the past. Because of the sensitive nature of the subject matter of the Drug Control Unit and the potential for internal abuse, the unit requires such a special study. The study will result in recommendations for the administration and supervision of the unit, designed to prevent problems in the future.

Mr. Cass is particularly well qualified for the type of study we propose to do. He spent twenty-seven years as the regional director of the Federal Drug Enforcement Administration for the New England states. As regional director he implemented and directed programs concerned with criminal enforcement investigations in the region, provided regional training for state and local enforcement officials, and established program goals and objectives for the region. He especially was concerned with resource management matters, an area in which the Boston Police Drug Control Unit needs particular attention. In total, Mr. Cass has spent twenty years working as a supervisor in the drug control area, and is uniquely suited for the type of study required by the department.

Because of the peculiar knowledge required for the position and because of Mr. Cass' qualifications, we believe that public advertising for this contract would serve no useful purpose. Therefore, I respectfully request your permission to dispense with advertising in this matter and award the contract to Mr. Cass at the above-stated price, which I deem to be reasonable.

Respectfully submitted,
Joseph M. Jordan,
Police Commissioner.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Price Waterhouse, a partnership, located at One Federal Street, for design and implementation of a performance inspection system for the delivery of police services.

The scope of the contract will include the following tasks:

Identify and rank potential performance inspection measures; establish performance inspection standards for those inspections selected for use; develop reports, forms and procedures to collect, process, monitor and audit performance inspection data and to compare against standards; develop procedures to update performance inspection standards as required; train field inspections and supervisory personnel in the use of inspection reports, forms, audits and procedures; implement procedures and adjust as required; perform post-audit review of the performance inspection system.

In addition, Price Waterhouse will provide a high level review of the department's procedures and system to process and report on stolen vehicles; a detailed review of the Priority One dispatching operation.

Price Waterhouse is uniquely qualified to do this work because of their previous work in establishing performance standards in the Office of the Parking Clerk and several other projects for the city and familiarity with the city's operating methods and procedures.

Compensation under this contract shall not exceed $105,000, which I have determined to be reasonable for the work to be performed.

The term of this contract shall be April 1, 1983, to July 31, 1983. The contract may be amended to expand the work to cover field performance measurements and continue the work in fiscal 1984.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be performed, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose. This award letter was delayed in its preparation due to the start of the new patrol plan and in order to complete cost estimates.

Very truly yours,
Joseph M. Jordan,
Commissioner.

Under terms of the contract, Thomas Paladino will assist the operations supervisor with supervision of personnel; record keeping, payroll processing and specific operational duties. I feel Mr. Paladino is qualified to do this work because of his specific knowledge of the operations function.

Due to the supervisory and operational nature of the services to be performed and the fact that Mr. Paladino has previously performed these services for the City of Boston, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Compensation under this contract shall not exceed $8,000, which I have determined to be reasonable for the work to be performed. Payment for services associated with this contract shall be charged to the Mayor's Office of Policy Management 1-14-02-29. The term of this contract shall be July 1, 1983, to December 31, 1983.

Sincerely,
Micho F. Spring,
Deputy Mayor.

Files Maintenance, etc.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Ms. Elizabeth Antrim, Nahant, with the Mayor's Office of Policy Management, Survey Research Division.

Under terms of the contract, Ms. Antrim will be primarily responsible for caller verification, the coding of questionnaires, and the editing and maintenance of all data entry files. I feel Ms. Antrim is qualified to do this work because of her specific knowledge of the operations function.

Due to the technical nature of the services to be performed and the fact that Ms. Antrim has previously performed these services for the City of Boston, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Compensation under this contract shall not exceed $7,500, which I have determined to be reasonable for the work to be performed. Payment for services associated with this contract shall be charged to the Mayor's Office of Policy Management 1-14-02-29. The term of this contract shall be July 1, 1983, to December 31, 1983.

Sincerely,
Micho F. Spring,

Mr. Goldman is successfully completing the Phase I portion of this program and based on this experience, I believe he is qualified to perform the services required by the above contract.

In view of the technical and professional nature of the services, it is my judgment that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,
Donald B. Manson,
Director.

The cost shall not exceed $52,215 (including $5,000 for supplementary services), which is a negotiated fixed fee based on a factor 13.3 percent of the estimated cost of construction of $355,000. I have determined that this is a reasonable cost.

SCHOOL DEPARTMENT Consultant Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

As superintendent of the Boston Public Schools, I request your authorization for the award of a contract to Francis McKenzie, Wellesley Hills. The contract shall be in effect during the period November 1, 1982, to June 30, 1983, and occur at a cost not to exceed $6,800, which is deemed to be reasonable.

The contractor is providing the consultant services to the deputy superintendent, Curriculum and Instruction, 26 Court Street, by reviewing and analyzing the Department of Student Support Services and assisting in the search and selection process for a senior officer. A report was prepared incorporating short-term action recommendations and long-term requirements to bring the department to a uniform level of system effectiveness.

The contractor is especially qualified to provide the above service because, as a former superintendent of special education in a large school system, he has expertise in providing such services. This service was needed to organize the Department of Student Support Services to better enable the school system meet the mandates of Judge Morse's rulings in the Allen vs. McDonough case.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this agreement, and the expertise of the contractor in providing such service, it is my determination that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This contract is being submitted late because it was not brought to my attention that the cost would necessitate the execution of a contract until early March. Since that time, administrative delay in compiling the documents of the contract instrument and the decision-making process to require additional services extended the delay.

Yours truly,
Robert R. Spillane,
Superintendent.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

The contractor shall provide professional management and systems consulting services to the Boston Public School Department to improve the performance of the Special Education Information Management System (SEIMS).

The contractor is especially qualified to provide the above services because of extensive experience and knowledge of the structure and programs of the Boston Public Schools as well as internal reorganization and systems development of plans which are required to properly execute the scope of work of this project.

This contract is being submitted late due to unexpected extended negotiations on details of the scope of work.

vices, it is the determination of the Boston School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

Very truly yours,
Edward J. Wintz,

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this agreement and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is my determination that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

The American Repertory Theatre will provide instructional services to the Magnet Theatre Program at English High School focusing on the techniques of Music Theatre, which is America's most distinctive contribution to the performing arts. It will bring students of the Magnet Theatre into direct, prolonged contact with a core group of members of the resident, equity acting company at the American Repertory Theatre. Workshops will be on April 25, 29, May 23, 27, and June 15.

The contractor is especially qualified to provide the services for several reasons: as a resident theatre company for Greater Boston, the actors involved have a profound commitment to the city and its schools; as an institution affiliated with Harvard University and contracted by Harvard to provide a balanced dramatics curriculum for its students, the American Repertory Theatre is clearly experienced as a teaching as well as performing institution; and as the producer of musical theatre ranging from works of Handel to Rodgers and Hart, the company is well equipped to present music theatre in a professional and educational context to Magnet Theatre students.

This contract is being submitted late because money was identified late in the year that enabled funds to be used for this contract. Additionally, the contractor had trouble getting a check issued for one dollar, thus delaying the contract process. The contract began services on the dates listed.

Because of the professional nature of the service to be provided under this agreement and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services; it is my determination that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation of funds, under grant from chapter 636, project no. 83-9D-0009.

Very truly yours,
Robert Spillane,
Superintendent.

Data Communications System

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and award a contract to Harris Data Communications, Inc., Burlington.

Under the terms of the contract, Harris Data Communications, Inc. will lease for one year, a data communications system for the Data Processing Center/Computer Operations Unit (CICS Network) beginning July 1, 1983, and continuing through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $42,000. This award would extend a contract with the same vendor; the previous contract expired June 30, 1983.

Because computer communications networks are complicated and involve special training, it is customary to renew contracts with the current vendor if performance has been satisfactory. Removal of this equipment and retraining staff on a new system would not be practical. Because the price base is reasonable and is competitive with similar systems, it is my determination and that of Mr. James Daily, the administrator responsible for the operation of the equipment, that the public interest would not be served by publicly advertising for bids.

This contract is late due to the time it took to procure the necessary forms.

Very truly yours,
Leo J. Burke,
Business Manager.

Paraprofessional Program

Dear Mr. Mayor:

As superintendent of the Boston Public Schools, I request your authorization for the award of a contract to Clarissa L. Sawyer, Quincy. The contract shall be in effect during the period May 15, 1983, to September 1, 1983, and occur at a cost not to exceed $6,000, which is deemed to be reasonable.

On June 7, 1982, the School Committee approved the Institute for Professional Development for Education Consolidation and Improvement Act funds for $183,717.

The contractor will provide the following instructional services at the Institute for Professional Development, 26 Court Street; the contractor will provide a detailed assessment of existing programs, identify groups that are not being served, prepare recommendations for future services, and develop models for staffing and evaluating programs.

The contractor is especially qualified to provide the above services because of her participation in training programs for paraprofessionals as both resource person and trainer at the College of Public and Community Service at the University of Massachusetts, Boston, and involvement with community-based people. Ms. Sawyer has had experience with paraprofessions, the focus of this project.

We are filing this request at this time because our efforts to accomplish the task with existing staff have not been possible because of commitments to other projects. If we are to address the program needs of paraprofessionals beginning in September, we need to complete the planning work by the end of August, 1983.

This contract is thus being submitted late because its funding was dependent upon an amendment to the chapter 2 grant award which was pending. Since some of the information has to be gathered from school personnel who would be away from late June until early September, we needed to initiate the project prior to our actual receipt of the amendments to the grant.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this agreement and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is my determination that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement of bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation of funds, under the provisions of General Laws ch. 44, s. 53A, and is to be subject to the receipt of funds under grant from ECIA ch. 2.

Very truly yours,
Robert R. Spillane,
Superintendent.

MAYOR FLYNN PLANS NEW HOUSING POLICY

Questions and answers on Mayor Flynn's Housing Policy.

1. Why does Boston need a new housing policy?

Low- and moderate-income homeowners and renters face a housing crisis in this city. Homeowners cannot afford to keep up the value of their homes. Young families cannot afford to stay in their home neighborhoods, and elderly renters are threatened with displacement from the neighborhoods in which they have raised their children. The Mayor has proposed a policy to ease the crisis for these residents, who make up the great majority of the city.

2. What are the goals of the Mayor's policy?

There are three goals. He seeks to expand the supply of affordable housing; increase homeownership opportunities for Boston residents; and to protect renters from displacement by skyrocketing rents, arson, and other factors.

3. What are the origins of the Mayor's policy?

The Mayor's proposals are drawn from his many years as an advocate for Boston's neighborhoods. Boston residents have been fighting for many of the ideas in the Mayor's program for several years. They have voiced a need for community-based arson prevention; a coordinated approach to putting abandoned housing back on the market; and a say in the expansion of institutions in their neighborhoods. For the first time a mayor has taken these concepts and fashioned them into a policy that addresses the unique circumstances of Boston's housing market.

4. What does the Flynn program do to expand the housing supply?

The program creates mechanisms for streamlining housing developing in the city. A Housing Development Clearinghouse will provide "one-stop shopping" for potential developers, to avoid the confusing maze of city agencies and departments that, in the past, served as an obstacle course. A Residential Property Policy Committee will oversee the disposition of all property — including abandoned housing, vacant lots, and empty public buildings — and coordinate the city's policy. The Neighborhood Housing Trust will manage the city's "linkage" moneys and direct them toward the construction and rehabilitation of affordable housing.

5. What parts of the program are targeted for homeowners?

Two new programs will help homeowners maintain their homes and lower everyday maintenance costs. The "Home Weatherization Program" will offer neighborhood-by-neighborhood assistance, and low-interest loans, for major home weatherization (e.g. insulation, storm windows, new burners). The "Senior Home Repair Program" offers senior citizens free home repairs while providing job training to Boston high school students.

6. Besides homeowner and tenant issues, what are some other important housing issues that the Mayor's program addresses?

This is the city's first comprehensive housing policy, addressed to the needs of all neighborhoods and residents. The program includes new ways to deal with:

— Arson — The Mayor has appointed a nine-member Arson Prevention Commission, including representatives of neighborhoods and the insurance industry. The Commission will spearhead the city's efforts to involve community residents in the fight against arson.

— Homelessness — The Mayor has recently doubled the number of emergency shelter beds at the Long Island Hospital shelter. The city is developing a program to provide much-needed health care to the homeless population. The Emergency Shelter Commission, a city agency which coordinates efforts to help the homeless, was sponsored by Ray Flynn as a City Council member.

— Public Housing — The Mayor intends the Boston Housing Authority to return to the city's jurisdiction and has proposed a plan to make the BHA accountable to the city while providing tenants with a strong voice in BHA management. While still under receivership, however, the city will provide long-neglected public housing tenants with the city services they deserve.

— Institutional Expansion — The Mayor's program creates a Neighborhood Impact Committee to monitor institutional expansion and to provide access for neighborhood residents concerned about the impact of institutions on their community. Also, institutions will be required to obtain a permit before converting housing to non-residential users.

7. Regulation of rent increases is part of the Mayor's proposal. Doesn't Boston already have a control law that protects most renters?

No. Boston has a confusing set of rules and regulations called "vacant decontrol" that offers inadequate protection to some renters while creating a maze of red tape and confusion for small landlords. Theoretically, rent in certain categories can appeal from increases to the Rent Equity Board, but the law is very difficult to administer. Elderly, handicapped, and low-income renters find it difficult to use. Only one-third of the city's rental units are covered by this unwieldy law.

A glaring example of the limitations of this law occurred to an eighty-year-old woman on Peterborough Street in Boston's Fenway neighborhood. She moved in 1978, on doctor's orders, following a heart attack, from a rent-controlled, third-floor apartment to the first floor. She has received several rent hikes, and was just hit with an increase that she cannot afford.

8. How will the Mayor's program improve the situation?

The new law would guarantee landlords a fair and predictable profit, streamlining and modernizing all rules. A Landlord-Tenant Assistance Bureau will be established to help property owners and renters through the process. The administration of the new law will be paid for by a nominal fee that property owners can pass on to renters.

9. What other types of rental units are exempt from regulation?

All one- and two-unit buildings; owner-occupied, three-unit buildings; all public housing; all federally subsidized housing (for the duration of the subsidies); all state-subsidized housing; all privately financed housing since 1968.

10. Why should homeowners support the Mayor's rent control and condo conversion measures?

Rent Control and condo conversion protections help stabilize neighborhoods and prevent displacement of citizens who want to remain in their neighborhoods and young people who want to remain in their communities. They will be unable to do so unless there is protection from skyrocketing rents.

ons. By exempting owner-occupied buildings, rent control discourages the speculators from buying homes which would otherwise be available for rental ownership. Finally, rent control reduces the incentive for absentee landlords to repair deteriorated buildings, improving building and the neighborhood.

CITY OFFERS AID TO FIRST-TIME HOMEBUYERS

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn announced a program that will help some forty families own their own homes. The "First-Time Homebuyer Program" this new initiative will provide market rate loans to moderate-income residents who wish to purchase or renovate properties located within the city. In commenting on the program, Mayor Flynn noted that it represents another of his administration's efforts to address two of the city's most pressing problems: the shortage of affordable housing and the deterioration of housing stock in depressed neighborhoods. The program is sponsored by the Neighborhood Development and Employment Agency. The First-Time Homebuyer Program will provide thirty-year mortgages with a benchmark interest rate of 11 3/4 percent. A low rate is made available by commitments from the city's Community Development Block Grant and from the Massachusetts Housing Finance Agency. This combination financing package provides funds for 95 percent of the cost of purchasing and renovating a home.

The First-Time Homebuyer Program provides a substantial cost-saving to eligible applicants. For a family of four earning a total of $22,000 per year, the monthly savings can be several hundred dollars. For example, to carry a mortgage costing $50,000 and in need of $10,000 worth of repairs, a conventional bank mortgage would cost $850 per month. Through the First-Time Homebuyer Program, the cost is lowered to only $590 per month.

Applicants eligible for the First-Time Homebuyer Program, potential participants must:

- have an adjusted household income within the program's eligibility limits;

- own or lease a one- to four-unit building in which needs at least $3,000 to $10,000 worth of repairs;

- enter into a formal agreement to purchase the property from its current owner.

- have funds to cover the down payment and origination fee (usually 8 percent to 9 percent of the loan amount).

All loans for the First-Time Homebuyers Program are originated and serviced by the Shawmut Bank of Boston, First American Bank for Savings, and the Bank of New England.

To receive more information about the First-Time Homebuyer Program please call the NDEA/Housing Division at 725-3179.

FINALISTS IN McKIM RESTORATION AT BPL

Kevin F. Moloney, president of the Board of Trustees, has announced that a major step forward has been made in the planned restoration of the magnificent historic McKim Building of the Boston Public Library. Meeting for a final review of proposals submitted for the architectural/engineering restoration of the building, the Design Selection Committee, assisted by the Trustees' Advisor Douglass Shand Tucci, announced the names of two finalists of the first rank: Shepley Bulfinch Richardson and Abbot and Anderson, Notter Finegold, Inc.

Members of the Designer Selection Committee are Thomas M. Payette, FAIA, president of the Boston Society of Architects; Robert K. Daigle, P.E., president, Massachusetts Society of Professional Engineers, Inc.; Victor E. Hagan, associate director of the Public Facilities Department of the City of Boston; John J. Doherty, assistant director, Boston Public Library; and Kevin F. Moloney, president of the Board of Trustees and chairperson of the committee.

Constructed in 1895, the McKim Building which fronts on Copley Square is preeminent among American edifices. Author Henry James once spoke of its amplitude of wing and its splendor of tawny marble. Walter H. Kilham, fellow of the American Institute of Architects, said of the library that it was "superbly designed, beautifully built, an aristocrat among buildings, and unquestionably a masterpiece of American architecture."

CHRISTMAS SEAL CAMPAIGN KICKOFF

The October 3 Christmas Seal Campaign Kickoff at the Sheraton Boston Hotel was held well in advance of the Christmas Season as 50 million Americans begin to receive their seals in the mail.

Addressing the American Lung Association of Massachusetts, Jack Hynes recalled a woman named Emily Bissell who developed the first Christmas Seal in 1907 to help tuberculosis patients. He then updated the audience on advances made in lung health over the years, stressing the challenges posed today by cigarette smoking, environmental hazards, and polluted air.

Host for the special reception held in facilities donated by the Sheraton Boston Hotel were American Lung Assn. president Harold Kost, M.D. Sports-caster Curt Gowdy was this year's Honorary Christmas Seal Campaign Chairperson.

The American Lung Association of Mass. and seven affiliated local lung associations are nonprofit voluntary health organizations providing education, information and research designed to prevent and control lung disease. The Christmas Seal People concentrate on adult and child lung health, smoking or health education, community health services, professional education, and environmental and occupational health. Their motto is "It's a matter of life and breath."

VOTER REGISTRATION WEEK

October 9th is the last day that Boston residents can register to vote in the November election. Mayor Raymond L. Flynn is declaring October 4 to 9 "Voter Registration Week in Boston."

Mayor Flynn said, "It is a goal of mine to enfranchise every eligible Boston resident and enable them to play an active role in government. It is our responsibility to play a role in choosing officials who will best serve our communities, our state, and our country."

To make voter registration as easy as possible, the city will have registration sites at every library and community school during their regular business hours, and at every local fire station.

Registration will also be available at all public high schools and family housing projects. The city's registration drive will be supplemented by many neighborhood-based efforts, making registration as accessible as possible.

"The city will do all that it can," said the Mayor, "to register new voters, but there is a deadline. With the cooperation of city workers and the support of community groups, this drive will reach a lot of people. Handicapped residents who want to register need only contact the Election Department and a registrar will visit and register them. Every resident of Boston must realize that their vote does count."

$17.2 MILLION T STATION CONTRACT

The MBTA Board of Directors authorized the approval of a $17.2 million contract with the J. F. White Contracting Co. for the construction of the new Ruggles Street Station on the T's Southwest Corridor Orange Line Relocation Project.

The Ruggles Street Station will be located in Mission Hill behind the Museum of Fine Arts and will serve Northeastern University and the Whitier Place Housing Development.

"Ruggles Station will greatly improve service for residents, students and employees in a large area of the Roxbury and Fenway communities," said MBTA General Manager James F. O'Leary. "We are pleased that the entire project continues to proceed on time and under budget."

Among the features in this tubular frame building will be a skylight, making it one of the more scenic stations in the corridor, three elevators, one escalator, bicycle racks, and a pedestrian walkway designed to be part of the Parkland System adjacent to the entire corridor.

J. F. White Contracting Co. has met the MBTA's Disadvantaged Business Enterprises (DBE) and Women-Owned Business Enterprises (WBE) goals of 25 percent and 3 percent respectively for this project.

The Board of Directors also authorized execution of a $1.4 million design contract to the Architects Collaborative, Inc. and Howard, Needles, Tammen and Bergendoff for the preliminary design of an intermodal bus terminal at the new South Station. The design will include provisions for easy connections to Amtrak, the Red Line, T Commuter Rail and intercity buses.

NEW ASTRONOMY TOOLS

The Harvard-Smithsonian Center for Astrophysics and the Charles Hayden Planetarium of Boston's Museum of Science present a series of free public lectures this fall that will describe the new technology and instrumentation that promise to advance astronomical understanding in the next two decades. The lecture topics for the series are drawn from a National Academy of Sciences report that developed priorities and made recommendations for the future course of astronomy and astrophysics. The lecturers are scientists involved in the design and development of astronomical instruments for the future.

This series is made possible through the generous support of the Lowell Institute.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED: TEACH AN ADULT TO READ

Do you have two hours a week to spare to help fight against illiteracy?

Functional illiteracy affects approximately 100,000 adults in Boston. Many adults are unable to read a street sign, a job ad, or a warning on a medicine bottle — all minimal demands of daily life that most people take for granted. Become a volunteer basic reading or English as a second language tutor and help Boston's 100,000 illiterate adults learn to read.

The City of Boston's Neighborhood Development and Employment Agency, sponsor of the Adult Literacy Initiative, needs volunteer tutors for individuals and small groups at any of the fourteen neighborhood-based NDEA literacy programs. You may tutor in their own neighborhood if desired.

The Adult Literacy Resource Center, operated jointly by the University of Massachusetts/Boston and the Boston Community College provides volunteer training and ongoing support. No previous teaching experience is necessary to become a tutor, just a high school diploma.

Becoming a volunteer tutor offers various rewards too. You can develop valuable teaching skills, receive a certificate of credit, get exposure to different cultures and help serve your community.

The Tutor Training schedule follows:

Basic Reading — October 15th, 22nd, 24th, 29th, and 31st, 6-9 p.m.

ESL Workshop — November 1st and 17th, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

All tutor training sessions will be at the Resource Institute at 62 Huntington Avenue, Boston; Administration Building, Room 210. For more information on how your two hours a week can help, call Sandra Johnston-Smith at 232-4695.

NSF GRANT TO CHILDREN'S MUSEUM

Children's Museum has announced the receipt of a $366,000 one-and-a-half year grant from the National Science Foundation (NSF), a federal agency promoting the continued development of science and engineering education in the United States. These funds will allow the Children's Museum to develop and construct six interactive science exhibits to be installed first at the museum and then available for traditional use. The first exhibit, "Bubble," will be ready to travel with the Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition Services (SITES) in 1985. In addition, related materials will be produced for use in classroom and home settings. "We're delighted to receive the National Science Foundation's recognition and support," stated Michael McCann, museum director. "Museums are one of the few opportunities for children to do informal science activities. The Children's Museum is pleased to be able to share our exhibits, materials and learning opportunities with other institutions throughout the country." Spock concluded.

According to a report issued by the National Science Board, many scientific principles are presented to elementary school-aged children as abstract concepts. Most children, however, begin to think in abstract terms only when they are eight-to-ten years old. Yet research indicates that by this age, many kids have already developed an aversion to science.

On the night of September 10, 1984, the Arson Squad was summoned to 325 Meridian Street, District One, to investigate the cause of fire at the above address. Upon completion of their assigned duties, Fire Lieutenant Robert Alexander and Fire Inspector Leo Marino took it upon themselves to patrol the general area because of a series of recent fires in that area. At approximately 0315 hours, they spotted a person setting a fire at 480 Meridian Street, notified Fire Alarm for dispatch of companies and proceeded to apprehend the suspect.

Because of their dedication to duty and prompt action, resulting in a decline of incidents in this area, the Fire Commissioner is pleased to commend Fire Lieutenant Robert Alexander and Fire Inspector Leo Martino of the Arson Squad and makes this commendation a part of their personnel folder.

the visitors around the station and to answer questions regarding the department, or to a suitable person assigned to this duty.

Plywood signs, giving notice of Fire Prevention Week, will be issued to all stations and shall be displayed from all stations during this week. The responsibility of company officers to see that these signs are kept in good condition from year to year. Signs should be displayed from Sunday through Saturday. Signs shall be checked daily by the officer in charge of quarters to assure that they are firmly affixed to the building in a proper manner.

District Fire Chiefs are directed to take a keen interest in Fire Prevention Programs in this manner:

By making arrangements with the various commercial and industrial enterprises within the district to have fire drills during the week, by grading these drills as good, fair, or poor and making a report of the results to the Fire Prevention Division, indicating the date of the enterprise, the date of the drill and the results. The same should be forwarded promptly. Each company officer should be requested to acknowledge participation in Fire Prevention Week activities via written correspondence. These drills should be conducted by the company officer after arrangements are made with the plants where there are special or company drills. Particular attention should be given to the designations and/or response procedures requested that the name of the company conducting the drill be furnished. It is requested that not less than three drills be conducted in each district.

Company officers will contact school officials to have the schools in their sub-district and make arrangements to hold the required fire exit drills during Fire Prevention Week, if feasible. The fire exit drills should be so arranged that it will be held prior to the start of the school day.

The District Fire Chief should compile a list of all organizations, social, civic, and professional organizations within the district and advertise to them, the importance of the Fire Department to provide company officers for the purpose of lecturing on fire prevention at any time. District Fire Chiefs should make every effort to bring the activities of the department before these organizations and arrange for them to be given. The name of any organization participating should be reported to the Fire Prevention Division, specifically if the organization is urged to forward, on their own stationery, a letter of appreciation for the event, it would be to the greater advantage of the Fire Department.

Fire fighters are to pay special attention to the observance of fire hazards and to the duty of finding and locating fire hazards along with the fire followed by them in their coming to and from work. Dilapidated buildings, rubbish, and other hazards should be reported to the Fire Prevention Division. The public exposure of members of the Fire Department to something about fire prevention work is an interest in this subject since they are employees engaged in this field. Fire fighters, during Fire Prevention Week should subject uppermost in their minds and they should not pass a fire hazard at any time without noting it for reference to the Fire Prevention Division. In short, every uniformed man in the department is a fire prevention inspector.

Company commanders, on receipt of Prevention posters, will post these in a suitable location at the front of each fire station where they will be visible to the public. The posters should be posted until October 13, 1984.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT

Sealed Bids for Delinquent Motor Vehicle Excise Collection.

The City of Boston, acting by its Collector-Treasurer, is curbing delinquency by soliciting sealed bids from qualified firms and individuals to provide delinquent vehicle excise tax collection services to the City of Boston.

The City is authorized under Massachusetts General Laws, chapter 60, to collect excise taxes on all motor vehicles garaged in the city limits. Presently, the City collects approximately 80 percent of all such taxes through the demand notice stage. Utilization of most invoices is enhanced by the use of suspensions of registration and/or operation of vehicles through the Massachusetts Registry of Motor Vehicles.

Fiscal Year 1982 and Fiscal Year 1983, outstanding balances totaling $3.8 million were not collected as of July 31, 1984. The city is not able to fully pursue the nearly 20 percent (in dollar value) of invoices outstanding at the end of a given year due to structural constraints. However, the city requests proposals for outside collection of delinquent taxes. These collection activities are funded fully through the fee provisions allowed in MGL chapter 60, section 15.

The City will provide the selected vendor with a computer tape (generated by our Digital VAX computer) listing every delinquent by year. The vendor should detail the procedures to be utilized in selecting and remitting collected excise taxes and demand fees to the City of Boston. The vendor is expected to prepare and mail warrants and warrant notices and, if necessary, to serve each such warrants on delinquent taxpayers. The vendor will add such status to the warrant and warrant notice, as allowed in MGL chapter 60, section 15. These fees are to be paid by the vendor as full payment for all services rendered. However, all taxes, interest and fees are to be remitted to the city.

The proposal must include a detailed work plan for development and implementation of a system, to accomplish the collection tasks in a so-called acceptable, effective, and carefully monitored manner. Proposals must include:

Specifics on the training that the personnel will receive is on the legal aspects relating to collection activities, especially consumer

- 2). The specifications for an auditable accounting and collections control system, which must ultimately be implemented, to insure full accountability for collected delinquent excise funds.
- 3). The types and amounts of bonding arrangements for all collecting and accounting personnel.
- 4). An overview of the development and maintenance plans for a computer system capable of reading information supplied to by the city, and equally capable of transmitting necessary data to the city in a form readable by the city's Digital VAX 11/780.

Moreover, the city requires assurances that the selected vendor has the financial capability to develop, implement and maintain all functions and processes relating to this project. Backup materials for these assurances may include (but are not limited to) a detailed business plan (essential for startups and/or individuals), letters of credit or other types of performance bonds, and/or five years of audited financial statements (if less than five years in business, then statements for each year in business). The most recent financial statement will be required of all bidders, and should be included in the bid package.

Additionally, each proposal should include a description of the firm's (or individual's) qualifications and capabilities, and a number of sources from whom we can solicit recommendations. Please include the firm's (or individual's) collection results (on a historical basis) and projections (in percentage terms) for this effort, giving its historical results with a diversified pool of delinquents.

Sealed bids are to be received at the office of the Collector-Treasurer, with an identical copy to Mr. Leon Stamps, City Auditor, by October 25, 1984. Bids will be opened on October 26.

The Collector-Treasurer reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all bids and to accept the bid which he deems to be in the best interests of the City of Boston.

If you have any questions, please contact any member of the Motor Vehicle Excise Bid Review Group at 725-4138.

Sincerely,
GEORGE A. RUSSELL, JR., Collector-Treasurer.

NO. 42

MAYOR FLYNN LAUDS NEIGHBORHOOD MAINTENANCE PROGRAM

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn has praised the city's Traffic and Parking Department on the successful launching of its Neighborhood Maintenance Pilot Program. The eight-week test program is designed to initiate maintenance repair of parking and street signs, crosswalks and pavement markings. Four sections of the city included in the pilot program are East Boston, South Boston, Roxbury, and Boston Proper.

A Traffic and Parking Department bus, fully equipped with the necessary tools, will patrol streets in each of the four target areas. Employees are ready to repair or construct and post a variety of street signs on the streets. Many of the signs are currently missing, bent, or faded.

This test program is important because the city is taking the initiative rather than responding to complaints. Because the vans are filled with the necessary equipment, workers are able to make repairs quickly so the streets in the target neighborhoods are safer for everyone," said Mayor Flynn.

The maintenance program is a result of a study by four investigators from the Traffic and Parking Department to determine the number of traffic signs that needed replacement within the four pilot areas. The month-long study, compiled between August 1 and September 1, showed that in East Boston, some 120 regulatory signs and 114 street name signs are needed. In South Boston alone, nearly 400 regulatory signs and 116 street name signs are needed. Roxbury needs 531 regulatory signs and 138 street name signs. The numbers for Boston Proper are even higher. Eight hundred and thirty-three regulatory signs and 152 street name signs are needed.

The program is being conducted in two phases. First, the Traffic and Parking Department bus will patrol the designated areas' main thoroughfares and make on-the-spot repairs. Phase Two will provide the necessary support. Sixty percent of the sign maintenance division's workforce will be assigned into the pilot neighborhoods and make any additional repairs that the bus crew was not equipped to make.

This program is part of the city's effort to improve the delivery of services under tight fiscal constraints. We are responding to the needs of the neighborhoods quickly and efficiently. If this test program proves a success, we will expand it," said Commissioner of Traffic and Parking Lisa Chaplin.

In addition to the maintenance program, the department's engineering division is working to install pavement markings throughout the city. Crosswalk lines, and center lane lines are being repainted on designated streets.

The pilot program in East Boston continued there until October 5. In South Boston, the program began October 9 and will finish October 19th. In Boston Proper, the program runs from October 22 to November 2, and in Boston North from November 5 to 16.

UNITED WAY/COMMUNITY WORKS CAMPAIGN KICKOFF

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn has announced the kickoff of the 1984 United Way/Community Works campaign for City of Boston employees from October 22 through November 2, according to Rosemarie E. Sansone, campaign chairperson for the city.

"The new administration looks forward to a huge success in its first United Way/Community Works Campaign," said Rosemarie Sansone. "We anticipate increased support in this year's effort."

The city's goal for 1984-85 is to surpass last year's $155,000 raised for United Way. A greater participation will also be encouraged.

City employees can make contributions either by donating in one lump sum or by having contributions deducted from their paychecks, according to Chairperson Sansone.

To kick off this year's United Way/Community Works campaign, there will be special exhibits set up in the third-floor lobby of City Hall by various agencies who receive funds from these two organizations. Volunteers will be on hand to answer questions about all the agencies and how they operate.

United Way of Massachusetts Bay consists of 183 members representing health and human service agencies throughout eighty-six communities in eastern Massachusetts.

These agencies work to alleviate hunger and homelessness, child abuse and neglect and drug and alcohol abuse. United Way agencies also work to prevent problems by supporting programs for community and youth development programs through local YMCAs and YWCAs, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts.

This is the first year Community Works has been included in the city campaign. Community Works is a coalition of seventeen grassroots organizations in Massachusetts founded to offer alternative community organizations harshly hit by state and federal cutbacks. Member organizations include groups concerned with such issues as: hunger, battered women, nuclear disarmament, handicapped, women's health education, environment, child nutrition, and other social issues.

Training for key persons from major departments was held on October 11, 1984, in the Gabriel F. Piemonte Room. These designees will work closely within City Hall, Health and Hospitals, Police, Fire, and the Library to encourage support to the United Way/Community Works campaign.

MAYOR APPROVES POST OFFICE SQUARE PROJECT

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn approved the formation of Post Office Square Redevelopment Corporation as nonprofit developers to turn Post Office Square into a 1,400 space underground parking garage and a ground level park.

The area currently holds an above-ground, 950-car garage on approximately 1.56 acres of city-owned land, bounded by Congress, Pearl, Milk, and Franklin Streets in the heart of the Boston's financial district.

Mayor Flynn said, "This project constitutes a significant public use and benefit. In approving the Friends proposal we are taking a rare opportunity to create 1.5 acres of green, open parkland in the congested downtown area."

The city will receive significant financial benefits, including all net proceeds of the project. The Friends of Post Office Square, Inc, estimate that the project will generate $7 million for the city over the project's first ten years, plus annual income exceeding $1 million in each year thereafter. Up to 500 construction jobs will be created.

"It has been stated," said the Mayor, "that having a parkland downtown would cost the city significant tax dollars unless we build an office tower on this site. I don't agree. The demand for office space is a function of the marketplace. Needed office space will be built, but not here in Post Office Square."

The project consists of the demolition of the existing garage, the construction of a new, six-level, underground garage with parking for 1,400 vehicles, and a ground-level landscaped park. Mayor Flynn noted that "the announcement is one important step in seeing this project come about. We will ensure that we will provide not only open space for the people who work and visit downtown, but funds which can also be used to generate benefits for all the residents of the city."

RAN SALES A TREMENDOUS SUCCESS

Collector-Treasurer George A. Russell, Jr. has announced that the recent sale of the City of Boston Revenue Anticipation Notes (RAN) has been a tremendous success. The $70 million issues sold out within twenty-four hours of sale and closed on September 26, oversubscribed at $90 million.

At 6.875 percent, the yield to the investor is an extremely favorable rate for the city, especially when compared to the yields of RAN offerings by New York City (7.15 percent) and Philadelphia (7.375 percent). The 6.875 rate saved the city nearly $262,000 in interest costs over the comparable market rate of 7.375 percent.

A rate of $8 per inch of 12 lines (set solid) has been established for such advertisements as under the law must be printed in the City Record. Advertising and other copy must, except in emergencies, be in hand at the City Record office by noon, Monday of each week to insure its publication in the following Monday's issue.

Approximately $68,000 in savings were realized by the city through cost-conscious efforts of Collector-Treasurer Russell and lead underwriter Kidder Peabody, which resulted in underwriting costs of $486,000 compared with $554,450 for the smaller, most recent public offering of $65 million in October, 1982. (The per note cost breaks down to $1.10 for management fees; 35 cents for writer fees; $2.50 for sales commissions and $2.75 for general expenses. This compares with the 1982 offering at $8.53, with $1.50 for management fees; 40 cents for underwriter fees; $3.00 for sales commissions; and $2.88 for general purposes.)

The issue was backed by a Municipal Guaranty letter of credit and received the highest possible rating by Moody's (MIG-1) and Standard and Poor's (A+). Strong support by the retail market accounted for the favorable interest rate.

MAYOR HAILS DAY CENTER FOR BOSTON'S HOMELESS

Boston Mayor Raymond L. Flynn called on public and private sector organizations to increase their level of support for those institutions that are providing necessary treatment, food and clothing for the city's homeless people. The Mayor's remarks were made during the dedication of Saint Francis House — a day center for the poor and needy located in downtown Boston. The opening of Saint Francis House took on added importance in light of the impending winter.

Mayor Flynn joined Reverend Bishop Bernard Law and Governor Michael Dukakis at the ceremony to hand for the dedication were Father and Father Louis Canino, Co-Executive Directors of Saint Francis House; Valley, director of Boston's Emergency Shelter Commission; Rob Lalor, services director of Saint Francis House; and Karl Wilbur, a member of Boston's homeless community.

Recognizing that homeless people have very few places to go during daylight hours, Saint Francis House provides them shelter, facilities for washrooms, referrals to benefit agencies, counseling services, a nursing clinic and a noontime meal.

portions of the funding for this facility allotted by the city in the form of A block grants. "The staff and volunteers of this important project represent the best of Boston," said Mayor H. "I'm sure that Saint Francis will serve as both an example and impetus for the people of our city to become more involved in the effort to alleviate the problem of the homeless." Boston Emergency Shelter Commission Director Joe Valley used the occasion to emphasize the overall plight of the city's poor who are relegated invariably to the streets. According to a survey by the federal Alcohol Drug Abuse and Mental Health Administration, there are approximately two million homeless people in the United States. That number, an estimated 3,000 live on the streets of Boston. According to Valley, "The work that is being done in Boston shelters certainly puts a dent on the problem, but we also need more cooperation from the business community and private citizens." This cooperation was exemplified recently by the donation of a $2,000 check to the Emergency Shelter Commission by the Trust for Charitable Donations for the Residents of Boston.

HUB RETAINS MINORITY LAW FIRM

For Raymond L. Flynn and Collector George A. Russell, Jr. are pleased to announce that the law firm of Fletcher H. Wiley and Richlin P.C. has been selected as underwriters co-counsel for the City of Boston. The firm also was recently appointed as issuers co-counsel for the Massport. Founded in 1979, the firm is located at 47 Winter Street and is one of the growing number of minority law firms in the country. Areas of specialization include business law, bank and real estate, small business law, labor, civil litigation, and entertainment law.

Wayne A. Budd received his A.B. cum laude from Boston College and his J.D. degree from Wayne State University in 1967. He currently serves as chairman of the Massachusetts Civil Rights Commission, and lecturer at Boston College Law School. His professional activities include the past presidency of the Mass. Bar Association (1980) and the Mass. Black Law Association (1974-1976).

Mr. Fletcher H. Wiley graduated cum laude from the United States Air Force Academy and received his J.D. from Harvard Law School (1974) and Master's in Public Policy from Harvard's Kennedy School of government (1974). He has been in private practice since 1975 and has also served as the commissioner of the Mass. Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission from 1977 to 1984.

Mr. Dean Richlin graduated with a A.B. degree from Wesleyan University and received his J.D. from Boston University. He joined the firm in 1980 following clerkships with Justice Paul Liacos, associate justice of the Mass. Supreme Judicial Court and Judge David S. Nelson, U.S. District Court judge for the District of Mass.

Historically, minority attorneys in private practice have focused on domestic, criminal, and civil rights law because discrimination deterred their entrance into the mainstream of corporate law. Few minority firms were formed because they could not generate enough business to survive. However, substantial strides have been made in the past decade to reverse this trend and the picture looks even brighter for the 80s. Through the initiative of Collector-Treasurer Russell and under the auspices of the Flynn Administration, the City of Boston is proud to play a role in this progress.

CRIME DOG NEW U.S. POSTAGE STAMP

He has never taken a bite out of the mailman, but McGruff, the Crime Dog, is urging citizens to "Take a Bite Out of Crime" on a new U.S. Postage Stamp. The 20-cent Crime Prevention Stamp is now on sale in the Boston area, according to Postmaster Philip L. Sullivan.

The new stamp was issued in conjunction with Crime Prevention Month, which began October 1. October is also National Stamp Collecting month, and the stamp is expected to be of interest to the estimated 22 million Americans who collect stamps.

The McGruff image was developed by the Crime Prevention Coalition to provide safety information and encourage people to take precautions to prevent crime. McGruff's "Take a Bite Out of Crime" theme encourages participation in citizens prevention activities and programs throughout the United States. MAYOR ANNOUNCES NEW HOUSING UNITS FOR ELDERLY

Eighty-four units of Elderly Housing to be Developed at Roslindale High School.

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn recently announced that the federal Department of Housing and Urban Development has granted $4.6 million in section 202 funds to develop eighty-four units of elderly and handicapped housing at the former Roslindale High School.

At a press conference at the school on 110 Poplar Street, the Mayor thanked U.S. Rep. J. Joseph Moakley (D-Boston) for his effective work in advocating the funding.

The Mayor also thanked Boston City Councillor Thomas M. Menino (Roslindale-Hyde Park), who attended the announcement.

The Mayor said, "We are fortunate to have the cooperation of people like Joe Moakley and Tom Menino in facing the critical challenge of increasing the supply of affordable housing. The housing crisis in this city demands that city government enact strong measures to protect the elderly, the handicapped and the low- and moderate-income families in the short term. It also demands that we do everything we can in the long term to build more housing.

"As of September 1, the waiting list for BHA elderly housing was 2,006 names long. The total does not even include the lists of those awaiting apartments at non-BHA developments in the city," the Mayor said.

The Roslindale Senior Housing Corporation (RSHC) will develop the building. They were designated as developers by the city Public Facilities Commission. Rogerson House of Jamaica Plain and Southwest Boston Senior Services, Inc. (SWBSS) of Roslindale are the principals of RSHC.

Public Facilities Director James F. Hart; Neighborhood Development and Employment Agency Director Paul S. Grogan; Severio Messina, president of RSHC and SWBSS; James Seagle, director of Rogerson House, and Rikki Catalano and Ken Lucas of Roslindale Fair Share attended the event.

The school built in 1926, was closed in June, 1976.

CONTRACTS AMENDED

The Mayor has approved the amendments to contracts, based on the following information:

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT Mechanical Sweeper

Mayor:

On September 2, 1982, your Honor approved an amendment to a contract based on public advertising for William E. O'Brien, North Reading, for furnishing mechanical sweepers for the purpose of maintaining department forces and equipment in connection with the work of keeping the streets of Districts 9 and 10 of the city, during the period from July 1, 1982, to June 30, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $128 per day in District 9 and $362 per day in District 10, or $128,000 for the year.
District 9 (East Boston) was allocated one sweeper for the year and District 10 (Roxbury) was allocated two sweepers for the year, but through an oversight funds were requested to provide for payment for only one sweeper in District 10.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract to provide funds for the second sweeper in District 10 that has been performing the street cleaning service for the entire year. The cost of this amendment, which is effective August 1, 1982, shall not exceed $65,160, which is the cost of each machine in District 10 for the year. The contract, as amended, shall not exceed $193,160.

Because this amendment was necessitated by an administrative error originating in this department and the work has been and continues to be conducted in a satisfactory manner, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

This request is being submitted at this time inasmuch as this error in our encumbrance for this contract was only very recently brought to our attention by the Auditing Department.

Very truly yours,

Joseph F. Casazza,
Commissioner.

SCHOOL DEPARTMENT Curriculum Improvement, etc.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On December 3, 1982, your Honor approved an award of a contract, without public advertisement for bids, to Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, for curriculum and instructional improvement and program development assistance to the Umana School of Science and technology, during the period of September 1, 1982, to June 30, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $67,172.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract to provide an additional amount of compensation for the use of the facilities at the Endicott House for training and workshops of school site councils, principals and headmasters. The cost of this amendment shall not exceed $2,696, which I have deemed to be reasonable. The contract, as amended, shall not exceed $69,868.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this agreement, and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is my determination that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This amendment is being submitted late because of a consolidation of the training and workshops for school site councils, principals and headmasters, and funding availability, which required program changes from what had been anticipated.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation of funds, under the provision of General Laws chapter 44, s. 53A, and is to be subject to the receipt of funds under a grant from chapter 636.

Sincerely,

Robert R. Spillane,
Superintendent.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT Legal Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On August 30, 1982, your Honor approved an award of a contract, without public advertising for bids, to Palmer & Dodge, One Beacon Street, Boston, for legal services, during the period July 1, 1982, to June 30, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $100,000.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract to provide for additional legal services related to the authorization of $65,000,000 temporary loan notes in anticipation of revenue Series D notes. The cost of this amendment which is effective as of June 30, 1983, shall not exceed $5,700, which I determined reasonable. The contract, as amended, shall not exceed $105,700. The period of performance shall be the same. This amendment was delayed to ensure proper amount needed.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be performed, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,

Lowell L. Richards, III,
Deputy Mayor/Collector-Treasurer.

RAYMOND L. FLYNN

JOSEPH M. TIERNEY

76

MONDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1984

NO. 43

MAYOR FLYNN ANNOUNCES "HARBORPARK" PLAN

Boston Mayor Raymond L. Flynn announced a comprehensive plan for promoting economic growth on Boston's waterfront while dramatically increasing public space and public open space along the harbor. The project, when complete, will be known as Harborpark.

Mayor Flynn said, "This represents a balanced, multi-faceted approach to harbor development. We want to realize the economic potential of our harbor so we can create more jobs for Boston residents. In addition, we have placed equal emphasis on making the harbor more accessible to the public, whether that involves the creation of quiet rest areas, new housing opportunities for every income group, or increased recreational facilities." The Mayor emphasized that "the plan will be implemented at no financial cost to the city."

Mayor Flynn released the plan at a press conference held at the Charlestown Navy Shipyard where the city will be building 112 units of elderly housing through a newly announced $1.9 million UDAG grant from the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

"City waterfront development," commented the Mayor, "could provide one of the city's anticipated growth in jobs, investment and tax revenues for the next decade. That growth potential has necessitated a long-range plan which will ensure public access to the waterfront and preservation of opportunities for new housing and recreational areas."

Mayor Flynn continued, "I am particularly pleased that the first phase of this plan will provide an uninterrupted pedestrian system which covers the 7 miles or so between the Charlestown Navy Yard and the South Boston waterfront. Boston has one of the world's most attractive harbors. With this plan, we are going to make sure that everyone — those who live and work in Boston and those who visit the city — will be able to take full advantage of this great natural resource."

More than $2 billion in private investment is targeted for the waterfront area over the next six years, with some $1 billion in public investment scheduled for the same period. Mayor Flynn estimated that "the development activity on the waterfront will produce 25,000 jobs and generate approximately $150 million in additional property tax revenues over the next several years."

The total cost for creating the pedestrian path and public open space will be about $80 million. Of this amount, about $40 million in improvements are either already planned or already funded. The remainder of the money, according to the Mayor, will come from a combination of private developers carrying out public improvement projects and funding from state and federal grants.

MAYOR RECEIVES FEDERAL GRANT FOR ELDERLY HOUSING

Boston Mayor Raymond L. Flynn received the award of a $1.9 million Urban Development Action Grant (UDAG) for the construction of 112 units of elderly housing at the Charlestown Naval Ship-

The announcement came as a result of the efforts of U.S. Senator Edward Kennedy. It represents one of the largest UDAG awards for elderly housing in the city's history. The site at Building 103 of the now under-utilized Charlestown Naval Shipyard will commence construction with the construction of the housing units in the near future.

Mayor Flynn termed "the addition of these 112 units a great help in meeting the housing needs of Boston's elderly residents. However, the need for elderly housing remains great. Statistics released by the Boston Housing Authority only last month show that there are over 2,000 elderly Bostonians on their waiting list for subsidized housing. That waiting list is more than four times the number of openings per year."

The Mayor emphasized that "given the reality that Boston has an elderly population that is increasing and is also one of the poorest elderly populations of any city in America, more must be done by government at all levels and the private sector to ensure that those who built our city are given a chance to live out their lives in dignity. No older Boston residents should run the risk of being driven from their homes by condominium conversion or skyrocketing rents. The increase in the number of elderly evictions only places a further demand on the already scarce supply of subsidized housing. That is why I reiterate my commitment toward the enactment of legislation that will provide meaningful protection to Boston's elderly residents."

BOSTON JOB EXCHANGE HAS JOBS

The jobs available are in a variety of industries, including hotels, restaurants, hospitals, banks, insurance companies and department stores. The entry-level positions include clerk/typists, secretaries, receptionists, hospital aides, kitchen help, hotel workers, assemblers, computer operators and bookkeepers. ABCD'S FUEL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

To qualify for Action for Boston Community Development's (ABCD) Fuel Assistance Program, low-income households in Boston, Brookline, and Newton should apply now for the 1984-1985, Low-Income Energy Assistance Program, which is administered by ABCD.

The program is designed to assist low-income households with home heating bills. Tens of thousands of low-income households have received fuel assistance payments through the program which is funded by both the state and federal government. The program cannot cover a household's total heating expense but it can defray a significant portion of the cost enabling needy families to keep warm during the winter. Both low-income renters and owners are eligible to apply.

To receive assistance under the Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program, a household's total gross income may not exceed the following guidelines:

Household Size	Total Yearly Income
1	$ 8,715
2	11,760
3	12,690
4	15,300
5	17,910
6	20,520
7	23,130
8	25,740

Add $2,610 for each additional person over eight

Applicants may apply at any one of the thirty-five intake agencies between October 15, 1984 and April 30, 1985. Constance Carey, ABCD energy director, advises all prospective applicants to provide the following information, in order to qualify for this year's program and receive assistance as soon as possible:

Proof of all sources of income for at least the ninety-day period preceding the application for all household members aged eighteen years and over. (include letters from appropriate schools or colleges if household members are full time students);

Social security numbers for all household members aged eighteen years and over;

A copy of the most recent bill for the primary source of heat. (If the heat has been shut off prior to application, a copy of the final bill will suffice);

MEETINGS OF NEIGHBORHOOD COUNCILS

The second meeting to discuss information and selection process for the Neighborhood Council in South Boston will be held Tuesday, October 23, 7 p.m. at the Condon School, 100 West Street, South Boston, in Roxbury, Wednesday, October 24, 7 p.m. at the Shelburne Recreation Center, 200 Washington Street; and in Westbury, Thursday, October 25, 7 p.m. at the West Roxbury Police Station, 100 Centre Street.

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn's Community Participation is hard to make good on the promise to make the councils work. During the next meeting to discuss the councils, members of the Mayor's Office will present a draft outlining responsibilities of the neighborhood councils, how members will be selected, how neighborhood residents are encouraged to come to the meetings, and their ideas be heard.

Mayor Flynn said, "We want to ensure that those who might normally tend neighborhood meetings, to ensure complete community participation in the decisions affecting the neighborhood, a dialogue on the way the councils will be established is important."

The Mayor's Office of Community participation has sent out over 100 questionnaires to neighborhood residents across the city to get their views and feedback. More than 75 percent of those who responded voiced support for the councils in their neighborhoods. For more information, contact the Office of Community Participation at 3485.

DORCHESTER HIGH SCHOOL RENOVATION

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn toured Dorchester High School and inspected the million renovation of its facilities. Mayor said "it gives me a great deal of pleasure and pride to see this building brought up to date and become a place where education is pursued in an atmosphere conducive to learning." Mayor also stated that "this city, where public education started, is committed to providing all our schools the facilities that meet the demands of modern education."

The renovations were supervised by the Department of Public Facilities with emphasis on a durable and high-quality finish. The highlights include:

- complete auditorium renovation;
- new shatterless, draftless Lexim windows (estimated to save 25 percent of costs);

- complete interior painting;
- new gym floors and equipment;
- new computer classroom and equipment. The computer facility and equipment was donated by IBM at a cost of $85,000.

Mayor Flynn for the ribbon-cutting and tour were Dorchester High School Master Stanley Swartz, Bob Condon, education liaison for the Mayor, and James Hart, director of Public Facilities.

MAYOR FLYNN SIGNS HOUSING LEGISLATION

Statement of Mayor Raymond L. Flynn on signing the Housing Legislation passed by the City Council.

The legislation I am signing gives the people in this city, who need it the most, significant protections never granted them before. It also represents a new spirit of cooperation in the interest of all the people in the city between the City Council and administration.

Under the new law, low- to moderate-income elderly, and handicapped, and low-income tenants will be protected from evictions due to condominium conversion.

Our second accomplishment is redefining low- to moderate-income guidelines giving protection to another 15,000 families in the City of Boston. Those guidelines have been expanded from 80 percent of the median income to 90 percent. New low- to moderate-income guidelines are now $21,720 for a single person, $24,840 for two, and $30,020 for a family of four.

If your live in a vacancy decontrolled unit, your landlord may not raise your rent above the Consumer Price Index unless he/she can prove necessity. The CPI has remained between 3 percent and 5 percent.

All low- to moderate-income tenants may grieve a rent increase above the CPI. All other tenants may grieve a rent increase before the Rent Equity Board if it exceeds 12.5 percent.

You are entitled to "just cause" eviction rights.

For elderly persons over moderate-income guidelines, you could be entitled to five years' notice period in a condominium conversion.

Landlords will be granted an Annual General Rent Adjustment based on the CPI.

I believe that this unprecedented protection and this cooperative effort will benefit our communities tremendously and will give our citizens the security they deserve to remain in their homes and in their neighborhoods.

Provisions of the Housing Package signed by Mayor Raymond L. Flynn on October 19, 1984.

Ordinance Regulating Rents, Repairs and Evictions

Continues rent control and vacancy decontrol.

Allows tenants in decontrolled housing units to grieve any rent increase over 12-1/2 percent in a calendar year to the Rent Equity Board.

Allows elderly, handicapped and low- or moderate-income tenants to grieve any rent increase over the consumer price index (CPI) in a calendar year to the Rent Equity Board.

Declares a moratorium for the life of the ordinance (ten years) on evictions of low- and moderate-income elderly or handicapped tenants and low-income tenants for the purpose of condominium conversions.

2. Ordinance Establishing a Home Weatherization Program

A. Establishes a program to conduct seminars on home weatherization in all districts of the City of Boston.

B. The program will coordinate energy audits in the city.

C. The program will coordinate the possibility of low-interest and market-rate loans for residents for the purpose of weatherization.

3. Ordinance Establishing a Home Repair Program for Seniors

A. Will arrange for technical and vocational public school students to make minor home repairs for senior citizens.

4. Ordinance Creating a Neighborhood Impact Commission

A. Will bring together department and agency heads to coordinate a response to institutional expansion in the City of Boston, particularly with regard to the removal of rental housing units from the market.

5. Amending CBC, Title 9, Chapter 1, Housing Inspection Department

A. Requires the Housing Inspection Department to inspect vacant apartments prior to a new tenant moving in in order to insure that the unit meets state sanitary code standards.

MASSACHUSETTS AVENUE RESURFACING

The City of Boston's Department of Public Works has announced that resurfacing of Massachusetts Avenue from Columbia Road through New Market Square to Melnea Cass Boulevard started October 22. Also included in the project are renovations and installations of traffic control islands, traffic signs with high visibility because of special illumination effects, new lights, and a garden and flower bed.

DPW Commissioner Joseph Casazza said "The inconvenience these renovations cause is unfortunate, but it is imperative that we maintain passable and safe streets. In the winter months, particularly, hazardous conditions are made significantly worse by unpaved roads. Therefore, in order to keep our streets up to adequate safety standards and minimize the public risk, it is necessary to make these substantial repairs now. The city and the DPW are grateful for the public's cooperation and patience."

Cost of the project is $171,000.

MAYOR FLYNN FAVORS DIVESTITURE ORDINANCE

Mayor Flynn Testifies in Favor of Boston South Africa Divestiture Ordinance before Legislative Committee

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn told a legislative committee holding hearings on the city's home rule petition seeking legal right to divest public funds from companies that do business in South Africa that, "the people of Boston view injustice, whether it takes place in U.S. cities, Northern Ireland or South Africa, as a condition that cannot be tolerated."

Mayor Flynn was the lead-off witness at a hearing sponsored by the Legislative Committee on Public Safety. Chairman, State Senator Royal Bolling, Sr., also heard testimony from City Councilor, Charles Yancey, who introduced the ordinance in July to the Boston City Council, where it was subsequently approved.

On July 27, one day after signing the divestiture ordinance, Mayor Flynn mailed some 100 letters to mayors of cities throughout the country asking them to help enact similar legislation. To date, the Mayor has received strong expressions of support and approval from the mayors of Oakland, Seattle, Los Angeles, Detroit, Syracuse, San Juan, Chicago, Gary, and most recently, Mount Vernon, New York. On September 7th of this year, the United States Conference of Mayors voted unanimously to support the Mayor in this campaign.

Mayor Flynn in his testimony stated, "Apartheid is a moral outrage. By approving this home rule petition we will send a clear message to the South African government, and strike a blow for liberty that is consistent with our Republic's highest ideals."

The Boston ordinance mandates the divestiture of a conservative estimate of $10.3 million from American firms that conduct business with South Africa or the illegally administered territory of Namibia.

ABCD'S URBAN COLLEGE FALL SEMESTER BEGINS

Action for Boston Community Development's Urban College Program began its fall semester offering tuition-free, accredited, job-related courses in Human Services, Early Childhood Education, Management, and Liberal Arts.

The Urban College Program includes an Associate Degree Program that is jointly administered by ABCD, Bunker Hill, and Roxbury Community Colleges. Bachelor-level courses are offered in conjunction with the University of Massachusetts/Boston and Lesley College. In September, 1982, ABCD expanded the Urban College to include a graduate program in conjunction with the Management Division of Lesley College Graduate School.

All ABCD Urban College courses are taught at ABCD headquarters, 178 Tremont Street, Boston, by college faculty who are experienced practitioners in a particular field.

ABCD Executive Director Robert M. Coard said he is "very pleased" with the program's expansion in recent years. "This program is one major way ABCD fulfills its mission of increasing the opportunity for upward mobility for poor people," he said. Coard said he is particularly delighted that this year the state's community college system approved the accreditation of several courses within ABCD job-training programs, such as accounting courses in business skills training programs. The accreditation provides a direct link between ABCD job-training programs and the world of higher education, encouraging many participants in job training to continue their education.

HALLOWEEN SAFETY TIPS

From the Consumer Affairs Office

With the observance of Halloween most upon us, Boston's Consumer Affairs and Licensing Commissioner Diane Modica, would like to suggest the following tips from the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission for parents and guardians of children who plan to go trick-or-treating:

- Warn children not to eat any of the treats before they return home. Examine all treats carefully before allowing children to eat them.

- Look for costumes, masks, beads, and wigs labeled "Flame Resistant" though these items could still catch fire. Such labeling indicates that they will resist burning and should extinguish quickly once removed from the ignition source. Flimsy materials and costumes with big, baggy sleeves or billowy skirts should be avoided to minimize risk of contact with candles or other sources of ignition.

- Make or buy costumes light enough to be clearly visible to motorists. For greater visibility in fog or darkness, costumes can be decorated with reflective tape. Reflective tape is usually available in hardware, cycle, and sporting goods stores. Children should also carry flashlights to — and be seen — more easily.

- Costumes should be short enough to prevent children from tripping or falling. Children should wear walking, sturdy shoes: Mother's high-heeled shoes are not a good idea for safe walking.

- Hats and scarves should be tied securely to prevent them from slipping over the children's eyes.

- Apply a natural mask of cosmetics rather than have a child wear a full fitting mask which might restrict breathing or obscure vision. If a mask is used, however, make sure it fits securely and has eyeholes large enough to allow vision.

- Swords, knives, and similar costume accessories should be of a flexible material.

- All children should use the sidewalk rather than walk in the street where they should walk, not run, from home to house. Children should be cautioned against running out between parked cars, or across lawns and yards with ornamentals, furniture, or clothes present danger.

- Those receiving trick-or-treat should remove anything that could stacle from steps, lawns, and es. Candlelit jack o' lanterns be kept away from landings and steps where costumes could brush the flame. Indoor jack o' lanterns be kept away from curtains, dec-ors, or other furnishings that could

Modica, stressed the following

MAYOR PROVIDES EMERGENCY HEAT FOR ELDERLY

Boston Mayor Raymond L. Flynn has announced a plan to provide temporary heat for the elderly in need. The plan, in conjunction with the Office of Constituent Services and Creators, Inc., reinforces Mayor Flynn's commitment to bringing private businesses together with the public sector for the benefit of the city.

Creator's Inc., a nationally based company, chose Boston "because of Mayor Flynn's commitment to improve the quality of life in his city." Mayor Flynn expressed gratitude to the company for its generosity in donating fifty safe heat units to the City of Boston.

The heaters are available on a first-come, first-serve basis, primarily (but not exclusively) to senior citizens.
Those interested may call 725-4357
(725-HELP). An inspector from Inspectional Services will then be sent to verify that there is no heat. Mayor Flynn, pleased with the record of the office, said that the heaters are available temporarily while the office is exploring all avenues in its effort to provide emergency heat for those who need it.

ABCD COMMUNITY AWARDS DINNER

Action for Boston Community Development (ABCD) and its neighborhood network of Area Planning Action Councils (APACs) and Neighborhood Service Centers (NSCs) celebrated its Tenth Annual Community Awards Dinner with a huge and festive celebration at the Sheraton Boston Hotel on Friday, October 26.

ABCD, the largest human services agency in New England, has provided a wide range of antipoverty programs to low-income Boston residents for twenty-two years. For ten years now, the ABCD Community Awards Dinner, has honored dedicated individuals from sixteen Boston neighborhoods whose outstanding voluntary contributions of time, effort, and skills have made their communities better places to live. Each award winner is chosen through ABCD's grassroots neighborhood network of Area Planning Action Councils, and other delegate agencies.

ABCD is Boston's antipoverty agency and the largest human services agency in New England, with funding from a variety of sources totaling over $30 million annually. The agency is a private, non-profit corporation established in 1962, with the majority of board members elected from Boston's neighborhoods through the decentralized ABCD neighborhood network. ABCD programs include Fuel Assistance, Foster Grandparents, Head Start, Day Care, Center for Jobs, Education, and Career Training, the Summer Youth Employment Program, a tuition-free, accredited urban college administered in conjunction with area colleges and universities, health services, community services, and others.

XEROX/ABCD SPONSOR TRIPS

Climbing through waterpipes, manning the controls of a space shuttle, and touring the stars of the galaxy was all part of a day's adventure this summer for 1,000 low-income Boston residents.
Thanks to a generous contribution by Xerox Corporation, low-income youths and elders participating in Action for Boston Community Development's Foster Grandparent programs spent an unforgettable day unravelling the mysteries of the world of technology at Boston's Museum of Science.

Xerox Corporation of Lexington, donated to ABCD, Boston's antipoverty agency, the cost of 1,000 tickets and transportation to the Museum of Science to benefit Boston's poor. Preschoolers in ABCD's day care programs and elders program all thoroughly enjoyed their special outing at the museum.

According to Robert Cassidy, spokesperson of Xerox Corporation,
this is just one of the joint ABCD/Xerox Corporation projects targeted to help the poor in Boston's neighborhoods.
"Xerox is giving ABCD a helping hand in its mission to make Boston a better place to live," said Cassidy. "It is a pleasure to recognize the exceptional work ABCD does to help low-income Boston residents improve the quality of their lives."

ABCD Executive Director Robert Coard appreciates the contribution made by Xerox Corporation and urges more Boston businesses to join with ABCD to make life easier for the city's low-income population.

INCREASED NUMBER OF BILINGUAL 911 OPERATORS

The Boston Police Department has undertaken a special drive to increase the number of bilingual 911 operators employed by the Boston Police Department.

With the continued influx of Hispanic-, Haitian-, and Oriental-speaking settlers into the City of Boston, it has become imperative for the department to increase its resources if it is to provide these new residents with adequate police protection.

The new operators will undergo extensive training in the Operations Division before they begin their function on 911. At the same time, the Operations Division is encouraging a number of the current 911 operators to develop a proficiency in one of the languages that is currently in demand.

CHRISTMAS SEAL CAMPAIGN FACTS

The official Christmas Seal Campaign of the American Lung Association starts in early October when fifty million American households begin receiving the seals by mail. It continues through the early months of the New Year.

- The colorful seals bearing Christmas symbols are traditionally used to demonstrate support of the work of the American Lung Association and its local lung associations around the nation. The seals decorate holiday cards, letters, packages and gifts. There are also matching Christmas Seal gift tags.

- The oldest voluntary public health organization in the U.S., the American Lung Association — The Christmas Seal People — was founded in 1904, eighty years ago. Its mission was to stamp out tuberculosis. Today, the American Lung Association and its 144 affiliated offices along with a medical section, the American Thoracic Society, are dedicated to the control and prevention of all lung diseases and their related causes, including smoking, air pollution, and occupational hazards.

- Actress Pearl Bailey is the 1984 Christmas Seal chairman. Her Christmas Seal public service announcement will be shown widely on national TV and in magazine advertisements. It will be heard on radio. Her signature is on the Christmas Seal appeal letters.

Designer and illustrator of this year's Christmas Seals is Kent Salisbury of Salisbury & Salisbury, New York, who also designed the 1983 seals. This year, a Chanukah light is included with other traditional holiday symbols such as Santa, a holly wreath, Christmas tree, and dove among others. Coordinated gift tags are so popular that they are repeated for the third consecutive time.

Commissioner's Memorandum No. 84-64

To all Bureaus, Districts, Areas, Divisions, Offices, Sections, and Units.

In a recent decision, Arbitrator Mark M. Grossman of the American Arbitration Association ruled that the City of Boston did not violate Article XVI, Section 4, 5, or 6 of the collective bargaining agreement by assigning only one police officer to man the Blue Hill substation during the day tour.

The Police Department set up a trailer in District B at the intersection of Blue Hill Avenue and Morton Street to serve as a convenient substation for the public to file reports. During the day, the substation is manned by one police officer, whose sole function is to receive these reports.

The Union asserted that since the substation is in the highest crime area in the city, it is dangerous for only one officer to be on duty during the daytime. The Union also contended that the Fleming arbitration award, which had previously found a single officer assigned to a substation in a school building to be unsafe, had been violated.

The city claimed that due to the substation's limited function and the fact that the neighborhood one-man patrol officers were under an obligation to check on the substation periodically, the argument was not unsafe.

Arbitrator Grossman held that due to the the neighborhood officers patrol the area, a man patrol, there is a low level of activity at the station and there have been no incidents related to unusually dangerous situations. It was, therefore, inappropriate to impose a minimum assignment at the substation. Arbitrator Grossman distinguished the Fleming award, finding that the Fleming decision was rendered when two-man patrols were the rule; there were threats against police officers by a band of thugs and the single officer was assigned to the night shift. None of these factors was present in the current case.

Arbitrator Grossman also recommended that the city and the Union jointly study the physical structure of the substation to determine if it could be made safer.

The continued smooth operation of the Social Services Department is of vital importance and my efforts to maintain a safe and secure

As director of social services, Ms. Sanzo is with direct administrative responsibility for day-to-day operation of the department which has the counseling needs of an average daily population of some 266 detainees.

In her capacity as director, Ms. Sanzo supervises six permanent employees, plans and evaluates all departmental operations and programs. She makes future projections, develops and updates policies and procedures, acts as my liaison with the criminal justice components, provides training and staff development, and submits preliminary and analytic reports to appropriate state, and county agencies.

On joining my staff in January of 1984, Ms. Sanzo has performed in her capacity as director with a high degree of competency and enthusiasm. The abilities Ms. Sanzo developed as a research analyst in private industry, the legal introduction she received as a legal assistant to a lawyer, the statistical and bookkeeping skills she mastered at her family's business, as well as an outstanding academic career (BA, Mount Holyoke College 1975; Certificate in Social Work, University of Massachusetts 1979; JD, Suffolk University Law School 1984) made her an outstanding applicant and consequently an outstanding director. In light of Ms. Sanzo's prior employment history, her exceptional academic background, and her exemplary performance to date, I feel strongly that Ms. Sanzo should be adequately compensated. Therefore, I have decided to request for your reevaluation the appropriate compensation relative to the Suffolk County Compensation Plan's 15(F) provision.

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without advertising, based on the following communications:

Computer Equipment Maintenance

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Data General, a corporation, located at Cambridge, for the maintenance of the following computer equipment hardware:

One, 8394-K, Nova 4X computer with 128KB MOS; one, 6098, 12.5MB Winchester Drive /1.26MB, Diskette subsystem; two, 6106-AA, D100 CRT; one, 6194-AA, TP2 keyboard printer; one, 6191, LP2 line printer; one, 4241, ULM-5 Mux; one, 1148-A, cabinet.

Under the terms of this contract, Data General, on a regular basis, as well as at the request of a designated representative of this department, will service and maintain the peripherals and the computer hardware. Data General is specially qualified to do this work because it is the manufacturer of the equipment hardware.

Compensation under this contract shall be payable at a rate of $328 per month, which I have determined to be reasonable. The total amount of this contract shall not exceed $3,936. The term of this contract shall be from July 1, 1983, to June 30, 1984.

Because Data General is specially qualified to do this work for a reasonable price, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,

Joseph C. Toto, Sr.,
Superintendent of Printing.

Printing Equipment Maintenance

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Authority is requested to renew, without advertising, the city's existing contract with Compugraphic Corporation, Wilmington, for the service and maintenance of Compugraphic printing equipment presently installed in the city's printing plant and which is being leased under an existing lease-purchase contract. The service and maintenance work will be performed by Compugraphic's Warranty Extension Agreement Division, North Reading. The contract will be effective for the period July 1, 1983, to June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $15,000, net.

Under this contract, Compugraphic will provide all materials and perform all the work necessary for and incidental to providing preventative and remedial maintenance service for the printing equipment.

Inasmuch as Compugraphic is the manufacturer, their technicians are trained specially to maintain and repair all of the equipment it manufactures, and parts are readily available, it is my opinion that no benefit will inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids. The cost of the service and maintenance is reasonable and will be no higher than the prices charged the General Services Administration by Compugraphic for the same work.

A schedule of the printing equipment to be serviced and maintained under this contract will be furnished by Compugraphic and will become part of this contract. It will show model and serial number, and monthly cost of each item.

Respectfully yours,

Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

Gasoline

Dear Mr. Mayor:

For the past several years the city has purchased its gasoline from the Mobil Oil Corporation because of the "existing supplier" requirement under the Federal Emergency Petroleum Act which required the city to purchase gasoline from its existing suppliers at the time this act became effective. This legislation expired in 1980 and the city's gasoline requirements for fiscal year 1982 were purchased from Mobil because of unstable market conditions both here and abroad.

Market conditions are still unstable, thereby creating uncertainty as to the most advantageous way to purchase the city's annual requirements of gasoline for fiscal year 1984. The two major considerations are price and certainty of supply; also to be considered are the large number of locations, some of which require relatively small quantities of gasoline or are difficult to service because of narrow streets. Also there are many refineries, that are owned by independents and major companies, that are shut down. This could cause the unstable supply to the market. After consideration of all of the factors involved, it is my opinion that no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids and that it would be in the city's best interests to award a contract to Mobil. Mobil is a major oil company and, in my judgment, can best protect the city against excessive costs and assure future deliveries. It has also satisfactorily demonstrated its ability to service the various locations by its performance in past years.

Your permission is therefore requested to award a contract, without advertising, to Mobil Oil Corporation, New York, in the estimated amount of $2,500,000, a cost I consider reasonable. Mobil's terms for payment are: net fifteen days after receipt of summary billing by the using department. This estimated amount is for the purchase of approximately 2,200,000 gallons of gasoline, which will be used by the various city departments during the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984.

The prices per gallon will be based upon tank wagon prices posted daily at Mobil's East Boston Terminal, plus State Excise Tax, presently at $1.10 per gallon. Current prices are:

Mobil regular, at $.931 per gallon, tank wagon price, plus excise tax; Mobil unleaded, at $.971 per gallon, tank wagon price, plus excise tax; Mobil regular, at $.911 per gallon, tank wagon price, plus excise tax; Mobil unleaded, at $.951 per gallon, tank wagon price, plus excise tax.

These prices reflect a discount of $.02 per gallon on large tank truck deliveries to the Public Works Department for approximately 350,000 gallons of gasoline during fiscal year 1984. This discount is available only to Public Works because it is the only department that has storage tanks that can receive a tank truck delivery at on time.

Respectfully yours,

Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

the above services because of extensive experience in analyzing and managing financial com-

art management reporting features, the same process the department is currently facing.

Because of the professional nature of the serv-

Health and Hospitals Department of the City of Boston. Therefore, because of the unique services required to perform this contract and in light of the qualification and prior service of Guy O. Seymour, Ph.D., it is believed that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully submitted,
George H. Paul,

pense with public advertising and to award a contract to Frederick Metts, an individual, located in Augmented Fire Service Availability Project.

Under the terms of the contract, Mr. Frederick Metts will act as a supervisor for the A.F.S.A. Unit.

cause of his former experience in the Boston Fire

Fireboat Repairs

Dear Sir:

In my opinion the contractor is qualified to do the work herein-described, inasmuch as Salami's is thoroughly familiar with all types of work on said equipment. Very truly yours,

Fire Commissioner/Chief.

INSPECTIONAL SERVICES DEPARTMENT

Razing of Buildings

Dear Mr. Mayor:

The following buildings or structures have been condemned by me as being in an unsafe and dangerous condition. Notices have been sent to the owners, but they have taken no steps to abate the dangerous conditions. These buildings are a menace to the neighborhood. The locations are 86 Lawrence Avenue, Ward 14 (demolition); and 88 Lawrence Avenue, Ward 14 (board-up).

Contractor ordered in to raze 86 Lawrence Avenue, Ward 14, and also board up adjoining building at 88 Lawrence Avenue, Ward 14.

Fire occurred and Fire Department requested fast action; available contractor ordered in.

Accordingly, in conformity with the provisions of chapter 802, Acts of 1972, as amended, particularly section 123.1 thereof, I have asked and have received your Honor's permission to enter these various premises and to raze the buildings or structures.

Bidders were requested to submit an aggregate bid for the entire lot of buildings or structures, but to break down their bids to show the charge against each separate address. This breakdown is necessary for later departmental use in billing demolition costs incurred against each separate address. This breakdown is necessary for later departmental use in billing demolition costs incurred against the individual property owner of each house.

We have solicited invitation bids, award to be made to the lowest qualified bidder, and have received the following: Napoli Wrecking Co., $14,825.32.

Napoli Wrecking Co. has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work, it carries all necessary insurance, and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

The Inspectional Services Commissioner considers the price of this contract as reasonable. Accordingly, the general safety so requiring, I ask your Honor's approval for the awarding, without advertising, as required in the City Charter, of a contract in the sum of $14,825.32, to the Napoli Wrecking Co., 71 Proctor Street, Roxbury.

Very truly yours,

Anthony Pepicelli, Inspectional Services Commissioner.

Very truly yours,

Robert R. McGovern,
Commissioner.

Under the terms of this proposed contract, Bay Village Neighborhood Association will provide maintenance services of a labor-intensive the above facility and/or responsive neighborhood creation programming.

Bay Village Neighborhood Association is especially qualified to do this work because of their established community orientation and their past demonstrated concern for their local parks and recreation facilities.

This will be charged to the Boston Partners in Urban recreation account, account number 38367-290. The term of this contract shall be from August 1, 1983, to April 30, 1984.

Due to the fact that Bay Village Neighborhood Association is a private, nonprofit corporation, knowledgeable of the particular needs of the Elliot Park, and because our department has solicited aid of the nature they will provide, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose. Veterinarian Service

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request authorization to dispense with public bidding in the award of a contract to Bruce E. Chase, D.V.M., West Bridgewater, in an amount not to exceed $15,000, for the period from July 1, 1983, to June 30, 1984.

The purpose of this contract is to provide this department with a twenty-four-hour veterinarian service for department horses. The services of a qualified veterinarian are vital because of this department's expanded Mounted Unit. Doctor Chase is available on a twenty-four-hour basis to serve the needs of the Mounted Unit and specialized in the treatment of horses.

We wish to award this contract to Dr. Chase for three reasons. First, Dr. Chase is a specialist in the treatment of horses. Second, we have contacted several other local veterinarians to inquire about their services, and we find that Dr. Chase is the most reasonable in his charges for horse care. Third, Dr. Chase has performed the same duties during the past three years in a superior manner.

For these reasons I see no practical purpose to be served by further public advertising for these services. I have determined that the contract price is reasonable.

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT

Mr. Sheehan has been providing these services successfully during the unusually lengthy, multi-party litigation. We have further need for them while the case continues. I believe he is qualified to perform the services required.

In view of the technical and professional nature of the services, it is my judgment that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,

Donald B. Manson,

There is a further delegation of power from the commission to the director to execute such lease or extension thereof upon receipt of said written authority.

The demised premises consist of two lots of land approximately 16,000 square feet, located at the rear of 103 Clayton Street, Dorchester.

Since these facilities are both adequate and convenient, it is my judgment that public advertising would serve no useful purpose in this instance.

Respectfully,
Donald B. Manson,

Legal Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission dated July 20, 1983, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record, and award to Attorney Victor Brogna, 148 State Street, a contract for legal services representing the city in the Occupational Resource Center case, for the period July 1, 1983, to December 31, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $30,000 (including $768 for out-of-pocket expenses), payable at $80 per hour. I have determined that this cost is reasonable.

This letter is being submitted late because several months ago, we thought the trial would end by June 30th and did not wish to encumber another contract. However, as of July 1st, the trial is ongoing and will continue for the next few months at least.

In view of the technical and professional nature of the services and the fact that Attorney Brogna has been involved in this case since February, 1980, it is my judgment that public advertising in this instance would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,
Donald B. Manson,
Director.

I believe this firm is qualified to perform the services required.

In view of the technical and professional nature of the services, and the selection process, it is my judgment that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

MAYOR FLYNN PRESENTS CHECKS TO FUNDS

Mayor presents checks from Concerts on the Common totaling $465,836.92 to the fund for the Arts and Community Pools.

This money enabled the city to keep open its swimming pools this summer for neighborhood youth," said Mayor Raymond L. Flynn, as he presented one of two checks to Larry Dwyer of the Boston Community School Pools program. The check, in the amount of $135,000, was presented by the Mayor at a ceremony at the Hanover House. It represented just a fourth of the profit made from the highly successful Concerts on the Common series, that was sponsored by Miller High Life and presented by The Boston Herald and WBZ radio and television. The cumulative profit from all seventeen summer concerts was $465,836.92.

Mayor Flynn presented a second check for $232,918.46 to WBZ's "Fund for the Arts," which distributes grants to nonprofit arts and cultural organizations. The remaining money will go to the Fund for Boston Neighborhoods, a nonprofit corporation that contributes to recreational and other programs throughout the city.

The Mayor was joined at a press conference and ceremony by William Anda, Miller High Life, Tom Goodgame, president and general manager of Miller High Life, Patrick Purcell, publisher of the Boston Herald and Rosemarie Sansone, director of the Mayor's Office of Economic and Cultural Development.

Commenting on the concert series, Rosemarie Sansone said, "Artists like Joe Benson and Julio Iglesias were here, but greater still is the realization that the profit from this event went to helping the community pools and also giving tangible incentives for young people who might be interested in pursuing careers in art or sports."

Patrick Purcell of the Herald said that the Concerts on the Common "... help create a spirit of Boston that is essential to its vitality. It is people who perhaps can't get out because of a sell-out, or can't afford to go, can enjoy a safe, comfortable concert relaxing on the grass on a summer evening listening to their favorite music." In addition to the profit raised from the concerts, over $100,000 was spent to resod the Common, plant trees, and pay for additional security.

This year's Miller High Life Concerts on the Common series featured a diverse number of artists, including Joe Benson, James Taylor, the Everly Brothers, Oscar Peterson, and Ella Fitzgerald. Over 150,000 people attended the performances that began in September and ended the second week of September. Several of the concerts sold out the 10,000 seat facility.

"We're looking forward to next summer," said Rosemarie Sansone. "We want to duplicate the financial success that these concerts have generated, and provide a good time for the people of this city." Patrick Purcell of the Herald concurred when he stated, "This concert series is needed for the financial support it gives to the neighborhoods and the arts. It is appreciated by thousands of ardent supporters each year, and, therefore must continue. Here's to Concerts on the Common in 1985."

ABCD/BANKS TO AID SENIOR HOMEOWNERS

Officials from Action for Boston Community Development (ABCD) recently met with representatives from six Greater Boston banks to announce the development of a reverse mortgage plan for senior homeowners in a "house rich/cash poor" situation.

The reverse mortgage plan is a major component of the Senior Home Equity Program operated by Action of Boston Community Development and Concerned Boston Citizens for Elder Affairs (CBCEA). The banks participating in the project include: the First American Bank of Savings, Boston Five Cent Savings Bank, Cambridge Savings Bank, the Sentry Savings Bank, University Bank and Trust, and Bay Banks/Middlesex. The first four are offering loans immediately.

These banks, in conjunction with the Senior Home Equity Program of Boston and ABCD, will provide reverse mortgages to eligible needy senior homeowners in designated areas in Greater Boston. To qualify for this program, homeowners must be at least sixty years old, own 85 percent of their homes, and have an income of less than $25,875 for one person and $29,550 for two.

Home equity conversion involves financial techniques designed to help older homeowners turn equity that has been invested in their homes into spendable income. Under the reverse mortgage plan, eligible homeowners take a three- to five-year loan based on 35 to 60 percent of the value of their homes. Homeowners then receive a monthly payment that does not affect Social Security or other retirement benefits.

According to ABCD Executive Director, Robert M. Coard, home equity conversion is a program that not only helps older homeowners in need, but also provides a unique relationship between the private sector and community, nonprofit organizations. "I'm pleased these lenders have decided to join in a partnership with ABCD and other community organizations, and provide leadership in this area for the financial community," he said.

Len Raymond, director of the Senior Home Equity Program at ABCD, sees enormous opportunities for this program in the Boston area. "There is approximately $1 billion of untapped equity among Boston homeowners over sixty-five. With 60 percent of older homeowners in Massachusetts at or near the poverty level, it is vital that we help these homeowners tap the equity sitting in their homes and make it usable," he said.

ABCD is Boston's antipoverty agency and the largest human services agency in New England, with funding from a variety of sources totaling over $30 million

CITY RECORD
USPS 114-640

A rate of $8 per inch of 12 lines (set solid) has been established for such advertisements as under the law must be printed in the City Record. Advertising and other copy must, except in emergencies, be in hand at the City Record office by noon, Monday of each week to insure its publication in the following Monday's issue.

A. If you ask most small bu ers, they would like to see "time" considered a felony.

The cost of time stolen from employees reaches billions of dollars each year. Examples of time theft range from taking too long a lunch hour to attending a funeral twice in the same year. From an employer's view, doing nothing about time thefts might be compared to trying to change the weather. There's a lot of talk but rarely any action — both in large and small businesses. After all, who among us is percent pure when it comes to the following examples of stealing time on the job: coming to work late; leaving early; excessive socializing with coworkers; taking long lunch hours; eating lunch on the job — and then going out for a full lunch hour; doing personal business on the job; taking many breaks; operating another business while at work; making personal telephone calls; deliberately slowing work and then later working over for extra pay; taking sick leave when not sick.

Many of these examples are flagrant offenses and should not be tolerated but Ebenezer Scrooge fails to overlook a worker being occasionally late for work or taking a little extra time for coffee.

From the view of most bosses, modification appears to be the key work in the area of time theft.

I'm hearing more and more talk about "small business incubators." What is an "incubator?"

Basically, an "incubator" is an entrepreneurial hothouse which houses a number of small businesses under one roof.

Most incubators are housed in renovated warehouses and other industrial buildings. Incubators are being sponsored by city and state governments, colleges and universities, trade associations and private investors. There are about fifty incubators now operating throughout the country.

All firms housed in incubators enjoy relatively low rents and leases and, as a cost saver, share central services — including accounting, telephone, computer and bookkeeping services. Some incubators even offer small firms advice from management and financial experts.

In short, incubators are helping more small businesses to get started and survive.

For more information on small business incubators, write to the Office of Private Sector Initiatives, U.S. Small Business Administration, 1441 L Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20416.

AREA RESIDENT DELEGATES TO CONSUMER CONGRESS

Fifty-four area residents were appointed to serve as delegates to the first Massachusetts Consumer Congress which took place on Saturday, October 27, 1984, at Boston City Hall. The Consumer Congress delegates convened from every area of the state to vote on a priority list of consumer legislation. The Congress sent a telegram to the State House urging prompt passage of the priority legislation.

Delegates appointed from the Boston area are: Rev. Ozzie Edwards, Gloria Fox, Olive Swift, June Howe, Rebecca Black, Patricia Brainard, Max Lefkowitz, Josie Gioia, Angela Bolognese, Bob Monahan, Bernie Killarney, Helen Young, Mary Baker, Joseph Beth, Edward Teixeira, Alex Bok, John Giangregario, Joe Kent, Margie Kent, Kathryn Downing, Henry Keaveney, Sr., Ruth Parker, Liz Healey, Nina Schaefer, Joyce Zambito, Stephanie Savini, Kermit Norris, Councillor Bruce Bolling, Jean McGuire, Edward Cooper, Mary Makin, Arthur Driscoll, Mitchell Kissler, Nate Smith, Kay Manston, Ella Everett, Evelyn Ritchie, Grace McGuire, Julie Houy, Charlotte Newton, Claudine Langlois, Rita Walsh-Tomasini, Greg Miller, Paula Fairfield, Claudine Cangois, Emma Auer, Catherine Monroe, Miquir Tibbets, Faith Barron, Senator Francis Doris, Phyllis Charlton, Irene Hamel, Dorothea Warner, Laurence Denbo, and Rebecca Trusy.

"As individual consumers, our voices are rarely heard. But when we join together, our united voices cannot be ignored," said Lynn Nesselbush of the Massachusetts Public Interest Research Group (MASSPIRG), a coordinator of the Congress. "That is why consumers from across the state are coming together for the congress."

Delegates were appointed from every area of the state by legislators and community organizations. The delegates met and discussed such issues as protecting consumers from defective automobiles and unreasonably long check-clearing delays.

Delegates also discussed the establishment of a Citizen's Utility Board

(CUB) to help prevent unfair utility rate increases. A main objective of the congress was to design an action plan for passage of its priority bills this fall when the legislature reconvenes.

"We want to send a clear message to our representatives that the passage of consumer protection legislation is vital to the well-being of every citizen," said Diane Modica, commissioner of Mayor Raymond L. Flynn's Consumer Affairs and Licensing Office in Boston. "After all, everyone is a consumer."

The congress is being sponsored by the American Association of Retired Persons Consumer Representation Program, the Boston Commission on Affairs of the Elderly, the Executive Office of Energy Resources, the Massachusetts Association of Consumers, the Massachusetts Consumer Coalition, the Massachusetts Public Interest Research Group (MASSPIRG), and the Mayor's Office of Consumer Affairs and Licensing of Boston (MOCAL).

The Massachusetts Consumer Congress Committee held a press conference on Thursday, October 25, 1984, at City Hall at which time Mayor Raymond L. Flynn announced the appointment of the Boston area delegation.

UMTA FUNDS VARIOUS MBTA PROJECTS

Ralph Stanley, administrator of the federal Urban Mass Transportation Administration (UMTA), visited North Station, site of a major fire last January, and formally announced a grant of $9.4 million to repair the damage.

Stanley, State Transportation Secretary Frederick P. Salvucci, and MBTA General Manager James F. O'Leary surveyed the progress that has been made in rebuilding the 40,000 square-foot trestle since work began last July. O'Leary said the work is proceeding on schedule and service into North Station should resume next April.

Stanley also announced a series of other grants and presented Outstanding Public Service Awards, UMTA's highest award for transit administrators, to O'Leary and David Fink, chairman and chief executive officer of the Boston and Maine Railroad. B & M operates the Commuter Rail System under contract with the MBTA.

"This award says a great deal about the MBTA's commitment to quality Commuter Rail service and the impressive manner with which T management responded to a serious crisis," Salvucci said.

O'Leary said, "The progress we are witnessing at North Station is due in large part to UMTA's rapid response to our request for funds to repair the trestle. Less than three months after the fire UMTA gave us the go ahead to begin the work even in advance of the formal funding commitment which we have received."

O'Leary said the MBTA is working as fast as possible to repair the damage and to carry out other improvements, including new platforms, tracks and lighting, for the thousands of commuters who have been using alternative routes to and from Boston.

Also included in the grants is more than $3 million to build a new Commuter Rail service and inspection facility in South Boston.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE DAY PLANNED

Over thirty agencies will participate in Bunker Hill Community College's Criminal Justice Day on Thursday, November 15th, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the college.

Organized by the Criminal Justice

Department of the college, the day's activities will focus on career options and opportunities in law enforcement, corrections, civil rights and much more. Some of the agencies which will be represented include: the Attorney General's Office, the Department of Probation and Parole, County Sheriff's offices, Department of Youth Services, Massachusetts Commission Against Discrimination, the FBI, the Boston Police Department, Boston Housing Authority, the CIA, Harvard University Police, U.S. Customs Service, U.S. Border Patrol and Immigration Service, and the New York City Police Department, as well as a host of private security agencies.

In addition to career information displays, representatives from these various agencies will be available to meet one-on-one with students, sharing their experiences in the field, and directing students toward their career goals.

Criminal Justice Day will also serve as a resource for those already in the field with extensive listings of available positions, upcoming examinations and student internship opportunities.

Supplementing the wealth of information available at Criminal Justice Day will be equipment displays and demonstrations. The Massachusetts State Police will land a helicopter at the college and the Boston Police Department will demonstrate their SWAT team's rescue techniques, hostage recovery and repelling.

A police command center, stocked with state-of-the-art weapons and technical equipment, demonstrations of crowd and riot control techniques, and a simulated K-9 team drug/bomb search are also planned.

Commissioner's Memorandum No. 84-66
Bureaus, Districts-Areas, Divisions, Offices, Sections and Units.

In accordance with the provisions of chapter of the Massachusetts General Laws and 441 of the Code of Massachusetts Regulations, written notice shall be posted in all police facil-

Right to Know Workplace Notice

Right to Know Law, chapter 111F of the Massachusetts General Laws, provides new rights to employees and community residents regarding the disclosure of information on toxic and hazardous substances. Those rights include:

1. Workplace Notice. A notice must be posted in a conspicuous location in the workplace informing employees of their rights under the law. The notice must be in English language. It must also be available to non-English-speaking persons in their language.

2. Training. Employees must provide an annual training program to employees who work with toxic or hazardous substances. New employees must receive training within thirty days from date of hire.

3. Written Program. A written program must be conducted by a competent person and may be in the form of verbal or written instruction. At a minimum, training must include an explanation of employee rights, MSDSs as a document, and those MSDSs covering toxic or hazardous substances used, handled or stored in the workplace; applicable protective equipment, clothing and labeling of substances as carcinogenic, mutagenic, teratogenic or otherwise toxic. The employer must keep a record of this training instruction which must be given with pay for the employee's normal work or shift hours.

4. Material Safety Data Sheet (MSDS). The Material Safety Data Sheet is the document that provides information on each toxic or hazardous substance used or stored in the workplace. An employee or his designated representative has the right to examine the MSDS for any toxic or hazardous substance to which the employee "is,"

"has been" or "has been" exposed, if the employer's interest is made to the employer in writing. After working days from the date the request is received, the employer must refuse to work with the substance when two conditions exist — 1. The employer fails to furnish the employee with an MSDS;

2. The employee fails to furnish the employee with a written request that the employer has exercised diligent efforts to obtain an MSDS, either from the manufacturer or through the Commissioner of Labor and Industries. Public employees classified as essential services may not refuse to work with the substance.

5. Containers. All containers in the workplace of more than 5 pounds or more than one gallon, containing hazardous substances, must be labeled with the chemical name of the substance. Containers of hazardous substances must be labeled with the chemical name of the substance. Containers of more than 30 pounds or more than 5 gallons must also be labeled with the National Fire Prevention Association hazard symbol. Labels must be clear, prominent, in English and weather-resistant.

6. Discrimination. An employee who believes that he or she has been discharged, disciplined or discriminated against by an employer for exercising rights granted under the law, has 180 days to file a complaint with the Commissioner of the Department of Labor and Industries. A copy of the verified complaint must be sent to the employer at the same time by certified mail.

Note: The employee's rights listed above are further defined under chapter 111F of the Massachusetts General Laws and the Code of Massachusetts Regulations 441 CMR 21.00. For additional information call the nearest office of the Department of Labor and Industries: Boston (617) 727-5616.

Commissioner, Department of Labor and Industries.

Sections and Units.

Commissioner's Memorandum No. 84-68

October 19.

On October 8, 1984, the Massachusetts Department of Personnel Administration distributed a memorandum which contained information about police promotional Civil Service examinations. This memorandum indicated that the Department of Personnel Administration is scheduled to hold police promotional examinations on April 13, 1985.

For the benefit of personnel in the rank of Police Officer in the department, the April 13th date is not the date of which the Sergeant's promotional examination for this department will be held. It is expected that the Sergeant's promotional exam will be held sometime during the middle of March.

With respect to promotional examinations for Lieutenant and Captain, the department has requested of the Department of Personnel Administration the inclusion of Boston on the list of cities and towns eligible to take the examination scheduled on April 13, 1985. The Department of Personnel Administration is reviewing our request.
Therefore, until a decision is made, no official announcement of a departmental promotional examination for Lieutenant or Captain can be made.

In addition, the Department of Personnel Administration has released a reading list for their police promotion Civil Service examination. However, until we obtain approval of our request, we cannot promulgate an official reading list for a lieutenant's or Captain's examination which would identify the specific subject matter areas of the respective examinations. Therefore, purchases of any of these reference materials is strictly voluntary.

RAYMOND L. FLYNN

76

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1984

NO. 46

VETERANS DAY ★ NOVEMBER 11

"I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands. One Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

MAYOR FLYNN ANNOUNCES NEW DEVELOPMENT PROJECTS

Substantial jobs and revenues for Boston:

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn has announced his support for ten development projects totaling $1.3 billion in new investment. At a formal press conference at the new location for International Place, one of the projects endorsed, Mayor Flynn also announced that the developers of these privately funded projects have agreed to comply with the goals of the city's resident job program.

The Mayor said, "These projects were pending when I took office and I wanted additional reviews done before I could recommend their approval. The review is complete, and as a result, the design of the projects is significantly improved. Many of them have been scaled down, allowing them to be more compatible with the distinctive architecture of our city.

"More importantly," continued Mayor Flynn, "are the jobs that come with these new development projects — 25,000 permanent jobs and 12,000 construction jobs. My determination to gain at least half these jobs for Boston residents will have a dramatic and lasting impact on our neighborhoods.

"This report," the Mayor added, "spells out the entire public process and shows how residents in our city can participate in the decision-making that affects Boston's economic life — and there are many decisions left to be made.

The willingness of the developers to abide by the goals of Boston's residents job program means, according to the Mayor, that "with these projects, we are inaugurating a new era in Boston — a time when development downtown translates into jobs and economic benefits for all the people who live in Boston." The paradox of prosperity in our downtown and poverty in our neighborhoods, said the Mayor, can now be addressed.

Through agreements reached with the ten projects' developers, at least 50 percent of the newly created construction jobs will be going to Boston residents.

In addition to agreeing to the goals of the city's resident job policy, the developers will also contribute $1 million towards a fund for economic revitalization in the city's neighborhoods. Details of the program are still being finalized.

Mayor Flynn estimated that the ten projects, when complete, will provide $30.8 million annually in net additional property taxes and that $41 million will be obtained by the city from the sale of parking garages on St. James Avenue, Fort Hill Square and Kilby Street. Linkage revenues from the ten projects will amount to $24.7 million and will be used to construct and rehabilitate low- and moderate-income housing.

"I am particularly pleased," continued Mayor Flynn, "that a number of developers have agreed to participate in the funding of community programs, including scholarships for Boston students and contributions toward the support of school athletic programs."

The following are the community programs to be funded:

- New England Life, $500,000 for reconstruction of Copley Square
- 101 Federal Street, $300,000 towards neighborhood revitalization fund
- International Place, $300,000 towards athletic scholarship fund, $100,000 towards job training program for Boston schools
- 150 Federal Street, $200,000 towards neighborhood revitalization fund
- One Franklin Place, $250,000 towards neighborhood revitalization fund, $2 million to improve public transit connections between project and MBTA Washington Street station
- 99 Summer Street, $150,000 towards neighborhood revitalization fund
- 99 State Street, $150,000 towards neighborhood revitalization fund
- Arlington Hadassah, $75,000 annually towards maintenance of the Public Garden and the Boston Common, $665,000 towards development of low- and moderate-income housing

Mayor Flynn expressed hope that his strong support for the proposed development projects will facilitate the approval process for some seventy-two public actions still needed by various state and city agencies for the work to get under way.

According to BRA Director Stephen Coyle, the projects, as originally proposed, would have resulted in 83 square feet of new development. BRA's design review of the projects reduces that number to 6.4 million square feet. "This announcement," said Coyle, "indicates what we mean when we talk about balanced growth."

The projects requiring some additional approvals from the BRA and other agencies that have received support from the Mayor, are:

- 500 Boylston St. (New England Life)
- Post Office Square Park and Garage
- Rowe's and Foster's Wharves
- 99 Summer Street
- 150 Federal Street
- 99 State Street
- One Franklin Place (Kennedy)
- Arlington/Hadassah
- 101 Federal Street
- International Place

FOCUS ON SMALL BUSINESS

by John J. McNally, Jr., District Director

Q. I want to add new products to my small business. Any ideas on how to do this?

A. First, learn all about the market for your new product would serve. Is there the potential demand? How many competitors are already in the field? Do your plant have the capacity to produce and produce the new item?

Of course, your new product must earn a profit. Therefore, you must gather data on potential sales and costs, doing this yourself or through outside experts. Remember, if your product will complement present products (as tapes to tape recorders or sugar to coffee), sales of the new product will influence sales of present products.

Also investigate whether other persons hold patents or rights to the product in which you're interested.

The U.S. Small business Administration has a free publication on "Products Development" which will help.

Q. Any tips on the best ways to staff my small retail store? I want the best employees I can find.

A. You have the right idea on hiring workers, because a business is as the people in it. Remember, at for a small business it takes look for and hire workers and it is costly to fire an employee.

figure out — by looking at your and sales sheets and at your prospects — how many employees need. Think about setting down and training procedures consider writing down your on items like hours to be rate of pay, fringe benefits, vacation and training. Also consider the way to interview job applicants.

There are a number of ways to find jobs — from among your friends, newspapers want ads, high school or college counseling centers and state employment services offices. You can put a "Help Wanted" sign in your

U.S. Small Business Administration's excellent free publications to you. This publication is called "Getting Your Store" (Small Marketers #162).

One of these publications is available by writing to SBA, 150 Causeway Street, Boston, MA 02114, or by calling 212-4074.

Think I have the personality traits necessary to succeed if I decide to go into business for myself. But is there anything on checklist I can use? Yes, there is.

The Small Business Administration has a Management Aid (No. 1) called "Checklist for Going into Business." It's available free, by writing to SBA, 150 Causeway Street, Boston, MA 02114.

This publication asks you to answer a series of questions so that you can get an idea of what you think of yourself. Try answering as samplers. If you agree with those statements in parentheses you may be a poor candidate for business ownership.

Let me take charge of things and let you go through. (There's always a bigger beaver around wanting to know how smart he is. I say let him.) Let me do things on my own. Nobody has to get going. (I don't put myself in a position where I have to).

Let me be the people. I can get along with anybody. (Most people irritate me).

Let me get people to join in when I start something. (I let someone else get started, then I go along if I feel like it).

- I can keep going as long as I need to. I don't mind working hard for something I want. (I'll had enough, that's it).

- I can make up my mind in a hurry if I have to. (I don't like to be the one who has to decide things).

- My health and energy never run down. (I run out of energy sooner than do most of my friends).

SBA advises you to have your spouse and friends go over the checklist with you so that you can get some better personal insight. If other consistently brand you with a bad trait, assume they are right; ask what they think you should do about it.

Such help could save your business even though you might know your product well and possess all the other characteristics necessary to succeed.

Q. More and more special interest groups are actively trying to influence government policy. Who speaks for small business?

A. A growing number of small business trade associations are working to influence federal and state legislators and are speaking up on small business issues and policies.

Within the federal government, the Office of Advocacy in the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) is charged with being an ombudsman for small business, advocating policies and legislation which will help small business owners. The Office of Advocacy, headed by a chief counsel appointed by the President, works with other federal agencies, for example, so that regulations and statutes neither help small businesses or have a minimal negative impact.

The Office of Advocacy also works with state governments. More and more states are setting up their own small business agencies.

The SBA office offers a toll-free telephone service to help small businessmen and businesswomen who have problems with government. SBA's "Answer Deck" receives several hundred calls a day from persons seeking help and guidance. The toll-free number is 800-368-5855.

NEIGHBORHOOD COUNCILS MEETING HELD

The second meeting to discuss the formation and selection process of the Neighborhood Councils was held in Mission Hill and Charlestown.

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn's Office of Community Participation is working hard to make good on the Mayor's promises to make the councils a reality. During the next meeting to discuss the councils, members of the Mayor's staff will present a draft outlining responsibilities of the Neighborhood Councils and how members will be selected. All neighborhood residents are encouraged to come to the meetings and let their ideas be heard.

Mayor Flynn said, "We want to hear from those who might normally not attend neighborhood meetings. In order to ensure complete community input in the decisions affecting the neighborhood, a dialogue on the way the councils will be established is very important."

The Mayor's Office of Community Participation has sent out over 5,000 questionnaires to neighborhood residents across the city to get their ideas and feedback. Over 75 percent of those who responded voiced support for councils in their neighborhoods. For more information, contact the Office of Community Participation at 725-3485.

REDUCED FARES FOR HANDICAPPED AND SENIORS

An MBTA registration team will be in Mattapan, Church of the Holy Spirit, 525 River Street, on Tuesday, November 13; Jamaica Plain, Curtis Hall, 20 South Street, on Wednesday, November 14; and in Roxbury, Freedom House, 14 Crawford Street, on Thursday, November 15, 1984, to issue identification cards permitting senior citizens and handicapped persons to ride the MBTA rapid transit lines and local buses for reduced rates.

"Public transportation is particularly important to Boston's senior and handicapped citizens. I am pleased that General Manager O'Leary and his staff are making this effort to assure the fullest possible participation in the program," remarked Mayor Raymond L. Flynn.

With the cards, senior citizens may ride rapid transit lines and local buses for 10 cents at all times. Special Needs cards are valid during off-peak hours only, and allow the bearer to ride any 60 cents-subway route or 50 cents-bus route for 10 cents. If the fare exceeds that amount, the cardholders pay half fare.

Eligible citizens from Boston and the surrounding areas will be able to register between the hours of 9:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m.

To be eligible for a senior citizen reduced fare identification card, which contains the name and address of the holder and a color photograph for positive identification, senior citizens must bring proof of age—sixty-five years or older—such as a birth certificate, baptismal record, or driver's license; proof of residency, such as a driver's license, library card, or charge plate and a 50 cents cash fee.

Medicare cards will not be accepted as proof of age.

"I urge all senior citizens and those with special needs to take advantage of our discount program," said MBTA General Manager James F. O'Leary. "To make it easier to register, MBTA personnel will be making regional visits to other communities.

Senior citizens who already own a reduced fare identification card do not have to register again.

To be eligible for a handicapped citizen reduced fare ID card, handicapped persons must present acceptable proof of their disability such as evidence of seventy percent or more disability as determined by the United States Veterans Administration; or completion of MBTA Form No. SN-7 which must be approved and signed by a physician.

The MBTA Senior Citizen Special Needs Registration Office is located in the Washington Street Concourse in Boston and is open Monday through Friday, from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. all year round.

TAX BILL INFORMATION

Collector-Treasurer George A. Russell, Jr., would like to remind Boston property taxpayers that although Fiscal year 1985 valuation figures have been approved by the state Department of Revenue, only step one of a two-step process has been completed. No tax bills have yet been issued, nor can they be, until the tax has been certified by the Department of Revenue. The statement came in response to the large number of inquiries to the Collector-Treasurer's office by taxpayers who wanted to obtain copies of their tax bills. Mr. Russell added that when the tax rate has been certified, he will make the announcement when the tax bills will be issued and their due date.

I am looking forward to a time when women will take on leadership positions in both the Fire and Police Departments. The time is long overdue.

"Our hiring record in the third quarter of this year is also a measure of commitment to bringing women into public service. fifty-three percent of our new employees in that period were women. We will continue to fulfill the promise to appoint women to positions of authority throughout city government."

HUMPHREYS STREET MADE ONE WAY

Traffic Commissioner Lisa Chapnick announced that Humphreys Street in Dorchester will be adjusted to a one-way street from Dudley Street to East College Street on November 12, 1984.
This change will be implemented initially for a sixty-day trial period.

The change is a direct result of a petition from 160 homeowners and residents in the area. Following up on the petition, Commissioner Chapnick noted from observing traffic flow in the area that the request was indeed practical.

"This change will reduce the number of motorists who in the past have used the street as a shortcut and will therefore make the neighborhood more liveable," said Commissioner Chapnick.

MAYOR CUTS $6.3 MILLION FROM FY '85 BUDGET

In order to obtain state approval for the city's tax rate, Boston Mayor Raymond Flynn has cut $6.3 million from the Fiscal Year 1985 budget. The action was in order to balance the city's budget and gain the necessary state approval of the city's tax rate.

In announcing the budget reductions, Mayor Flynn said: "Given the level of cuts in Boston's neighborhoods, it is unfair that our residents bear the burden of substantial budget reductions. But until the state corrects the inequity that leaves Boston the only major city in the country exclusively reliant on the property tax, I am left with no alternative. In addition, we are faced with the problem of a substantial budget deficit, the loss of approximately $10 million in vitally needed revenue because of the defeat of the parking excise tax, and the requirement by the state that we submit a balanced budget.

The residents of our city need improved city services — which we are working hard to deliver — not reduced city services," the Mayor said. He again pointed out, however, that in such areas as "police and fire, and in health care, I am going to ensure that full funding by the city will continue. Given the reality that infant mortalities have risen substantially in five Boston neighborhoods, and federal cuts in health care to Boston that have totaled over $36 million during that past three years, this city will make every effort to ensure that our commitment to quality health care is not compromised."

The budget cuts announced come in addition to the following financial reforms enacted during the first year of the Flynn Administration:

- Two-thirds of all city departments have been level-funded or reduced from last year's funding level.

- The Flynn Administration has implemented a Quarterly Allotment System more stringent than that required by Tregor legislation.

- The City Administration has for the first time encumbered projected fixed costs such as utilities and telephone costs by restricting in advance the dollars appropriated for these uses.

City Collector-Treasurer George Russell emphasized that "these reforms are intended to underscore this city's commitment of openness and efficiency in the management of its finances. We expect, furthermore, that this action will result in the approval by the State Department of Revenue of the city's tax rate as soon as possible."

Attached is a breakdown of new appropriation levels for city agencies. In addition to the $4.7 million reduction in departmental budgets, the city has cut its debt service appropriation by $1.6 million.

MAYOR COMPLIES WITH RIGHT TO KNOW LAW

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn has said that in compliance with the state's Right to Know law, the city has hired a contractor to begin chemical inventories at five target sites. The contractor, Envirologic Data, started working this week at Boston City Hospital.

In addition to the inventories, the contractor will compile and analyze a list of all chemicals that are covered by the law and will initiate training that emphasizes emergency treatment and proper handling of substances. Other target sites to be done by Envirologic Data in addition to City Hospital include: Mattapan Hospital, Long Island Hospital, the Department of Public Works garage on Frontage Road, and the city's printing shop on North Street. Compliance for Right to Know will be conducted internally for all other departments and agencies.

"As an employer of nearly 20,000 people, the city will take full responsibility for compliance with the Right to Know law. This administration is strongly committed to making sure that all work sites are safe and healthy for city employees," said Mayor Flynn.

The purpose of the Right to Know law is to guarantee that workers and community residents who work with or have been exposed to hazardous chemicals at the workplace will have access to information concerning such substances, their health effects and applicable safety precautions.

COMPUTERPLACE AT SCIENCE MUSEUM

Where in New England can you try out more than seventy brands of computer hardware and 250 kinds of software without receiving a sales pitch?

The answer is ComputerPlace at Boston's Museum of Science, where Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. are "Drop in Time" and an expert staff is available to respond to all of your computer-related questions.

"Many of our Saturday visitors are interested in buying a home computer and need advice on what type of system to get," explained Ron Sweet, chief instructor at ComputerPlace.

"Others already own computers but don't really know what to do with their equipment."

But Drop in Time is not the only activity at ComputerPlace by any calculation.

Sundays from 1 to 4 p.m. are "Fun Time," when adults and children can pass beyond the realm of "Donkey Kong" to play all sorts of computer games that are educational as well as exciting.

They can be psychoanalyzed, for example, by "Eliza," a therapist on disk.

Or, they can compete with Bruce Jenner in "The Decathlon" or learn to fly an airplane in a flight simulation game.

From Tuesday through Saturday, five-session classes are held at ComputerPlace.

"Computing Creatively," for instance, is a self-paced, individualized course for ages ten to adult that emphasizes problem-solving and creativity.

"Computer Smorgasbord" is an overview for adults only, "Partners in Learning" is for preschoolers and their parents, and "All in the Family" and "All in the Family, Part II" are for children aged eight to twelve and their parents.

Another course, "Logo for Moms and Others," is a gentle introduction to turtle graphics that teaches adults to write simple programs and create colorful designs.

Admission to Drop in Time and Fun Time is free to museum visitors.

Fees and times vary for ComputerPlace courses, which began the week of November 12.

For more information call Boston's Museum of Science at 723-2500.

REVALUATION

Fiscal Year 1986 revaluation has officially begun. Property tax began on September 10th in 1985 and will soon commence in 1986. Over the next several months collectors will be visiting every owner of residential property in the city. Attached literature is being left with every taxpayer when they are visited by data collectors. It explains the revaluation process. You will find it helpful in answering any questions you have about the Fiscal Year 1986 revaluation.

As a taxpayer, you are invited to bring to your attention, that following weeks and months, representatives of a professional property company, representing the City of Boston, will be conducting property surveys throughout the City of Boston. We will again gather information about your home and neighborhood that may affect the value of your home.

These surveys are in response to the state mandate to fully revalue all properties every three years. The city completed its first full revaluation in Fiscal Year 1983. The city is now conducting the Fiscal Year 1986 revaluation, which will produce assessments and tax bills for the fall of 1985. These property surveys, that will take place in the coming weeks, are undertaken to ensure that the information used to generate the revaluation assessments are fair to all taxpayers and reflect fair market value for all properties.

THIS COLLECTION EFFORT IS NOT PART OF YOUR FISCAL YEAR 1985 TAX BILL, which you will receive this fall. The Fiscal 1985 assessment will reflect market indexing of your current assessment based on sales in your region consistent with state requirements.

The city has hired a professional revaluation firm, The Property Systems Company, to undertake these residential property surveys. Each of their data collectors will be visibly wearing laminated identification cards. These cards will clearly display the city seal and a photo of the data collector. The collectors will need approximately fifteen minutes to inspect your home.

All of the collected information will be analyzed by professional appraisers to arrive at consistent and equitable estimates of "Fair Market Value" for your home and for each property in the city. When we have completed our work for each property in the city (in the late fall of 1985), we will send you an "Impact Notice," letting you know the new estimate of your property prior to the issuance of the Fiscal Year 1986 tax bill. You will also be informed of the time and location of informal meetings that the Assessing Department will be holding, to discuss any questions you may have concerning your estimated value.

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn has promised a government that is open, honest, and fair. The Assessing Department is fully committed to meeting this goal in its Fiscal 1986 revaluation effort. It is important that you feel free to contact the department at 725-4287 with any questions you may have throughout this revaluation process. Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,
WILLIAM B. COUGHLIN,
Commissioner.

THIRD ANNUAL "LIGHT-A-LIGHT"

"Twas the night before Christmas and all through the house, jack-o-lanterns were shining and brightly painted eggs were hidden for the next day's hunt." On the night before Christmas?

Traditions are essential. They are signals in an often hurried world that reach out and grab our attention to direct us to the various seasons that are approaching.

When the Boston Common is set aglow with thousands of lights draped through the trees of our nation's oldest park. Bostonians and visitors alike know that the holiday season is alive within the city. People frolic through the Common in the evenings. They view the spectacular lighting display, capture the friendly holiday spirits and take them into their hearts and homes to share these tidings of faith and goodwill with everyone they greet.

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn and Commissioner Robert R. McCoy announce the third annual "Light-a-Light" Campaign. Light-a-Light was conceived in 1982 by the Boston Parks and Recreation Department and the Friends of the Public Garden and Common because lack of municipal funds nearly curtailed the traditional lighting of the Common.

Through the sale of one dollar lapel buttons and a corporate giving program, Light-a-Light has proven to be a very successful public/private partnership. This community-spirited campaign maintains a philosophy: If everyone who has enjoyed the holiday lighting of the Boston Common buys one button for one dollar, one light will be lit on the Common.

The official kick-off for this year's Light-a-Light Campaign was held on November 13, at Downtown Crossing.

Light-a-Light buttons will be on sale throughout the next several weeks at various locations including Downtown Crossing, Quincy Market, and neighborhood merchants throughout the city.

The Christmas on the Common Festival is scheduled for Sunday, December 2. The holiday parade begins at 1 p.m., Mayor Raymond L. Flynn will hit the switch to illuminate the park for the 1984 holiday season at approximately 4:30 p.m.

Join in this community-spirited effort of Light-a-Light to perpetuate this Boston tradition of thirty-seven years! Buy a button — light a light!

MAYOR ANNOUNCES SWISS/NESTLE'S NEW HOTEL

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn has announced that Swissair/Nestle will take over the 500-room hotel at Lafayette Place. The twenty-two-story hotel, to be called "The Lafayette," will be operated by the Swissotel Group, and jointly owned with developer Mondeve International.

In making the announcement at a press conference in the Food Garden at Lafayette Place, Mayor Flynn said, "I am very pleased to be able to make this announcement. The strong financial commitment from Swissair to operate not simply the hotel, but to be a partner in its equity shows a confidence in the City of Boston, in its economic growth and vitality, in its workforce, and in its future."

Mayor Flynn was instrumental in bringing Swissair/Nestle to Boston through intense negotiations and personal contact by the Mayor's Office with Swissair Associated Companies, Ltd., in Zurich. His success in quickly finding a replacement to Inter-Continental Hotel, which withdrew from Lafayette Place in early August, further indicates that Boston's economy, which continues to grow every year, increases the demand for hotel space. The Mayor noted that "investing in Boston now is a good business investment for the years to come."

"There will be 420 new jobs created at the new hotel," Mayor Flynn continued. "We will be working with Swissotel to ensure that the majority of jobs go to Boston residents so that the people in our neighborhoods can reap the economic benefits that come from the continued expansion in our downtown.

Bringing the new hotel to Downtown Crossing also reaffirms the importance of this area at the central core of business in the city. The Lafayette will bring in convention visitors and tourists to Downtown Crossing and to Chinatown, and will add to the strength of the businesses in the area.

Mayor Flynn's announcements follow, by just a week, a press conference where Mayor Flynn gave his support to downtown development projects. The key to those plans is the increase in tax revenues for the city and the agreement reached with the various developers to comply with the terms of the Boston Jobs Resident Policy. Filling the 25,000 permanent jobs will be generated when the development projects are complete.

MAYOR FLYNN STRESSES AWARENESS OF TENANTS RIGHTS

Boston Mayor Raymond L. Flynn affirmed his commitment to improve the quality of housing in the city. Mayor said strict and vigorous enforcement of the State Sanitary Code, other building and health codes is of the utmost importance. "I believe it is essential for tenants to be aware of their rights," Flynn said.

Mayor Flynn mentions the following conditions as common violations that deserve attention:

- Failure to provide heat, or improper venting of space heater or oil heater
- Failure to supply hot or cold water in sufficient quantity, pressure, or temperature (for twenty-four hours or longer)
- Cockroach, insect or rodent infestation
- From September 16, to June 15, landlord must provide facilities to heat every room to at least: 68° F between 7 a.m. and 11 p.m. and 64° F between 11 p.m. and 7 a.m.
- Main front door must close automatically, locks must be maintained on other exterior doors.
- In addition, as of September 1, new law has been passed that prohibits utilities from shutting off power in apartments where there is a child under twelve months.

tenant does indeed have a complaint, the first step is making phone calls or visits to:

our local tenant organization to get a better understanding of tenant's rights and the benefits of collective action.

our landlord to give him/her notice of the conditions which need correction in your apartment.

the housing division of Inspectional Services in order to file an official complaint. By calling 25-3722, tenants can speak directly with an inspector. On the weekend tenants with complaints can call 725-4000.

Questions concerning heating problems can be directed to the Mayor's Office of Constituent Services. The twenty-four-hour phone number is 735-HELP.

Finally, tenants with complaints or questions concerning evictions, or rent increase of condominium conversion can contact the Rent Equity board at 725-4200.

Want to stress the point that tenants retain rights and that they should use them," Mayor Flynn said. The points out that due to new legislation, tenants (the elderly in particular) have more rights than ever before. "I want to reiterate my belief that no matter how wonder, tenants should call appropriate agency and find out what their rights are and what can be done to redress their grievances."

Whether you need that "special something" for a "budding artist," a "scientist," an avid reader, or just one who likes "stuff," that something is here for you.

Stocking Stuffer Store opens November 23, with a dazzling display of 100 items priced from just 10¢ to $10.00. Give you that little extra shopping during the hectic holiday season, the Museum Shop is open on Mondays, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., December 3 and 4, as well as during the museum's regular hours.

This year's "hot" item is robots. Some talk — some walk — some spark — and some tumble ($2 to $26). For the robot aficionado, the shop has robot calendars, stickers and puzzles. If robots aren't your "thing," don't worry, there's plenty more in store at the shop.

Shop Manager Judy Flam boasts that "we have one of the largest selections of educational toys and games in the Boston area." Whether it's fun stuff like teddy bears and wooden train sets; decorative stuff like ornaments from around the world and handmade wildflower wreaths; educational stuff like the latest children's books and Asian folk crafts; or serious stuff for your science buff like skeleton kits and stethoscopes, the shop has that perfect gift for your two-, twelve-, twenty-, or sixty-year-old.

To assure keeping your holiday surprises a secret, two special shopping evenings are planned. "First Dibs" on Monday, December 3, 6 to 10 p.m., allows leisurely "adult-only" browsing of all the goodies. Can't make First Dibs? Well, you get a "2nd Crack" on Monday, December 10, 6 to 10 p.m. Refreshments will be served at each of these adult-only evenings and members of the museum receive a 10 percent discount.

The Museum Shop is located at Museum Wharf, 300 Congress Street, on Boston's waterfront — a short walk from Faneuil Hall Marketplace and Downtown Crossing and convenient to public transportation. For travel directions, call the What's Up Line at 426-8855, and come see what's in store for you this holiday season at the shop.

T "RIDE" PROGRAM EXPANSION

The MBTA Board of Directors voted to expand the Ride, the door-to-door, para-transit service for people with special needs, and adopted a comprehensive policy to improve handicapped access to public transportation.

The board earmarked $234,000 to expand the Ride service area from twelve cities to thirty-six cities over the next nine months. Created in 1977, the Ride has grown from two, wheelchair, lift-equipped vans to forty-five vans.

The Ride provides more than 11,000 trips per month. Forty-four percent of all trips are for work and 21 percent are for medical purposes. A recent survey also found that 59 percent of all users are older than sixty-five and 40 percent reported income of less than $5,000 per year.

"The MBTA is firmly committed to the continuation and expansion of this program, which provides essential transportation services to so many people," MBTA General Manager James F. O'Leary said. "Our goal is ultimately to broaden the program to include all seventy-eight cities and towns in the MBTA service area by mid-1987," O'Leary added.

Currently, the Ride serves Boston, plus eleven surrounding communities, comprising 110 square miles. The expansion approved by the Board of Directors increases the program's budget from $1,734,480 to $1,968,788.

The MBTA will also purchase fifty more lift-equipped buses, bringing its total to more than 130 buses.

"No other older transit system in the United States can match the MBTA's level of commitment to making public transportation more available to those with handicaps that prevent or hinder them from using the system," said Tom O'Brien, manager of the MBTA's Office of Special Needs.

For more information about the Ride and other MBTA programs contact the Office of Special Needs at 722-5123.

ASSESSING DEPARTMENT Analysis and Appraisal Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On June 28, 1983, your Honor approved the award of a contract, without advertising for bids, to Thomas L. Jacobs & Associates, Inc., Illinois, for professional services in real estate analysis and appraisal to the Assessing Department during the period of April 18, 1983, through June 30, 1983.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract to provide for authorization of additional funds for previously contracted services. Additional funds are requested due to the need to perform added research and analysis at my request.

The cost of this amendment, which is to be effective April 18, 1983, shall not exceed $30,000, which I have determined to be reasonable. The total cost of this contract, as amended, shall not exceed $60,000. The period of this contract shall be April 18, 1983, through June 30, 1983.

This amendment is being processed late for the reason that the determination that the contractor would require additional research and analysis to complete the contract's scope of services was made subsequent to the effective date of the contract.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be performed, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Sincerely,
Edward W. Jay, Jr.,
Commissioner.

Data Collection Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On June 28, 1983, your Honor approved the award of a contract, without advertising for bids, to the Property Systems Company, Ohio, for professional services in data collection for mass appraisal systems to the Assessing Department during the period of May 2, 1983, through June 30, 1983.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract to provide for authorization of additional funds for previously contracted services. Additional funds are requested due to an increase in the number of contractor personnel which will be required to complete the sales verification and data collection project.

The cost of this amendment, which is to be effective May 2, 1983, shall not exceed $12,800, which I have determined to be reasonable. The total cost of this contract, as amended, shall not exceed $162,000. The period of this contract shall be May 2, 1983, through June 30, 1983.

This amendment is being processed late for the reason that the determination of the need for additional contractor personnel was made subsequent to the effective date of the contract.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be performed, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Sincerely,
Edward W. Jay,
Commissioner.

NDEA

Stage Lighting Equipment

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On January 11, 1983, your Honor approved the award of a contract, without public advertising for bids, to the M. Harriet McCormack Center for the Arts, a nonprofit organization, located at 543 Columbia Road, Dorchester, for the purpose of providing cultural and recreational events at the Strand Theater. Compensation was determined to be reasonable at a cost not to exceed $35,000, payment being made from the Community Development Block Grant program for the period of December 1, 1982, to June 30, 1983.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract in terms of compensation and the services to be provided. The center is currently lacking stage lighting equipment for its facility. The lack of such equipment severely restricts the number of groups wishing to rent the Strand Theater for various performances, thereby greatly reducing the potential rental income the center sorely needs. I, therefore, request your Honor's permission to increase compensation in the amount of $10,000, enabling the center to purchase the needed equipment. Total compensation under the terms of this contract, as amended, shall not exceed $45,000. The submission of this letter has been delayed due to administrative oversight.

As this is a negotiated contract at a reasonable cost, based upon an extensive review of proposals, it is my belief that public advertising would serve no useful purpose. I, therefore, request permission to dispense with inviting sealed bids by advertising in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted in the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
Paul S. Grogan,
Director.

Community Gardens Program

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On June 29, 1983, your Honor approved the award of a contract, without public advertising for bids, to Boston Urban Gardeners, Inc., a nonprofit organization located at Statler Building, Boston, for providing a community gardens program. Compensation was determined to be reasonable at a cost not to exceed $50,100 for the period of July 1, 1983, to June 30, 1984, payment being made from the Community Development Block Grant program Year IX.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract in terms of compensation. Additional funds are requested in order that the contractor can expand the levels of services now provided. Specifically, these additional funds would allow the contractor to expand into Boston Housing Authority Developments in order to establish gardens, and allow for improvements to existing gardens in non-BHA areas.

I, therefore, respectfully request your Honor's permission to increase compensation by the amount of $15,000. The total amount of this contract, as amended, shall not exceed $65,100.

As this is a negotiated contract at a reasonable cost, based upon an extensive review of proposals, it is my belief that public advertising would serve no useful purpose. I, therefore, request approval, to dispense with inviting sealed bids by advertising in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
Paul S. Grogan,
Director.

Leasing of Office Space

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On June 21, 1983, your Honor approved the award of a contract, without public advertising for sealed bids, to Nathan R. Miller Properties, Ltd., a

CONTRACTS AMENDED

The Mayor has approved the amendment to the following contracts, based on the following information:

Personnel Division

Legal Services

Mr. Mayor:

On October 12, 1983, your Honor approved an amendment to a contract without public advertising for Janet M. Robitaille, Esq., 240 Commercial Street, Boston. This contract was for legal and management consultant services on an hourly basis to the Personnel Division of the Administrative Services Department and to other city agencies as deemed appropriate by me, including, but not limited to, research, preparation of briefs, memoranda, opinion letters, pleadings, motions, and documents, policy management consulting services, and personnel training. The period of the contract is from January 1, 1982, to June 30, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $4,500.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract to provide supervisory training in the legal and management procedures at Deer Island Penal Institution for legal services in the matter of Harris v. Castro and Beecher. The cost of this amendment, which is effective on February 2, 1984, shall not exceed $2,000, which I have determined to be reasonable. The contract as amended, shall not exceed $6,500.

Ms. Robitaille was an employee of the City of Boston for a number of years and is uniquely qualified to perform the work to be performed, I believe partnership, located at 6 Beacon Street, for the lease of 2,000 square feet of office space to the Neighborhood Development and Employment Agency.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract with respect to maximum compensation to allow for an increase in the rental rate. The original rental rate for this office space, for the period ending June 30, 1983, was $7.50 per square foot. Due to increase in property taxes and maintenance costs, the contractor increased the rental rate to $8 per square foot. The cost of this amendment, which I have determined to be reasonable, shall not exceed $1,000. Total compensation under the terms of this contract, as amended, shall not exceed $16,000.

As this is a negotiated contract I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purposes. I, therefore, request permission to dispense with inviting sealed bids by advertising in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
Paul S. Grogan,
Director.

Health Care Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On June 29, 1983, your Honor approved the award of a contract, without public advertising for bids, to the Greater Roslindale Medical and Dental Center, Inc., a nonprofit organization, located at 6 Cummings Highway, Roslindale, for providing health care services. Compensation was determined to be reasonable at a cost not to exceed $10,500, for the period of September 1, 1983, to June 30, 1984, payment being made from the Community Development Block Grant program Year IX.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract in terms of compensation. Current CDBG funding provides for clerical and laboratory support services through a medical assistant position. Additional funding will allow the contractor to add a full-time dentist, pediatrician, and a second medical assistant to the staff, enabling the contractor to substantially increase the number of patients seen. These additional funds will be matched by other funding sources.

I, therefore, respectfully request your Honor's permission to increase compensation by the amount of $40,500. The total amount of this contract, as amended, shall not exceed $51,000.

As this is a negotiated contract at a reasonable cost, based upon an extensive review of proposals, it is my belief that public advertising would serve no useful purpose. I, therefore, request approval to dispense with inviting sealed bids by advertising in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code St. 4 s. 5.

Sincerely,
Paul S. Grogan,
Director.

Planning Efforts

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On April 1, 1983, your Honor approved the award of a contract, without public advertising for bids, to the Hispanic Office of Planning and Evaluation, a nonprofit organization, located at 644 Tremont Street, for research and planning efforts in the Hispanic community. Compensation was determined to be reasonable at a cost not to exceed $15,000, for the period of January 1, 1983, to June 30, 1983, payment being made from the Community Development Block Grant program Year VIII.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract in terms of compensation. Under a previous CDBG award, the contractor received a $30,000 grant for an eight-month period of performance. Due to an administration oversight, the current award was determined by prorating the previous award on a twelve-month rather than eight-month basis, inadvertently reducing the level of funding intended, based on previous awards.

I, therefore, respectfully request your Honor's permission to increase compensation by the amount of $7,500. The total amount of this contract, as amended, shall not exceed $22,500.

As this is a negotiated contract at a reasonable cost, based upon an extensive review of proposals, it is my belief that public advertising would serve no useful purpose. I, therefore, request approval to dispense with inviting sealed bids by advertising in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code St. 4 s. 5.

Sincerely,
Paul S. Grogan,
Director.

Adult Education Programs, etc.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On January 6, 1983, your Honor approved an award of a contract without public advertising for Action for Boston Community Development (ABCD), a nonprofit organization with offices at 178 Tremont Street, for the operation of an Adult Work Experience Program and a prevocational program to provide adult basic education and English as a second language (ESL) skills to 145 CETA participants. This letter was subsequently amended and approved on April 25, 1983.

Your approval is requested to further amend this contract to increase the award amount to cover intake services for CETA participants. These services include prescreening, completion of CETA applications, etc. These costs were inadvertently omitted when the previous award letters were submitted. This amendment will increase the contract amount from $271,326 by $18,674, to a total cost not to exceed $290,000. The contract will continue to be effective for the period October 1, 1982, through September 30, 1983. Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the City of Boston through a federal government grant under Title II-B of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) Amendments of 1978, P.L. 95-524. This request is retroactive due to an administrative oversight to include the costs when the previous award letters were written.

As this amendment is for the continuation of a program at a reasonable cost, which conforms to federal procurement requirements for CETA programs, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising. I therefore request approval to dispense with advertising for sealed bids in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
Paul S. Grogan,
Director.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On December 3, 1982, your Honor approved an award of a contract without public advertising for Jamaica Plain Ecumenical Social Action Committee, a nonprofit organization with offices at 62 Atherton Street. Under the terms of the contract, the contractor provides an academic, skill building program leading to a General Equivalency Diploma (GED) for twenty-eight youths, ages 16 to 21. In addition, the contractor provides career exploration, job-development and placement services to the participants.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract to include funding for a summer job development program. These increased funds will also allow for an exploratory at the Occupational Resource Center (ORC) as a summer enrichment for an additional fifteen youths from various agencies with the youth system. Negotiations and funding levels have not been completed when the original award was submitted. This amendment will increase the contract amount from $77,999 by $5,000, to a total cost not to exceed $82,000. The contract will continue to be effective for the period October 1, 1982, through September 30, 1983. Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the City of Boston under Title IV-A of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) Amendment of 1978, P.L. 95-524. This request is retroactive due to the time involved in negotiation and subsequent budget development.

As this amendment is for the continuation of a program at a reasonable cost, which conforms to federal procurement requirements for CETA programs, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising. I therefore request approval to dispense with advertising for sealed bids in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
Paul S. Grogan,
Director.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On December 3, 1982, your Honor approved an award of a contract, without public advertising for the Education Collaborative of Greater Boston, a nonprofit organization with offices at Brookline, for the operation of an academic credit, diploma, and alternative education programs for 115 school and marginally enrolled youth, ages 16 to twenty-one. This letter was subsequently amended and approved on January 21, 1983.

Your approval is requested to further amend this contract to include funding for a Comprehensive Business Skills Training Program. This program will provide typing, accounting, basic English and employment skills to youths presently enrolled in the program. This amendment will increase the contract amount from $232,900 by $5,000, to a total cost not to exceed $237,900. The contract will continue to be effective for the period October 1, 1982, through September 30, 1983. Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the City of Boston through a federal government grant under Title IV-A of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) Amendment of 1978, P.L. 95-524. This request is retroactive due to the time involved in negotiation and subsequent budget development.

As this amendment is for the continuation of a program at a reasonable cost, which conforms to federal procurement requirements for CETA programs, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising. I therefore request approval to dispense with advertising for sealed bids in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
Paul S. Grogan,
Director.

Job Training, etc.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On December 3, 1982, your Honor approved an award of a contract, without public advertising for and Youth — Boston, Inc., a nonprofit organization with offices at 119 Charles Street, for the purpose of providing employment and training courses to fifty-eight City of Boston youths. Under terms of the contract, the contractor provides eligible school dropouts from Boston with job skills training, prework orientation, unsubsidized employment, vocational counseling, educational assessment and education support.

My approval is requested to amend this contract to include funding for a Secretarial Skills Enrollment Program for an additional fifteen CETA trainees from various agencies within the NDEA system. Negotiations and funding levels had been completed when the original award letter was submitted. This amendment will increase the contract amount from $44,000 by $30,000 to a total of $74,000. The contract will continue to be effective for the period October 1, 1982, through September 30, 1983. Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the City of Boston under Title IV-A of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) Amendment of 1978, P.L. 95-524. This request is retroactive due to the involvement in negotiation and subsequent development.

This amendment is for the continuation of a contract at a reasonable cost, which conforms to procurement requirements for CETA programs. No public purpose would be served by formal advertising. I therefore request approval to proceed with advertising for sealed bids in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under the Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
Paul S. Grogan,
Director.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On December 3, 1982, your Honor approved an award of a contract, without public advertising, for Hispana Inc., a nonprofit organization with offices at 125 Amory Street, Roxbury, for the purpose of providing employment and training programs for Hispanic youth. Compensation was determined to be reasonable at a cost not to exceed $3 payment being made from Year VIII funds of the Community Development Block Grant program. Costs incurred during the period of December 1982, until June 30, 1983.

My approval is requested to amend this contract in terms of compensation and the period of performance. Due to an internal administrative error, the starting date was incorrectly listed as December 15, 1982, whereas, the correct date should have been December 12, 1982. The contractor incurred personnel costs over this three-day period. I therefore respectfully request your Honor's permission to increase compensation in the amount of $3 to cover these personnel costs. The new performance shall be from December 12, 1982, until June 30, 1983. The submission of this amendment has been delayed due to administrative inaction.

This amendment is a negotiated contract as a reasonable cost, based upon an extensive review of proposals, it is my belief that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Sincerely,
Paul S. Grogan,
Director.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On December 3, 1982, your Honor approved an award of a contract, without public advertising, for Equipment Corporation (DEC), 175 Federal Street, for the purpose of providing training courses for the Neighborhood Development and Employment Agency (NDEA) Computer Service personnel for the operation and maintenance of DEC's computer system.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract to include funding for additional training course for the Computer Services personnel due to recent staff turnover. This amendment will increase the contract amount from $3,000 by $550, to a total cost not to exceed $3,550. The contract will continue to be effective for the period October 1, 1982, through September 30, 1983. Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the City of Boston through a federal government grant under Title I of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) Amendment of 1978, P.L. 95-524. This request is retroactive due to recent staff turnover which occurred after the original award letter was written.

As this amendment is for the continuation of a contract for training purposes as a reasonable cost, which conforms to federal procurement requirements for CETA funded programs, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising. I therefore request approval to dispense with advertising for sealed bids in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
Paul S. Grogan,
Director.

Architectural Design Service

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On January 21, 1983, your Honor approved the award of a contract, without advertising, for bids, to City Design Collaborative, Inc., located at 334 Boylston Street, for architectural design services for commercial property rehabilitation work under the Neighborhood Commercial Development Bank (NCDB) Program.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract with respect to compensation and period of performance to provide for a continuation of services so that ongoing projects may be brought to completion. The contractor is currently working on several projects. A change in architects at this point would jeopardize the timely and economical completion of the projects. In addition, this contractor has previously provided work of such high quality and at such a reasonable price that continuing this contractual relationship would be to the benefit of the NCDB program. Under the terms of this amendment, City Design Collaborative will continue to provide the following services: architectural design services, engineering services, graphic design services, and construction supervision services.

The cost of this amendment, which I have determined to be reasonable for the services to be provided, shall not exceed $25,000 and the contractor will provide services at the same hourly rates as in the existing contract. The total cost of this contract, as amended, shall not exceed $50,000. The termination date of this contract shall be extended from June 30, 1983, to June 30, 1984. This request has been delayed due to administrative oversight.

Due to the fact a change of architects would delay and jeopardize ongoing project and lead to increased costs, and since the contractor will provide work on additional projects at the same reasonable hourly rate, it is my belief that public advertising would serve no useful purpose. I therefore request approval to dispense with inviting sealed bids by advertising in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
Paul S. Grogan,
Director.

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT Engineering Design Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission on July 7, 1983, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record, and enter into an agreement with H.W. Lochner, Inc., 52 Chauncy Street, amending a contract executed November 9, 1982, providing civil/structural engineering design services, including supervision of construction for the period July 1, 1982, to June 30, 1983, so as to increase the amount authorized for expenditure from $16,500 to $22,500, which is a reasonable amount.

This additional cost of $6,000 is for the preparation of construction contract documents in order to complete several projects of an immediate design nature.

Due to the provision of the law that executed and existing city contracts may be altered only by a writing signed by the parties thereto, including the Mayor and bonding company, public advertising in this instance would serve no useful purpose.

Donald B. Manson,
Director.

Court Stenography Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission dated June 27, 1983, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record, and enter into an agreement with Henry J. Sheehan, 40 Court Street, amending a contract executed March 4, 1982, as amended on August 20, 1982, providing for court stenography services for the period July 1, 1982, to June 30, 1983, in connection with litigation in the Occupational Resource Center case, so as to increase the amount authorized for expenditure from $5,200 to $9,500.

This increase of $4,300 is due to the unusually lengthy litigation involved in this case. I believe that the amount is reasonable.

Due to the provision of the law to the effect that executed and existing city contracts may be altered by a writing signed by all parties thereto, including the Mayor and bonding company, it is my judgment that public advertising in this instance would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,
Donald B. Manson,
Director.

Architectural Design Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission on July 7, 1983, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record, and enter into an agreement with Green International Affiliates, Inc., Somerville, amending a contract executed February 26, 1980, as amended August 19, 1980, providing for architectural design services for improvements at six recreation facilities, so as to increase the amount for supplementary services from $11,500, to $15,000, the total contract not to exceed $45,197.50, which is a reasonable amount.

In order to complete the construction at Ripley and Clifford Playgrounds, which was suspended as a result of Proposition 2½, it is necessary to field survey each site to determine existing conditions and revise bidding and contract documents to reflect same.

Due to the provision of the law that executed and existing city contracts may be altered only by a writing signed by the parties thereto, including the Mayor and bonding company, public advertising in this instance would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,
Donald B. Manson,
Director.

Orientation Seminar

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission on July 7, 1983, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record, and enter into an agreement with MDC Systems Corporation, Pennsylvania, amending a contract executed March 25, 1983, providing path method orientation seminar for the Franklin Park Community Resource Center, so as to increase the amount authorized for expenditure from $4,000 to $5,350, which is a reasonable amount.

This increase of $1,350 is for additional equipment and programs that are compatible with Public Facilities' Apple III computer.

Due to the provision of the law that executed and existing city contracts may be altered only by a writing by the parties thereto, including the Mayor and bonding company, public advertising in this instance would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,
Donald B. Manson,
Director.

Information System, etc.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission on July 7, 1983, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record, and enter into an agreement with Jack B. Goldman, d/b/a Advanced Media Group, Brookline, amending a contract executed March 2, 1983, providing for the study and design of an internal documents handling and information system, so as to increase the amount authorized for expenditure from $12,000 to $15,600, which is a reasonable cost.

This increase of $3,600 is a result of additional services in the areas of fiscal reporting and accounting, real estate, and special computer programs in conjunction with the preparation of a Capital Improvements Plan not included in the original contract.

Due to the provision of the law that executed and existing city contracts may be altered only by a writing signed by the parties thereto, including the Mayor and bonding company, public advertising in this instance would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,
Donald B. Manson,
Director.

Municipal Building Renovations

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission on May 19, 1983, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record, and enter into an agreement with Arnold A. Jackson & Associates, 660 Summer Street, amending a contract executed July 24, 1979, as amended November 6, 1981, providing for architectural/engineering design services for alterations and repairs to the Hyde Park Municipal Building so as to increase the amount authorized for expenditure from $64,798 to $66,368.46, which is a reasonable amount.

This increase of $1,570.46 will cover the cost of additional roofing inspection services and will allow us to make final payment for this project.

Due to the provision of the Law to the effect that existing and executed city contracts may be altered only by a writing signed by all parties thereto, including the Mayor and bonding company, public advertising in this instance would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,
Donald B. Manson,
Director.

SCHOOL DEPARTMENT Milk, Cream, Ice Cream

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On July 23, 1982, your Honor approved an award of a contract based on public advertising for bids to H.P. Hood, 500 Rutherford Avenue, Charlestown, for furnishing milk, cream, and ice cream (cafeteria) during the period July 1, 1982, through June 30, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $1,124,270.80.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract to provide additional milk, cream, and ice cream. The cost of this amendment shall not exceed $125,000, which I have determined to be reasonable. The contract, as amended, shall not exceed $1,249,270.80.

Because additional milk, cream, and ice cream is required and because H.P. Hood has performed satisfactorily, I believe that further public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Leo J. Burke,

rates. This provision is part of the option to extend the present contract. The period of this contract shall be extended from July 1, 1983, to July 1984.

THANKSGIVING DAY

MAYOR FLYNN JOINS COOPERATIVE DRIVE AGAINST HUNGER

Boston Mayor Raymond L. Flynn joined with food retailer heads and community agency representatives in announcing that the city had taken several steps to combat the problem of hunger. At a press conference at Saint Francis House, the Mayor introduced the newly appointed members of his Advisory Commission on Hunger and detailed the public-private sector drive that he has initiated to deal with this situation and the problems associated with it.

"The crisis of hunger should be of concern to all of us," said Mayor Flynn. "Whether it strikes our next door neighbor, a stranger across town, or people in a faraway land like Ethiopia, it is nevertheless a universal problem. It is the goal of this administration to increase the level of support for those people in our city who find it difficult to put food on their tables. This must be a cooperative effort by the public, local government, and the business community.

As the Mayor spoke, dozens of homeless men and women waited in line at the Saint Francis House cafeteria for a hot noontime meal. According to Project Bread Hunger Hotline coordinator, Joanne Eccher, nearly 8,000 persons (including both homeless and non-homeless individuals) receive nutritionally adequate food from hot meal kitchen programs and food pantries each month, but she adds, "capacity is limited."

During the current fiscal year, the City of Boston will allocate more than a half-million dollars in Community Development Block Grants to fund agencies that provide food to the poor. This money is administered by the Neighborhood Development and Employment Agency. City Development Director Paul Grogan said, "This year over $100,000 has been allocated to hot meal programs which serve Boston residents of all ages. Another $270,000 has been granted to agencies which offer meal programs as part of their overall services. The city will continue its tradition of providing these necessary services to our residents."

The City of Boston has also allocated $150,000 to Saint Francis House for food, shelter, counseling and referrals.

To complement the city's efforts to combat the growing problem of hunger, several Boston food retailers have volunteered a quantity of food and services. The retailers, working with Mayor Flynn, will donate meat, poultry, vegetables, fruits, and other food products. The companies that have joined Mayor Flynn's campaign are, M. Berenson Co., Purity Supreme, Liberty Markets, Stop and Shop, Brigham's, Fannie Farmer, and Colonial Beef. This public-private sector effort is symbolized by the appointment of Vincent Lombardo, the vice-president of operations for Liberty Markets, to the Mayor's Advisory Commission on Hunger.

Joanne Eccher, of Project Bread Hunger Hotline, says that there are nearly 200,000 people in the City of Boston at risk of being hungry because they are living at or below the poverty level. She says, "People make choices between food and shelter, and many will pay rent before they eat." Mayor Flynn told the group represented at the press conference that, "poor people should not have to make such a choice."

MAYOR FLYNN KICKS OFF HOLIDAY SEASON CAMPAIGN FOR NEEDY

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn kicked off the holiday season campaign for the hungry and the homeless. The campaign will raise food, clothing and funds for the city's neediest residents.

In an address to the congregation at Our Lady of Good Voyage Church, the Mayor said, "In this holiday season, our actions must speak for our caring and compassion. We must act to help those for whom Christmas Eve will be just another night to try and stay alive.

"I am challenging you to put words into action through my Campaign for Caring."

The Mayor said donation centers will be open at City Hall, all Boston Community Schools, and other sites between Thanksgiving and Christmas. The campaign is seeking donations of warm, durable clothing (hats, coats, gloves, scarves, etc.) and packaged, nonperishable foods. The food and clothing will be distributed to the needy through a network of social service agencies.

The Mayor also announced that the city has established a trust fund of a minimum $22,000 to be used for services for the hungry and homeless. It will be used to match funds donated by businesses and other organizations. The trust fund is in addition to the over $1 million the city is spending on services for the hungry and homeless year.

The Mayor told those in attendance at the noon Mass, "The needs are great and the city alone cannot meet them. The immediate question becomes, what will you do, today and the next day?"

RESEARCH STUDY SAVES CITY HOSPITAL $50,000

Blue Cross of Massachusetts and Massachusetts Hospital Association have announced that a Boston City Hospital study undertaken with funding provided by the Blue Cross/MHA Fund for Cooperative Innovation demonstrated significant savings in health care cost containment.

"As a result of a successful study of the effective use of respiratory therapy equipment, Boston City Hospital has saved $50,000 per year," said Blue Cross President David W. Frost.

"If the techniques developed at Boston City Hospital are replicated at other intensive care hospitals throughout the Commonwealth, the cost savings achieved will provide a tremendous boost to our efforts to control health care cost increases."

With a $179,000 grant from the Blue Cross/MHA Fund, Dr. Donald Craven, hospital epidemiologist, has successfully conducted a randomized clinical trial of a forty-eight-hour versus the traditional twenty-four-hour change of mechanical ventilation tubing and circuitry on respiratory therapy equipment.

The study, conducted over a two-month period on 230 patients, demonstrated that significant savings can be achieved through lengthening the time between equipment changes.

In the study:

- Humidifying cascades were changed at a minimum of every 180 hours rather than twenty-four hours.
- Ventilation circuit tubing was changed at the rate of every seven to two hours, rather than the traditional twenty-four or forty-eight-hour period for certain low-risk patients. A BChS study undertaken in 1981 indicates 93 percent of all hospitals change ventilator circuits every twenty-four hours.

- ventilator circuits were changed every forty-eight hours for all patients.

"Dr. Donald Craven and Boston hospitals are deserving of our congratulations for another successful experiment in health care cost containment, which clearly shows that high quality care can be provided at a lower cost to hospital and patient," added Frost. Frost said that Boston City Hospital would receive an additional $12,500 from the Blue Cross/MHA Fund so that the hospital could complete the study. The National Center for Disease Control is very interested in the results of the study," said Frost. "An unusual finding in the study indicates that the eight-hour change cycle may be significantly safer than the twenty-four-hour change cycle traditionally used in hospitals in Massachusetts have repeatedly demonstrated over the years that they provide the finest quality health care possible," said MHA President David Kinzer. "Programs established under the Fund for Cooperative Care are laying the foundation for the continuance of high-quality care at a lower cost to those using hospital services." The Blue Cross/Massachusetts Hospital Association Fund for Cooperative Care aims to stimulate cooperative experiments in health care containment. Founded in 1982, the fund awards grants to qualified institutions and health care providers to conduct research and implement cost-reducing programs.

RESIDENTIAL WEATHERIZATION PROGRAM

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn on November 15, convened a high-level task force meeting on the city's residential weatherization program. Attending the kickoff meeting in the Eagle Room were Amy Anthony, state secretary, EOCD; State Rep. Sharon Pollard, secretary of the EOER Committee; Robert Coard, Director of ABCD; Marvin Siflinger, executive director, MHFA; George Russell, collector-treasurer; Paul Grogan, director, NDEA; Craig Pepper, vice-president, Boston Edison; Robert Sterns, vice-president, Bank of Boston; and others.

Mayor Flynn said, "Our housing program for the City of Boston could not be complete without an energy weatherization program. Every year people in our neighborhoods waste hundreds of dollars in unnecessary heating costs, and the city sends thousands of dollars out of our local economy.

"The development of an aggressive, coordinated, residential energy conservation program," the Mayor continued, "requires the resources and involvement of several agencies and institutions. Our plan is to integrate all the programs we know that already exist into a comprehensive program, and operate those programs in the neighborhoods of the city by mobilizing the residents to participate."

The goal of the energy conservation program is the weatherization of 20,000 residential units and the reduction of Boston's $310-million, residential heating bill by 58 percent or $15 million per year. The goal of the task force will be to get each agency to coordinate its efforts, and provide resources to support and successfully accomplish this task.

According to the Mayor, this direct service project will have many tangible benefits for the residents in our neighborhoods:

- Jobs and Economic Development: A weatherization program will provide jobs for Boston residents while it also offers job training and career development for those seeking new skills.

- Savings: It is estimated through the energy conservation program there could be an annual savings of 25 percent from the utility bill of each participant.

"I am committed," said Mayor Flynn, "to see that this program reaches residents of all our neighborhoods at all income levels, and makes Boston a model for the rest of the country in home energy conservation."

STEERING COMMITTEE, CONSUMER CONGRESS MEETING

The Steering Committee of the Massachusetts Consumer Congress held its first meeting recently at Boston City Hall to outline the specific strategies it will employ to persuade Massachusetts legislators to pass four major consumer bills before the State Legislature adjourns its 1984 session.

At the full Consumer Congress held on October 27, 165 delegates representing every district in the state, voted to make the following four consumer protection bills its priorities for the conclusion of the legislative year: (1) The Consumer Utility Board, to fight for lower utility rates; (2) The Used Car Lemon Bill, to protect buyers of defective used cars; (3) The Illegal Practice Penalties Bill, to increase penalties for violations of the state's consumer protection act; and (4) The Bank Float Bill, to limit excessive check-clearing delays.

The congress sent telegrams to Governor Michael Dukakis, Senate President William Bulger and House Speaker Thomas McGee announcing its priorities and seeking their support.

Boston's Consumer Affairs Commissioner Diane Modica said, "The high level of participation of delegates from across the state at the first Consumer Congress and their continuing efforts demonstrate the interest, concern and commitment of the group to fight for fairness and protection in the marketplace for Massachusetts consumers."

Members of the congress will undertake an aggressive campaign to educate the public about the benefits of this consumer legislation and to win legislative approval.

"CONFISCATED!" OPENS AT SCIENCE MUSEUM

A crocodile briefcase, an elephant hair bracelet, and a zebra skin bowling bag are all part of "Confiscated!", a new exhibit on display at Boston's Museum of Science now through January 13.

Made from animals of endangered species, these items have been seized by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Services at ports of entry in New York and Chicago from individuals caught in attempts at illegal trafficking.

The traveling exhibit marks the first time the federal government has ever permitted confiscated materials held in government warehouses to be displayed at museums.

The purpose behind Confiscated! is to increase public awareness that wildlife abuses still occur in many parts of the world despite international laws forbidding the killing of animals that are in danger of becoming extinct.

Among the many confiscated items in the exhibit are mounted wildlife specimens, ivory carvings, jaguar, ocelot and margay coats, and thousands of dollars worth of shoes, belts and purses created out of the skins of endangered lizards, caimans, and marine turtles from around the world.

Conceived and executed by Ellen Walters and Laurence Isard of the Cleveland Museum of Natural History, Confiscated! is funded by the Cleveland Foundation.

Members of the public can view Confiscated! and more than 400 other exhibits, shows, and special demonstrations at Boston's Museum of Science from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., Tuesday through Thursday, from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Fridays, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturdays, and from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Sundays.

The museum admission price is $5 for adults; $4 for students with college identification; $3 for children between the ages of five and seventeen; and $3 for senior citizens. Museum members and children under five are admitted free.

ABCD DISTRIBUTES FREE SURPLUS FOOD

Action for Boston Community Development will distribute free surplus food products from November 26 to December 7, to low-income households in Boston's neighborhoods. ABCD coordinates the Surplus Food Program in Boston through its neighborhood network of Area Planning Action Councils (APACs), Neighborhood Service Centers (NSCs) and other community-based agencies and organizations.

Eligible Boston residents must pick up food in their own neighborhoods as designated on their preregistration card.

Boston residents who have preregistered, and who carry an eligibility card issued by the ABCD Surplus Food Program, will find that their cards expedite the pick-up process. If you have a card, you don't need to bring other papers; simply sign your name and address to receive the food. Your card will provide proof of eligibility for all distributions during the following year.

ABCD Executive Director Robert Coard urges eligible Boston residents to preregister for future distributions. "With a program that distributes commodities to over 60,000, low-income households over a very short time period, a preregistration process is essential," he said. "Obtaining an eligibility card good for an entire year will reduce waiting time and make the process easier for all involved."

The amount of butter, cheese, and dry milk distributed is determined by family size. Residents who qualify should bring bags or containers for the food. For more information, people can contact ABCD's Surplus Food Program hotlines at 357-5447 or 357-5428.

ABCD, through its neighborhood offices, distributes the food products to eligible Boston residents only. The Surplus Food Program, a federally funded distribution, is operated statewide through the Massachusetts Department of Education.

 endorsed the United Way fund-

 Mayor Flynn met with representa-million people in Boston and eighty-five surrounding communities.

 Citing the clubhouse as a specific ex-

Notice

Attention to All Bidders

I. Minority Business Requirements:

No bid for the award of this project will be considered acceptable unless the general contractor complies fully with the following requirements for minority business enterprise utilization.

Pursuant to the Supplemental Minority Participation section of this contract, the general contractor must give satisfactory assurance that at least 10 percent of his bid price shall be expended for minority business enterprise, if the bid is over $10,000. For the purpose of this paragraph, the term minority business enterprise means a business in which at least 51 percent of the beneficial ownership and control is held by one or more minority persons (Black, Hispanic, Asian-American, or American Indian).

Each general contractor must complete, sign, and file with his bid the Minority Business Utilization Form. The Minority Business Utilization Form shall be completed and signed by the minority business enterprise and the general contractor. Failure to submit a Minority Business Utilization Form with the bid proposal will result in the rejection of the bid.

The City of Boston Minority Business Directory lists all minority-owned businesses that have been certified as such by the City of Boston. A copy of this directory can be obtained from the Awarding Authority or the Minority Business Office, 15 Beacon Street, fifth floor, Boston, MA 02108, telephone number 720-4300. If a contractor wishes to use a minority business that is not listed in the directory he must contact the Minority Business Office to obtain a copy and submit with his bid, a Minority Business Identification Statement. The dollar amount obligated to a non-certified (City of Boston) minority business will not count towards the minority business percentage requirements.

II. Workforce Requirements:

During the performance of this contract, the general contractor shall agree and shall require its subcontractors agree to the following workforce requirements (labor).

1. Minority Workforce: The contractor and its subcontractors shall maintain a not less than 1 percent ratio of minority manhours to total employee manhours in each trade worked on the contract.

2. Female Workforce: The contractor and its subcontractors shall maintain a not less than 1 percent ratio of female employee manhours to total employee manhours in each trade worked on the contract.

The hours of minority and female employment and training must be substantially uniform throughout the length of the contract in each trade, and the contractor shall make a good-faith effort to employ minorities and women evenly on each of its contracts.

The transfer of minority or female employees or trainees from contractor to contractor or from contract to project for the sole purpose of meeting the contractor's goals shall be a violation of the contract, the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4. Compliance with the goals shall be measured against the total workhours performed.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the provisions of the contract documents, including the

th limitation, the notice to all bidders (including bidders), and the provisions with respect to insurance, equal employment opportunity, minimum wages, time of performance, liquidated damages, and the requirements set forth in the regulations on supplemental equal employment opportunity, anti-discrimination and affirmative program contract provisions, and to the requirements of mandatory compliance with section 504 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 and Executive Order 11246.

MAYOR INAUGURATES CAMPAIGN FOR CARING

Letter from Mayor Flynn to city employees.

Friend,

Last Sunday, I inaugurated the Mayor's Campaign for Caring, a drive to collect food, clothing, and funds for the hungry and the homeless. Now, we need your help to make the holiday season a little brighter for the needy people of this city.

The campaign will collect food and clothing for the hungry and the homeless in Boston. Additionally, we have set aside a $22,000 trust fund to provide new services for the homeless. We are asking businesses and organizations to provide matching grants to finance new and desperately needed programs.

The food and clothing will be collected at a special site on the third-floor plaza and at all Boston Community Schools. I am asking you to get involved by donating to the campaign.

We need:

WARM DURABLE CLOTHES such as coats, hats, sweaters, scarves, gloves.

NONPERISHABLE FOODS such as canned foods and instant soups.

Also, if you wish to volunteer to help publicize the campaign, call the Campaign for Caring Hotline at 725-3961

For many people, this Christmas Eve will be just another night to try to stay alive. Let's make our city and our city government an example of compassion for them.

My best wishes for a safe and happy holiday season.

Sincerely yours,

RAYMOND L. FLYNN,
Mayor of Boston.

BOSTON THANKS MOHAWK TRAIL REGION

For gift of tree to the city

Rosemarie Sansone, director of the Mayor's Office of Business and Cultural Development, joined Mayor John B. Barros of North Adams and representatives from the Mohawk Trail Region at City Hall Plaza where a thirty-five-foot Christmas tree was erected.

The eighteen and one half foot wide spruce was a gift from the Mohawk Trail Region, including the Mohawk Trail Association, Northern Berkshire Chamber of Commerce, the Williams Inn, and City of North Adams. The Mayor's Office of Business and Cultural Development coordinated the arrangements with the Mohawk Trail Region and various city departments.

The tree, the first ever to be set up on City Hall Plaza, is a native Massachusetts spruce, perfectly shaped. Arrangements for donation of the tree were coordinated by the Greater Boston Hotel and Motor Inn Association, Jim Pantelas, president. Moving and storage was provided by Mullen Mayflower and Storage Co. of Pittsfield. The Christmas tree will be located on City Hall Plaza next to Congress Street for maximum viewing from many vantage points.

Lighting will be installed by members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, Local 103, with Monday, December 10, the day of the official lighting ceremony.

Rosemarie Sansone said, "This beautiful tree is an example of the natural wonders of Massachusetts. The City of Boston is grateful and very pleased that the Mohawk Trail Region took the time and was so willing to give this gift to the people of Boston. In this holiday season, actions such as this speak for caring and compassion.

"Every day as people who work, visit, or shop here, walk by and see this magnificent tree," Ms. Sansone continued, "they will be reminded of our Campaign for Caring. I hope with this gift to the city, those who view this tree will see it as encouragement to donate clothing and nonperishable foods at our various centers throughout Boston. Together we can help those for whom the Christmas season is simply just a time to try and stay alive.

Mayor Flynn's Campaign for Caring, kicked off over the past weekend, will raise food, clothing, and funds for the city's neediest residents between Thanksgiving and Christmas, Rosemarie Sansone also mentioned the Mayor's Hunger and Homeless Emergency Hotline, 725-3961, that has been established. The city has also created a trust fund which will be used to match funds donated by businesses and other organizations.

CONSUMER SHOPPING RIGHTS

Diane Modica, commissioner of Boston's Consumer Affairs and Licensing Office, will be the host of a five-part consumer awareness project entitled, "Holiday Series on Consumer Shopping Rights," which will air throughout (Continued on next page)

Consumer Rights . . .

the holiday shopping season on Boston Cable Station 3 during the Neighborhood Network News broadcast at 5:30 and 9:00 p.m.

The first program, which aired on November 16, focused on the rights and responsibilities of consumers when dealing with merchant's return, refund and lay-a-way policies. The report featured Sandra Sucher, vice-president of Customer relations for Filene's Department Store and Warren Cohen, store manager of Marianne's Women's Clothing Store in Downtown Crossing. Both store representatives rendered useful explanations of their policies and offered advice to shoppers in addition to the consumer rights information presented by Commissioner Modica.

Beginning November 30 and through December 21, the "Holiday Series on Consumer Shopping Rights" will continue with Commissioner Modica reporting to the consumers on: Late Deliveries, Mail Orders and Rainchecks (Program II), Toy Safety (Program III), Holiday Decoration Safety (Program IV), and Consumer Credit Rights (Program V).

MAYOR FLYNN ANNOUNCES TB TESTING FOR CITY'S HOMELESS

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn announced that the city's Department of Health and Hospitals, in conjunction with the state's Department of Public Health will begin offering tuberculosis testing on its homeless residents as part of the city's Tuberculosis Control Program beginning on November 26, at the Pine Street Inn and the Long Island Shelter for the city's homeless, as well as at the Lemuel Shattuck Hospital.

Fifteen new cases of TB have been reported and eight cases are suspected among the city's homeless who are staying at the Pine Street Inn. Each guest at the three shelters will be offered a chest X-ray when they come into the shelter, and if symptoms exist, they will be treated. Once the disease is detected and treated, it is no longer contagious.

Mayor Flynn said "We know that our local shelters are seeing marked increases in the number of homeless seeking shelter. TB is a disease that strikes our most vulnerable citizens, those who live in overcrowded and poor housing, and those who through no fault of their own do not get proper nourishment. I believe we have an obligation to help those in need and I am satisfied we can meet this problem effectively."

TB skin tests will be offered as well and treatment will be on an outpatient basis. Those who may need hospitalization will be given care at Boston City Hospital. The cost of the testing will be paid by the state, the city will pay for the medication and necessary hospitalization.

"Providing health care to those who most desperately need it," said the Mayor, "is part of our Campaign for Caring, and it must extend beyond this holiday season. Our campaign, which we announced this weekend, will put our city at the forefront of cities across the country in providing and taking care of those who cannot take care of themselves. That, I believe, is what government is and should be all about."

JAMES MICHAEL CURLEY COMMEMORATION NOVEMBER 20, 1987 Statement of Mayor Raymond L. Flynn

James Michael Curley's legacy to Boston is summed up in the phrase most often used to describe him: "Mayor of the Poor."

James Michael never forgot the poor and hungry families who were left behind in the Roxbury neighborhood where he grew up. He remembered them in many ways, and chief among them was an expanded Boston City Hospital. In his autobiography, Curley wrote, "I have known what sickness, suffering, and hunger are, and not reading about them. It was this firsthand knowledge that prompted me to make Boston City Hospital what it is today."

BCH, and a Boston political tradition of caring and compassion, are the testaments to Curley's commitment.

We have kept alive that commitment to health care for the needy. I was privileged to see that fifteen cases of TB have been confirmed at Pine Street alone. It's outrageous to find TB cases

MAYOR OF BOSTON

MONDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1984

NO. 50

MAYOR FLYNN APPOINTS "HARBORPARK" COMMITTEE

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn has announced the appointment of a fifteen-member advisory committee which will work with the administration on various issues regarding the development of Boston's "Harborpark," a comprehensive plan for economic growth and public access along Boston's Harbor. The Harborpark was officially announced October 9th.

The advisory committee consists of representatives from each of the city's five front neighborhoods, as well as from government, labor, environment, and business.

Mayor Flynn said in making the appointments, "I am committed to public input in our planning and development decisions. With the help and advice of this advisory committee, the first of its kind, we can translate what has always been a distant dream of mine into a reality — a cohesive plan that links the waterfront to the 250,000 Boston residents who live within walking distance of the harbor. This broad-based committee," the Mayor added, "reflects the diversity of all the people who care about and are interested in the future of our waterfront. They face a great challenge. Over the next fifteen months, we will be rezoning the district that border the entire harbor. The advisory committee will be working closely with the BRA in formulating zoning and design guidelines compatible with the city's harbor development.

"I am confident," concluded the Mayor, "that the process this advisory committee is embarking upon with the city will result in a waterfront and a harbor that is for a city of people — people who live, work, and visit here — not just for buildings, hotels or private condominium complexes. All of us — the city, the business community, the labor, the A, the developers, and the residents — will be working to see that this harbor plan benefits us all."

The appointments followed the signing of the Mayor of the amendment to the zoning code, the first of its kind in the city, which allows the Boston Redevelopment Authority to establish planning districts. The provisions of the amendment authorize the Board of Aldermen (on advice from the BRA) to issue interim permits while an area is rezoned. The amendment thus allows that balanced growth and development can take place in a district while zoning and land use policies are formulated. The so-called Interim District amendment, which requires approval by the Zoning Commission on November 5, is the first step in developing Boston's Harborpark.

The members of the Harborpark Advisory Committee by Mayor Flynn are:

Neighborhood

- Fred Stefano: longtime member of the East Boston Land Use Advisory Council.

- Charles Johnson: Charlestown resident, Board of Directors of the John F. Kennedy Family Service Center.

- Emily Pugliano: grass roots community activist, founder of North End Neighborhood Task Force.

COMMUNITY SCHOOLS PROGRAM INNOVATION

Access to Community Education

Lawrence Dwyer, director, has announced the latest innovation in the Boston Community Schools Program's service to Boston's neighborhoods. Access to Community Education (ACE) will utilize Boston's cable television resources to serve families with much-needed educational programming. We will begin the ACE initiative on December 3 at 6 p.m., with three regularly scheduled series for children aged five through twelve. Programs can be seen on the Municipal Channel (A-43).

The Boston Community Schools Program is one of the largest alternative and supplemental education resources in the City of Boston. We provide Pre-school and After School Day Care, Youth Tutoring Programs, Adult Basic Education, English as a Second Language, External Diploma Programs, Continuing Education through local colleges and universities, vocational counseling and many support services for people in these programs. The Boston Community Schools Program provides services for every educational need and for every age group.

Our commitment to new and innovative educational resources has fostered an ongoing interest in the use of cable television. The Boston Community Schools Program has been a leader in the development of cable as a local educational tool, as a public relations tool, and as a vehicle for community empowerment. Access to Community Education is just one step in our overall plans to use cable to enhance our already successful service to the residents of Boston. If you have any questions about ACE or other Community School programs, please don't hesitate to call Lawrence Dwyer, director, or Jules Slavet, supervisor of Planning and Development at 725-4920.

- Alpha-numeric program announcements on the Municipal Channel, Neighborhood Network Educational Channel;
- City-wide distribution of flyers that include the entire sixteen-week schedule of programs.

• Press releases mailed to two to five neighborhood newspapers, plus service announcements sent to local television and radio stations.

The Boston Community Schools Program will cablecast these programs on Boston's Municipal Channel (A-43). This will be the first effort by a city department to provide a specific consistency with programming via the Municipal Channel.

The Boston Community Schools Program will expand the ACE Project to provide additional educational programs targeted to the children, teens and adults who utilize Community Schools Programs. Other topics will include: Health and Guidance, Career Education, and special events for the whole family.

UNITED WAY TOPS $35 MILLION GOAL

The United Way of Massachusetts Bay has completed its 1984 fundraising drive with a record $35,236,864, a 10 percent increase and $3,207,000 additional over last year. This marks consecutive year that the United Way has topped its goal.

General Campaign Chairman John Turley, president of the Gillette Company, told 1,300 volunteers at the Statton-Boston Hotel on November 17 that the United Way has enjoyed double-digit percentage increases four years in a row.

In eight years, we have more than doubled our fund-raising results in east-Massachusetts, placing us in the front of major United Ways all across the country," said Chairman Turley. "We have established a winning tradition, and that is a tribute to the thousands of local volunteers and donors who care so much about their neighbors and the welfare of the whole community."

Turley said that this year more than one million people will be helped by 33 United Way health and human service agencies in Boston and eighty-surrounding communities.

Leading the way for the United Way year were the following fund-raising efforts that raised more than $1 million: General Electric Employee Good Neighbor Funds, $1,380,000; New England Telephone, $1,097,766; Raytheon Company, $1,336,164; Bank of Boston, $1,009,37; and the Combined Fundraising Campaign, where federal employees and members of the Armed Forces contributed $1,117,546.

Also singled out at the United Way's Annual Dinner were "outstanding" employee drives completed at: Blue Cross of Massachusetts, 63 percent increase over last year; Fidelity, 56 percent increase; IBM Corporation, 12 percent increase; The Boston Herald, 79 percent increase; Stone and Webster Engineering Corporation, $1,000 raised; Boston Edison, 14 percent increase; John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company, $461,000 raised; New England Mutual Life Insurance Company, 15 percent increase; Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, $1,000 raised; Boston Gas Company, $1,800 raised; Houghton Mifflin Company, 17 percent increase; State Bank and Trust Company, 14 percent increase; The Boston Globe, $1,000 raised; Polaroid Corporation, $1,000 raised; and Liberty Mutual Insurance Company, 14 percent increase.

Next month, United Way allocations volunteers will decide how best to distribute the funds raised among member agencies. Of every dollar contributed to the United Way, 88 cents goes to these agencies to help people in need.

Hosting the Final Dinner were Loren Owens and Wally Brine of WVBF Radio.

POLICE NEIGHBORHOOD FOOT PATROLS CONTINUE

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn, after having a meeting with Police Commissioner Joseph M. Jordan, announced that the police will continue neighborhood foot patrols in the city. The Mayor said the officers on the patrols will continue to receive overtime pay until two new classes of police officers, totaling 100 new officers, are added to the department.

The first class will enter the training academy in February and the second will enter in June. The department is budgeted for 1,901 uniformed positions, but carries only 1,789 officers now.

"We need these new officers to effectively protect the people who live in this city and the hundreds of thousands more who visit to shop and work here each day. We are trying to provide these services within an extremely limited city budget, compounded by inherited deficits. We will need alternative revenue sources to provide these services in the long term."

The Mayor said, "Since July, I have been meeting with a wide spectrum of academics, community leaders, business people, and law enforcement officials to gather information on which policing techniques will work best for Boston. In each and every meeting there has been consensus on one issue: the police must be known and seen in the community in order to prevent and effectively investigate crime.

"Families and businesses in our neighborhoods have a right to security and city government has a duty to provide it.

"One of the best ways for police to overcome their alienation from the community is the use of the foot patrolman or teams of patrolmen. Their presence on the street lends a feeling of security to neighborhood business people, encouraging them to stay in and expand in local commercial areas."

MAYOR FLYNN APPOINTS WOMEN'S COMMISSION

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn has announced his appointment of the Women's Commission at a formal press conference at the Parkman House.

Mayor Flynn said in appointing the fourteen-member commission, "I am very proud to make this announcement. I am committed and my administration is committed to dealing with the concerns of women at home and at work. This commission's task will be to make programming and policy recommendations on issues such as child care, job training, public safety, and housing discrimination.

"It is also a commission that represents the diversity of the women in our city, geographically, ethnically, economically, professionally, and in terms of their interests."

The Mayor's Women's Commission is comprised of fourteen women with the Mayor's Advisor on Women's Issues, Alana Murphy, serving as an ex-officio member. Although the first round of appointments are staggered in one-, two-, and three-year terms, subsequent members will all serve for three years.

The commission's first tasks will be to set an agenda of issues and to define its priorities from a wide range of concerns dealing with the social and economic status of women throughout the city.

The commission will also work to see that women are hired at all levels of city government and will work with departments to increase outreach to women to make the City of Boston a model employer.

"The fourteen members of the Commission all have records of achievement in neighborhood, professional and community activities. I am confident that they will represent the concerns of all women in Boston," said Mayor Flynn.

The 14 members are:

ABCD'S ANNUAL TOY DRIVE

Christmas will be a joyous occasion for thousands of low-income Bostonians, thanks to the Action for Boston Community Development (ABCD) Toy Drive, and the dedicated work of the ABCD/Channel 5 (Metromedia) and the First American Bank for Savings.

Each year ABCD, Boston's largest, neighborhood-based human services agency, co-sponsors two toy drives — one with WCVB/Channel 5 and another with the First American Bank — in an effort to make the holidays brighter for Boston's poor. Also, for many years, WCVB/Channel 5 has generously matched all toys delivered on Christmas morning.

According to Donna Gittens, vice-president of Community Programming, Channel 5, "The toy drive is a Channel 5 tradition which the staff looks forward to each year. We are delighted to have the opportunity to work with ABCD and to meet the needs of Boston's low-income community."

Christmas can be a sad occasion for a child who receives no toys for Christmas and for parents who can't afford to buy toys, said ABCD Executive Director M. Coard. "As Boston's official poverty agency, ABCD operates toy drives to ensure that disadvantaged children and their families have a merry holiday."

First American Bank President, Ronald Lee, emphasized that bank employees welcome this opportunity to help Boston's poor. "The toy drive has had the enthusiastic support of our employees and customers for several years. Christmas is the time to be grateful for what we have and to share our blessings with those less fortunate," he said.

ABCD is now accepting contributions for the 1984 Toy Drives. Help make a child happy at Christmas time by giving a new, unwrapped toy for a child up to age twelve. Toys for the ABCD/Channel 5 Toy Drive, can be brought to the following collection points: The Channel 5 studios at 5 TV Place in Needham and to the ABCD headquarters at 178 Tremont Street, Boston.

Toys for the ABCD/First American Bank Toy Drive, can be dropped off at any of the First American Bank for Savings offices: 80 Arch Street, and 510 Boylston Street, Boston; 572 Columbia Road, 569 Washington Street, and 731 Morrissey Boulevard, Dorchester; 1625 Blue Hill Avenue, Mattapan; 77 Granite Street, Quincy; 700 American Legion Highway, Roslindale; and 438 Washington Street, Stoughton.

For further information about either of the ABCD Toy Drives, please call 357-6000, extension 286.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without advertising, based on the following communications:

Policy Research Activities, etc.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your permission to award a contract, without advertising, to the University of Massachusetts at Boston, in an amount not to exceed $30,000, which in my opinion is reasonable.

Under the terms of this contract, the university, acting through the Boston Urban Observatory (BUO), will continue to provide services as lead university and administrative agent for the Boston area consortium of universities and colleges that participate in BUO activities. In fact, 1983-84 will mark the fifteenth consecutive year for this unusual partnership between the city and the university community to address the policy research and formulation needs of the City of Boston with the rich resources of Boston's academic institutions.

The BUO continued during the past year to demonstrate its immeasurable value to the city and its high degree of cost effectiveness.

Under the terms of this contract, the BUO will continue to work with appropriate city officials in monitoring steps being taken to resolve the State Department's fiscal and budgetary problems, carry out other policy research activities as specifically directed by the executive secretary of the Administrative Services Board. Projects identified for proposed development and implementation are financed from other specifically designated sources for such research.

As no benefit will accrue to the city by public advertising for this unique service, I ask your permission to award this contract for the period 1983, through June 30, 1984, without advertising.

Very truly yours,

Dennis J. Morgan
Executive Secretary

Purchasing Division

Medical Journal Subscriptions

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and award a contract to Ebsco Subscription Services, Ebsco Inc., New Jersey, in an amount not to exceed $20,000, for the furnishing of medical journal subscriptions for 1984, to Boston City Hospital.

It is most important that these journals be furnished in an uninterrupted manner as they contain vital and timely information for the physician in regard to the care of the patients.

As Ebsco Subscription is the sole source of supply for these journals, which consist of United States and foreign publications, it is therefore my opinion that no useful purpose would be served by public advertising.

Authority is requested to award a contract without advertising, to Ebsco Subscription Services, New Jersey, in the amount of $20,000, net, and consider reasonable.

Respectfully your,

Frank P. Chiari
Purchasing Agent

Machines Maintenance

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On July 1, 1982, a contract was awarded to Sperry Univac for the maintenance of verifying punch machines for the Assessing Department. Your permission

The Purchasing Division has received a request from the Assessing Department to continue this maintenance contract during fiscal year 1984. Because the Assessing Department and I believe that the manufacturer, Sperry Univac, is the qualified company to maintain this equipment, in my opinion that there would be no advantage to the city in publicly advertising for this service.

This request is being made at this late date as there was a question as to the length of time the maintenance was necessary.

Your permission is requested, therefore, to award a contract, without public advertising, to Sperry Univac, Wellesley, in the amount not to exceed $194 per month, net, a cost I consider reasonable. The period of the contract will be July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984.

The equipment to be maintained and maintained costs are as follows: two key punch machines at $194 per month.

Respectfully yours,

Frank F. Chiari
Purchasing Agent

t 5392 with Abbott Rental to lease ten medians from July 1, 1983, to October 31, at $5,400 per month.

ne of 1983, we awarded a contract to Abbott for a period of June 1, 1983, to June 30, which also included an option to renew at the rate.

A request is being made at this late date before the Public Works Department had some time to the amount of vehicles they would need. Before, permission is requested to dispense public advertising and award a contract to Abnental, Waltham, in the amount of $21,600, but I consider reasonable.

Respectfully yours,
Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

Motorola Radio Parts

Mayor:
Purchasing Division has received requisition from the Police and Fire Departments for the buying of Motorola replacement parts, which are used in Motorola radio equipment owned by the departments, to be delivered as requested by June 30, 1984. These departments are requesting only Motorola parts because past experience using other manufacturers has been satisfactory.

Since Motorola is the manufacturing of these replacement parts and is the sole supplier, it is my opinion that no useful purpose would be served by advertising for prices, and that the best in the city would be served by awarding a contract to Motorola Inc., subject to the following terms: all item pricing shall be determined from Motorola's official price book of parts, kits, accessories, component parts, and test equipment, dated 1982, and any addendums issued during the term of the contract. Above-mentioned departments may take 20 percent off the all "user price" listed in this book with the exception of test equipment which shall be 5 percent off user price. Accordingly, your permission is requested to award a contract, without advertising, to Motorola of Burlington, in the amount not to exceed $100 net, a cost I consider reasonable.

Respectfully yours,
Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

CHARITY SOFTBALL GAME PROCEEDS TO BOSTON SHELTERS

Archbishop Bernard F. Law, Mayor Raymond L. Flynn, Robert Guiney, Chairman of the Boston Police Patrolman's Association, and Donald Murray, Vice-Chairman of the Boston Police Patrolman's Association presented the $9,200 proceeds of the Charity Softball Game for the Homeless to representatives of five Boston shelters. The game was played on Wednesday, August 29, 1984, at Town Field in the South End section of Dorchester and involved a team composed of Clergy of the Diocese of Boston opposing a team of Boston Police Officers.

The idea for the game was developed at a Junior Olympics Day co-sponsored by Flynn and the Boston Police Patrolman's Association at Carson Beach in Boston early in the summer. The planning of the game was undertaken by Flynn and his staff, by the leadership of the Patrolman's Association, by William Francis, Boston Police Chaplain, and by Rev. Thomas McDonell, pastor of St. Augustine's Parish in South Boston.

During the presentations Archbishop Law said, "I am delighted to be able to present these checks to the five shelters that have done so much to assist the indigent and the homeless of Boston. I also feel that the involvement of the priests and seminarians of the Archdiocese in this project testifies to the Church's continuing commitment to all the poor of the region who are the victims of domestic violence. At present, it encompasses two houses, a safe home network, counseling services, a community education program, and a follow-up program.

Day is Done was founded in the summer of 1984. It is a drop-in center for homeless women. It provides shelter, coffee, and snacks.

Haley House was established in 1971 as a shelter for the homeless men of the city. It provides food, shelter, medical attention, and counseling. It is a Catholic Worker House.

St. Francis House opened its doors in February, 1984. It is an outgrowth of the Franciscans' breadline at the Arch Street Shrine. It is a day center with counseling services, a referral program, a soup kitchen which serves hot lunches, and daily distribution of clothing.

Sojourner House was founded in January, 1981, in the basement of the rectory of St. Joseph's Parish in Roxbury. It is a free residential shelter for homeless families that are in transition to permanent housing. It can accommodate four families and it provides counseling and referral services for the search of housing.

Also at the presentation ceremony at the Archbishop's residence in Brighton were representatives of WROR which handled publicity for the game and also broadcast it.

POLICE DEPARTMENT SENIOR CITIZEN RESPONSE TEAM

The Boston Police Department is beginning to field a special team of ten officers under the command of Sergeant James Ellsworth to work exclusively with the senior citizens of the City of Boston to ensure their safety.

The new patrols will emanate from the Special Operations Division under the command of Superintendent Martin Mulhern and will augment regular district patrols by devoting full time to the elderly housing areas, as well as to those areas frequented by senior citizens.

The new patrols will also work closely with Commissioner Michael Taylor of the city's Elderly Affairs Department. They will also work with community leaders to identify areas of particular concern in each neighborhood.

The Response Team will also be specifically responsible for monitoring the homes of the elderly and advising them on safety precautions. Each team member will regularly schedule crime prevention meetings with senior citizen groups in the assigned area of patrol.

In making the announcement the Commissioner said, "I have always felt that the senior citizens in our neighborhoods have earned the right to feel safe and secure within their own homes and their own neighborhoods, I believe that this new squad will go a long way to dealing with the problems experienced by senior citizens especially with local youths who view the elderly as easy marks."

The department is establishing a special phone number for senior citizens to call if they had a problem or if they wanted to get in touch with the Senior Response Team. In times of emergency, 911 should always be the first number called. The new number for seniors is: 247-4355.

Crime Prevention for the Elderly

Purse Snatching—Public and Senior Citizen Transportation to shopping areas.

Armed Robbery—Travel in pairs. Have checks sent directly to bank. Uniformed Police presence at banks.

Vandalism—Training Programs.

Bunco—Educate elderly on schemes used.

Purse Snatches—Do not carry purse while shopping. Carry purse upside down and drop contents on the ground. Sit down before being knocked down. Blow a whistle. Keep purse straps wrapped around cart handle while shopping. Keep wallet and keys in pockets.

Burglaries—Keep doors and windows locked when out of house. Keep windows jam-locked when in.

Obscene Phone Calls—Whistle in caller's ear. Report it to telephone company.

Robberies—Carry phony wallet with a small amount of money. Do not argue—call for help. Develop a plan.

Crimes against the elderly are not as common as the elderly think, but the elderly are especially susceptible to fraud.

UNITED WAY SAYS THANKS

Thanks to the generosity of thousands of local residents and the support of the local media, the United Way of Massachusetts Bay has completed its most successful fund-raising drive ever. We topped our goal for the third year in a row, raising $35,236,864 for a 10 percent increase over 1983.

The United Way Central Region (twenty-one communities in the Boston area) also topped its area goal, raising $1,052,833 to support many United Way agencies serving local residents.

A rate of $8 per inch of 12 lines (set solid) has been established for such advertisements as under the law must be printed in the City Record. Advertising and other copy must, except in emergencies, be in hand at the City Record office by noon, Monday of each week to insure its publication in the following Monday's issue.

These record-breaking results are very gratifying because they come at a time when the demand for health and human services is rapidly increasing. More people than ever are seeking food, shelter, day care, home care, alcohol and drug counseling, family counseling — and many other services that couldn't do without United Way funds.

More than one million people in eastern Massachusetts — one out of five — will be touched by United Way this coming year. That includes family and friends — and often ourselves.

The success of this campaign makes all of us winners because the quality of life in our community will improve, the delivery of health and human services improves. Thanks to you it does for all of us.

T CONTRACT FOR GREEN LINE RECONSTRUCTION

The MBTA Board of Directors has voted to authorize an $8.7-million contract with the J. F. White Contracting Co. to replace Green Line tracks in the Central Subway from North Station to South Station.

"This contract to rebuild the Central section of the Boston subway system will greatly improve the quality and reliability of Green Line service," MBTA General Manager James O'Leary.

The work in the Central Subway includes replacement of track, ties, rails, cables, signals and switchgear, slated to begin next February and to last 18 months.

O'Leary said the reconstruction work will be carried out between 9:30 p.m. and 5 a.m. weekdays and on select weekends to minimize disruption to Green Line riders. Alternative service will be provided when necessary during hours of construction.

"J. F. White is experienced in heavy construction work on the MBTA, has been the contractor on the reconstruction of the track on the Commonwealth Avenue line, the Red Line between Andrew Portal and Ashmont and the Blue Line between Airport Station and Wonderland," said O'Leary.

MHFA FINANCING FOR APARTMENT COMPLEXES

assisted through New State Subsidy Program.

Massachusetts Housing Finance Agency (MHFA) announced it will provide $49.5 million in financing for the development of ten apartment complexes, containing 995 units, in nine Massachusetts communities. Nine of the apartment complexes are among the first financed in conjunction with the State Housing Assistance for Production, a new, state-interest subsidy program.

Executive Director Marvin Grogan said, "The SHARP program is an important state initiative to stimulate income rental housing production at a time when available federal resources are limited, programs such as SHARP are critical in addressing the state's growing housing need. The SHARP-assisted apartment complexes will be located in Belmont, with the remaining seven in Boston, Canton, Fall River, Greenfield, New Bedford, and Springfield. Fifteen percent of the units in each complex will be made available to low-income tenants.

The development for which financing was announced is a twenty-unit housing cooperative on the city street.

The apartment complexes are financed by the MHFA from funds received on the November 1 sale of tax-exempt bonds to private investors.

In addition to MHFA low-interest financing, the housing complexes are receiving $2.4 million in interest-subsidy through SHARP to help reduce development costs. Further cost reductions for three of these housing complexes will be made possible by the inclusion in federal housing or urban development action grants.

The SHARP program, authorized by the legislature in December 1983, is providing $5 million annually to stimulate the production of mixed-income housing by private developers and nonprofit community sponsors.

For prompt implementation of the program, the MHFA has enabled the state to award an interest subsidy, in August 1984, to three housing development projects representing 1,873 units. Since that time, the MHFA has sold bonds to finance twelve of these developments; the remaining developments will be funded through MHFA bond sales.

NEW CONSTRUCTION INITIATIVE PROPOSALS

The Boston Neighborhood Development and Employment Agency (NDEA) has announced that funds are available through the New Construction Initiative for the construction of housing on vacant lots in NDEA/Housing Division target neighborhoods.

"The goal of this initiative," says NDEA Director Paul Grogan, "is to provide new housing for resident families at a time when most have been priced out of the market. One of the ways that we can do this is to foster local expertise in new housing construction using either manufactured housing or conventional techniques." Director Grogan also noted that the initiative will encourage the productive use of vacant lots which will not only improve the quality of the neighborhoods, but return valuable land to the city's tax rolls.

Funds for the New Construction Initiative will be awarded on a competitive basis to nonprofit developers for a portion of the development costs. Developers must demonstrate that their project is economically feasible, can be implemented in a timely fashion, has the support of the surrounding community and offers significant cost savings in both the development and operation of moderate-income housing. Additionally, all projects must contain at least eight housing units.

Target neighborhoods for the program are: Roxbury, Franklin Field, Mattapan, Allston-Brighton, Jamaica Plain, Roslindale, Dorchester, and Hyde Park. Both privately held properties and some city-owned vacant lots within these neighborhoods are eligible building sites.

Applications for the New Construction Initiative are now available and may be obtained by contacting Edward Daly at the NDEA/Housing Division, 26 West Street, Boston, MA 02111, or by calling 725-3179 or 3180. A bidder's conference on the New Construction Initiative will be held at 2 p.m. on Monday, December 17, 1984, on the sixth floor, 26

West Street. All interested bidders are encouraged to attend. Preliminary applications for funding are due January 18, 1985, no later than 5 p.m.

Notice

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the City of Boston Supplemental Minority Participation and Resident Section contract provision of the specifications for and the obligations of the contractor and subcontractor to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices in the performance of this contract.

Attention to All Bidders

I. Minority Business Requirements:

No bid for the award of this project will be considered acceptable unless the general contractor complies fully with the following requirements for minority business enterprise utilization.

Pursuant to the Supplemental Minority Participation section of this contract, the general contractor must give satisfactory assurance that at least 10 percent of his bid price shall be expended for minority business enterprise, if the bid is over $10,000. For the purpose of this paragraph, the term minority business enterprise means a business in which at least 51 percent of the beneficial ownership and control is held by one or more minority persons (Black, Hispanic, Asian-American, or American Indian).

Each general contractor must complete, sign, and file with his bid the Minority Business Utilization Form. The Minority Business Utilization Form shall be completed and signed by the minority business enterprise and the general contractor. Failure to submit a Minority Business Utilization Form with the bid proposal will result in the rejection of the bid.

The City of Boston Minority Business Directory lists all minority-owned businesses that have been certified as such by the City of Boston. A copy of this directory can be obtained from the Awarding Authority or the Minority Business Office, 15 Beacon Street, fifth floor, Boston, MA 02108, telephone number 720-4300. If a contractor wishes to use a minority business that is not listed in the directory he must contact the Minority Business Office to obtain a copy and submit with his bid, a Minority Business

Identification Statement. The dollar amount obligated to a non-certified (City of Boston) minority business will not count towards the minority business percentage requirements.

II. Workforce Requirements:

During the performance of this contract, the general contractor shall agree and shall require that his subcontractors agree to the following workforce requirements (labor).

1. Minority Workforce: The contractor and its subcontractors shall maintain a not less than 25 percent ratio of minority manhours to total employee manhours in each trade worked on the contract.

2. Female Workforce: The contractor and its subcontractors shall maintain a not less than 10 percent ratio of female employee manhours to total employee manhours in each trade worked on the contract.

3. Boston Residents: The contractor and its subcontractors shall maintain a not less than 50 percent ratio of Boston resident employee manhours to total employee manhours in each trade worked on the contract.

4. The workforce requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) above shall apply to each trade that appears on the list of "Classification and Minimum Wage Rates" as determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries under the provisions of chapter 149, sections 26 through 27G, of the General Laws of Massachusetts, as amended. If you have any questions pertaining to the applicability of these requirements, please call the Compliance Office at 720-4300.

NOTICE OF REQUIREMENT FOR AFFIRMATIVE ACTION TO ENSURE EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY (EXECUTIVE ORDER 11246).

The contractor's attention is called to the "Equal Opportunity Clause" and "Standard Federal Equal Opportunity Construction Contract Specifications" set forth in this part.

The goals and timetables for minority and female participation are expressed in percentage terms for the contractor's aggregate workforce in each trade on all construction work in the covered areas. (See pages EEO-1 and EEO-2 of the bid specifications for goals and timetables.)

These goals are applicable to all the contractor's construction work (whether or not it is federal or federally assisted) performed in the covered areas.

As used in the notice, and in the contract, the covered area is Arlington, Boston, Belmont, Brookline, Burlington, Cambridge, Canton, Chelsea, Dedham, Everett, Malden, Medford, Melrose, Milton, Norwood, Reading, Revere, Somerville, Stoneham, Wakefield, Westwood, Winthrop, Winchester, Woburn, and the Islands of Boston Harbor, Massachusetts.

The contractor's compliance with the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4 shall be based on its implementation of the Equal Opportunity Clause, specific affirmative action obligations required to meet the goals established for the geographical area where the contract is to be performed.

The hours of minority and female employment and training must be substantially uniform throughout the length of the contract in each trade, and the contractor shall make a good-faith effort to employ minorities and women evenly on each of its projects.

The transfer of minority or female employees or trainees from contractor to contractor or from project to project for the sole purpose of meeting the contractor's goals shall be a violation of the contract, the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4. Compliance with the goals will be measured against the total workhours performed.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the provisions of the contract documents, including, with limitation, the notice to all bidders (including subbidders), and the provisions with respect to bonds, insurance, equal employment opportunity, minimum wages, time of performance, liquidated damages, and the requirements set forth in the specifications on supplemental equal employment opportunity, anti-discrimination and affirmative action program contract provisions, and to the requirements of mandatory compliance with section 3 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 and Executive Order 11246.

MAYOR FLYNN LAUNCHES ANTI-DRUG ABUSE CAMPAIGN

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn recently announced a broad-based program to combat drug abuse. The program is designed to combat and correct, not only the obvious consequences of substance abuse, but to prevent through education and counseling the corruption of the most susceptible and most vulnerable element of our society, which is our youth. The Mayor said "by any standard of measurement, drug abuse has reached crisis proportions. The effects of this scourge touch us all and make our unyielding commitment to drug prevention and drug treatment a moral imperative and economic necessity. I look forward to working with Governor Dukakis on this critical issue."

The Coordinating Council on Drug Abuse will bring together parents, educators, health officials, law enforcement personnel, and community people to develop and monitor a multi-faceted approach to the problem. Ben Thompson, penal commissioner for the City of Boston, and chairman of the Coordinating Council, stated "We must assess the city's needs, available resources, and possible solutions in order to achieve effective and comprehensive results. We will be concerned with methods of more effectively enforcing existing criminal statutes concerned with drug and alcohol use and abuse; and where necessary we will make recommendations for additional or revised legislation."

The appointment of Derek Sanderson, to work in conjunction with the schools and the Mayor's Office, will aid in dealing with substance abuse in a direct fashion. Other professional athletes on hand pledged to become directly involved in assisting Mr. Sanderson. The former Bruin great remarked "I am painfully aware of the tragic effects of substance abuse. The opportunity to work with Boston's youth on this critical issue is a privilege and responsibility that I accept with a deep conviction that something can and will be done."

Coordinating Council On Drug Abuse

Nathaniel Hakim Askia, director, First Inc.; Vivian Carlo, member of Alcohol Advisory Board of Women, Inc.; Lawrence Dwyer, director of Community Schools; Frank Jones, executive director, Boston Committee; Pearlis Jones, assistant chief probation officer, Trial Court, Dorchester Division; Joseph Jordan, police commissioner; Joseph Mulligan, corporation counsel; Lewis Pollack, commissioner of Health and Hospitals; Frederick W. Riley, chief of the Criminal Bureau, Attorney General's Office; Robert Spillane, superintendent of schools; Benjamin Thompson, penal commissioner; Bill Walsh, chief of Suffolk County District Attorney's Drug Office; William F. Weld, U.S. attorney; and Susan Whitehead, parent, Boston Public Schools, School Site Council.

MAYOR FLYNN LAUDS EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM FOR PROFESSIONAL ATHLETES

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn has applauded Northeastern University's Degree Completion Program for former and present professional athletes. Mayor Flynn was among those invited to the Mackey School for a press conference and ceremony marking the first session of the public school aspect of the program. The significance of the concept, according to Richard Lapchick, director of the Center of the study of Sport in Society, is to bring to athletes, "the message of the importance of balancing education with pursuing the sports dream."

To date fourteen New England Patriots have enrolled in the pilot program, and several members of the Boston Bruins are prepared to join. Commenting on the program, Mayor Flynn said, "As an all-American basketball player at Providence College, I harbored inside of me the dream that many athletes, male and female, urban and suburban alike, share with their teammates and opponents, the money, fame and glory of a professional athlete." He went on to state, "It is by their example that young athletes in Boston will come to understand that there is life beyond professional sports and an education is needed to function and succeed in it."

Mayor Flynn was joined at the press conference by ABC Commentator, Howard Cosell, Boston School Superintendent Robert Spillane, members of the New England Patriots and Boston Bruins and Tom "Satch" Sanders, associate director of the Northeastern University Degree Completion Program.

CITY HALL DAYS KICKS OFF IN BOSTON

The climax to a day-long celebration of the holiday season at Boston City Hall on Monday, December 10, will be the lighting of a three-story Christmas tree by Mayor Raymond L. Flynn.

In keeping with the "New Season in Boston," City Hall lobby was transformed into a Christmas setting, featuring unique, life-sized fabric ornaments created by local environmental designer Michael Roy Layne. "City Hall Days" includes a number of special events, from breakdancing in the indoor plaza to Christmas music sung by the Boston Latin School Choir.

City Hall days was made possible by generous donations from the private sector, including contributions from the City of Boston, AT and T, Strawberry Fields, and Tapes, Merrill Lynch, and Channel. Wiring for the 35-foot Christmas tree was done free of charge by members of IBEW Local 103. All of the funds was used to purchase Christmas trees to decorate the squares of Charlestown, Roxbury, and South Boston.

1985 FIRST NIGHT A NIGHT OF FIRSTS

It will be another first for First Night when the Boston Philharmonic conducted by Benjamin Zander, performs Beethoven's Ninth Symphony at the Opera House during this year's New Year's celebration of the arts. First Night, staged annually on December 31, transforms Boston for one day into a theater without walls, attracting an audience of some 200,000 from the New England region and beyond. First Night turns a city-wide spotlight on music, dance, theater, mime, art, poetry, film and video, and environmental works, a Grand procession, a Children's Festival and more. The Philharmonic is only one of over 200 performing groups participating in First Night's 185 indoor programs.

In another first for First Night, events this year are free with the purchase of a $4 First Night button. There will be no special ticketed events for years past.

In Memoriam

William (Bill) Mendes of 286 Roxbury Street, Roxbury, passed away Saturday, December 8, 1984. Funeral services were held December 10 at Concord Baptist Church, Roxbury. Bill Mendes was a very special person, who in his quiet, unobtrusive manner performed herculean tasks for his community and friends. He was a graduate of the University of Massachusetts.

Bill began working for the City of Boston in 1969 and worked for the Boston Redevelopment Authority up to his death. During that period of time he worked in the capacity of Deputy Manager, Assistant Project Coordinator and Project Coordinator, coordinating all phases of implementation of development projects. Bill attended numerous meetings in the community, particularly in the South End and Roxbury. He performed the role of liaison between the Authority and the neighborhood. Bill was not a person who worked from 9 to 5; he would spend many hours above and beyond the normal work day. When he was not working at the BRA he was either working for a political cause or as a candidate, or a community organization. The associations he belonged to took an active part, ranging from the local N.A.A.C.P., to the Ward 9 Democratic Committee chairperson, to a delegate at the State Convention. Bill was recently elected President of the Madison Park Community Council. From 1947-1969 he was the union president for the affiliated CIO, and prior to his working at the BRA he was a partner in the Huron Market Company. He also served in the United States Merchant Marine.

Bill was well loved by all the people he came in contact with and his passing was truly a loss to the many young people that he helped and the community residents. But his memory will not be forgotten. The Madison Park Community School has established a scholarship fund and all inquiries should be directed to Ms. Shirley Billings, 55 New Dudley Street, Boston, 02219.

DORCHESTER ROAD MADE ONE WAY

Traffic Commissioner Lisa Chapnick announces that Kenmare Road in Dorchester was made one way from Ely Road to Gallivan Boulevard on December 11, 1984, for a trial period of 60 days. This change is the result of a petition from ninety homeowners and residents in the area and traffic observations that confirmed the practicality of the request. The petition had the support of City Councillor James Byrne.

The change will reduce the number of motorists using the street as a short cut and will make the area more liveable.

YOU'RE INVITED!

Mayor Flynn cordially invites you to attend the City Employees' City Hall-days Ball, Saturday, December 29, 1984, 8:00 p.m., Boston City Hall. All proceeds go to Campaign for Caring. For reservations call 725-3955, $10 per person.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without advertising, based on the following communications:

FIRE DEPARTMENT Ladder Company Repairs

Dear Sir:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award to Woodward Spring Shop, Inc., the task of performing certain repairs to Ladder 16: Install and refinish cabinets on trailer.

The cost of the work described above is $3,180, which will be paid pursuant to the city's existing contract with this firm, contract 3366-83 for repetitive services for the fiscal year 1983. This contract requires the Mayor's approval for any single repair of $2,000 or more.

In my opinion, the contractor is qualified to do this work therein described, inasmuch as Woodward's Spring Shop, Inc. is thoroughly familiar with all types of work on said equipment. The price quoted for the work is reasonable and it does not appear that any lower price could be obtained by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
George H. Paul,
Fire Commissioner/Chief.

Legal Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to the law office of Ballard, Sphar, Andrews and Ingersoll, Philadelphia.

This representation is needed to assist the Boston Fire Department in the return of two water towers (fire equipment) which are unique in character and expensive in value. Legal action has to be taken in Pennsylvania and by a Pennsylvania firm because of state regulations.

Ballard, Sphar, Andrews and Ingersoll is a highly regarded law firm and offer expertise in this particular field. Compensation under the terms of this contract shall not exceed $7,500, which I have determined to be reasonable for the work to be performed.

The term of the contract shall be from July 1, 1983, to June 30, 1984.

Due to the professional nature of these services, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully submitted,
George H. Paul,
Fire Commissioner/Chief.

HEALTH AND HOSPITALS DEPARTMENT Rheumatology Tests

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to Trustees of Boston University, acting by and through the Arthritis and Connective Tissue Disease Section of the Boston University School of Medicine for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $38,000.

Under this contract, the Arthritis and Connective Tissue Disease Section will conduct all the rheumatology diagnostic testing services for patients at Boston City Hospital. The expense the hospital would incur by sending the specimens to an outside professional laboratory to be performed on a charge per-test basis would exceed the flat fee cost the above vendor is charging to perform all the rheumatology tests required by the hospital.

Therefore, because the Arthritis and Connective Tissue Disease Section is particularly qualified to perform the needed tests and also because the cost is reasonable, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Neurology Services

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to Boston Neurology Associates, Inc., a professional corporation with principal offices located at Boston City Hospital, for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $36,236.

Under this contract, Boston Neurology Associates, Inc. shall provide a qualified, part-time physician to render clinical services in the Neuro 2 Unit at Boston City Hospital. This physician makes daily visits to the unit to handle any neurological problems and is the on-call neurologist for the unit on a twenty-four-hour basis, which is required by state law. The physician's services are reimbursed on a flat fee basis rather than an hourly rate. The aforementioned physician will serve under the department. The individual assignment to the position will be made by Boston Neurology Associates with the approval of the department.

Because of the special fitness of Boston Neurology Associates, Inc. to provide these services, because of the personal and professional nature of the services to be provided, and as the cost, in my opinion, is reasonable, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Wheelchair Repairs, etc.

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to First Medical, Incorporated, 1032 Commonwealth Avenue, for the period September 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $5,500.

Under this contract, First Medical, Incorporated will repair and refurbish wheelchairs and stretchers at Boston City Hospital. First Medical, Incorporated is the only vendor willing to refurbish this equipment. They will make parts necessary to the operation of the wheelchairs and stretchers when needed — no other vendor will provide this service. Purchasing new wheelchairs and stretchers is an expense the hospital is not able to incur at this time. This contract will enable the hospital to make the best possible use of the available equipment.

Therefore, because of the above and because the cost, in my opinion is reasonable, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

If a contractor wishes to use a minority business that is not listed in the directory he must contact the Minority Business Office to obtain a copy and submit with his bid, a Minority Business Identification Statement. NO. 53

SCHOOLS AND TRADE UNIONS SIGN AGREEMENT

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn announced the signing of the Boston Trade Union Compact between Boston area trade unions and the Boston Public Schools. The compact sets forth in this mutual agreement call for improved educational programs for Boston Public School students and increased access to apprenticeship programs for qualified graduates. This agreement is the result of eight months of negotiations between the Mayor's Office, Boston School Department and the Building Trades Council.

At the signing ceremony Mayor Flynn joined by local trade union officials, the School Committee, School Department representatives, and other city officials stated "This agreement, the first of its kind in the nation, reflects a demonstrated commitment to the future of the students in our public schools. With much to be done to repair this city's infrastructure, as well as the continuing downtown development and a surge in the rebuilding of our neighborhoods, it behooves this city to provide employers with a qualified workforce and ensure that all graduates have sufficient access to the job market." Mayor Flynn continued "I want to commend the Boston School Committee and Boston Building Trades Council for their foresight in recognizing the need to improve and expand opportunities for our school graduates."

Participants to the agreement are Mayor Flynn; Rita Walsh-Tomasini, president, Boston School Committee; Charles Spillane, secretary-treasurer, Building Trades Council; and Charles Spillane, superintendent, Boston School Department. Speaking for the Boston Building Trades, Charles Spillane commented "the Mayor's leadership record has been a catalyst in the negotiation of this agreement. We look forward to working with his administration, and representatives from the School Department in implementing this unprecedented agreement."

Rita Walsh-Tomasini, president, Boston School Committee noted "It is my hope that the discussions and negotiations with the trade union officials led to this important agreement. It is apparent that this city is moving forward to a time where public officials, business leaders, businesses, unions and trade unions are truly working for a society that benefits all its members equally."

This is the third such agreement negotiated by the Boston Public Schools. The first was in 1982 with local businesses and the second in 1983 with area colleges and universities. All Boston Compact agreements are aimed at improving the educational standards of the public schools while increasing the access at post education placements for qualified graduates.

Highlights of this Agreement reduction in the drop-out rate increases in attendance patterns

Building Trade Highlights

WOMEN! CHANCE TO GAIN NEW SKILLS

Displaced homemakers, welfare mothers and abused women, have a chance to gain new skills and confidence at Bunker Hill Community College.

Beginning on January 28th, the college will again offer a Culinary Arts Certificate program, tuition-free to eligible students.

All of the seventeen women, ranging in age from twenty to seventy, who participated in the Culinary Arts Certificate program last semester, have found jobs in the industry. Several have applied the college credits that they have earned toward a degree and have enrolled in Bunker Hill Community College's Hotel and Restaurant Management program or in the two-year Culinary Arts degree program.

BOSTON COMMON LIGHTS VIEWED THROUGH SEASON

Boston Parks and Recreation Commissioner Robert R. McCoy has announced that the holiday lighting of Boston Common will be bright throughout the 1984 holiday season.

The Children's Friendship Tree, a gift to the children of Boston from the children of New Brunswick, Canada, and over thirty-five trees comprise this year's lighting display. The lights will be lit from 4:30 p.m. to 10 p.m. from Christmas Day until January 6.

This year's lighting was made possible by the third annual "LIGHT-A-LIGHT" Campaign. This community spirited effort seeks funding to support the lighting through the sale of one dollar lapel buttons and a corporate giving program.

CITY RECEIVES FUNDS FOR HEALTH CARE FOR THE HOMELESS

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn announced that the Boston Health Care for the Homeless Project will receive $1.4 million over the next four years to fund health and social services for the city's homeless.

The grant from the national Health Care for the Homeless Program, will fund teams that will provide on-site health and social services for the homeless.

Boston is one of eighteen cities to receive the funds, out of the forty-seven that applied. The U.S. Conference of Mayors co-sponsors the $25 million national Health Care for the Homeless Program, which is funded by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation and the Pew Memorial Trust.

The health care teams funded in Boston will administer to many of the city's major shelters. The teams will provide health services that include education, screening for illness, and diagnosis and treatment for illness. Social services will include counseling and assisting people to obtain aid from various relief programs.

One team, based at Boston City Hospital, will serve the Pine Street Inn and Long Island Shelter with a physician, a nurse, and a social worker. A second team, also based at BCH, will provide a nurse and a social worker to all of the city's family shelters. A third team, based at Shattuck Hospital, will provide a physician, nurse, and social worker for the Shattuck, Parker Street, and St. Francis House shelters.

Mayor Flynn was one of the founders of the Boston Health Care for the Homeless Project, the coalition that applied for the funds. The Mayor said, "We are extremely gratified that the Johnson and Pew Foundations have recognized an effort in Boston that is historic in a couple of ways.

"First we will be able to provide high-quality health and social services to a segment of our population that often falls through the cracks of the health care system. We have responded to health problems among the homeless as they have arisen, on a case-by-case basis. The setting up of emergency tuberculosis testing last month is an example of that commitment. But this grant will enable us to provide very important preventive care.

"This program also has broken new ground in coordinating the work among shelter, health care, and social service providers. The governance committee that will administer the project is made up of representatives of public and private shelters, city and state health and social service departments, and the office of the governor and the mayor.

"We have been conditioned to think of the homeless in our city as a group of people who have given up their responsibility to society. But, increasingly, they are disadvantaged individuals and families to whom society has abandoned its responsibility.

"There are many people to thank for the fact that we are announcing this grant. Dr. Sandy Lamb of BCH, Dr. Joseph Cohen of the Shattuck, and Eileen Brigandi, staff director to the Boston Health Care for the Homeless Project, were among the people whose hard work has been critically important. We are very grateful to the governor's office for a financial contribution that helped to lever this grant and to the permanent Charities Foundation for funds that helped to pay for staff for the project.

"The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation and the Pew Memorial Trust have recognized the commitment of people in this city. The best way we can show our gratitude for that support is to work ever harder to provide for our homeless and to solve the problem of homelessness."

The members of the Governance Board for the Boston Health Care for the Homeless project are:

Frank Williams, Sojourner House; Ann DeLuca, Long Island Shelter; Randy Bailey, Pine Street Inn; Bob Richards, Shattuck Shelter; Mary Ellen Echer, Project Hope; Ira Greiff, St. Francis House; Kip Tiernan, Rosie's Place; Lucie Springman, Boston Family Shelter; Nancy Kaufman, state Executive Office of Human Services; Martha

Dunn, Department of Mental Health; David Mulligan and Joanne Blue, Department of Public Health; Joseph Cohen, Shattuck Hospital; Dreier, Mayor's assistant for health; Joseph Valley, Boston Emergency Shelter Commission; Barbara Kiley, Department of Health and Hospitals; and Kathy Walker, trustee of the Department of Health and Hospitals.

Philip W. Brickner, M.D. Director Health Care for the Homeless Project
St. Vincent's Hospital
153 W. 11th Street
New York, NY 10011
Dear Dr. Brickner:

Enclosed herein is a proposal submitted to the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation and the Pew Memorial Trust for the Boston Health Care for the Homeless Project. I am writing to give you strong support for this proposal and project it outlines.

As I stated at the U.S. Conference of Mayors meeting earlier this month, our city can call itself civilized when there are people sleeping in its alleys, streets, and subways. Homelessness is a symptom of deep social and economic problems. The long-term solution to homelessness is more affordable housing; but we cannot overlook the immediate need of individuals for shelter.

This proposal, which would provide health care for homeless individuals in shelters and day program facilities, is important because of the disenfranchisement of the homeless from the health care system. This type of outreach effort is critical, otherwise thousands of individuals would not receive medical care.

A Coalition of a wide range of individuals and institutions have worked to develop this program: representative of shelters, health care agencies, social services agencies, and city and state government. Without such a broad coalition this project would not be possible.

This grant is critical in that it will provide the initial funds to create a system for providing health care for the homeless in this city. I think this work project deserves your support.

Respectfully,
RAYMOND L. FLYNN,
Mayor

To: Police Officer Kieran M. Fitzgerald, Area "D". About 4:00 p.m., Thursday, September 27, 1984, Police Officer Kieran M. Fitzgerald assigned to Area D, at home and on a day of relief, observed from his window an unknown white male standing in front of his house discharging a handgun at motor vehicles passing along Columbia Road. Officer Fitzgerald armed himself with his service revolver, left his home and announcing his office, confronted this armed unknown male. The culprit hearing the officer turned and pointed a black steel .38 caliber revolver directly at the officer.

Aware that a large crowd was gathering and any gun fire would surely result in serious injury to innocent bystanders, Officer Fitzgerald had refrained from drawing his service revolver. Now confronted with an immediate danger of great bodily harm, Officer Fitzgerald drew his revolver and ordered the culprit to drop his weapon. When the armed assailant refused to comply, Officer Fitzgerald warned the male he would shoot if he did not disarm himself. At this time the culprit dropped his weapon to the ground where it was retrieved by the officer and the felon was placed under arrest.

The department is pleased to recognize that courage and concern for the safety of innocent persons displayed by this officer.

To: Police Officers Charles L. Dickerson, Antone O. Fonseca and Charles M. Horsley, Area B.

About 10:25 a.m., Wednesday, May 23, 1984, Patrol Officer Charles L. Dickerson of Area B while assigned as the B426D Unit and patrolling in the vicinity of 1444 Blue Hill Avenue observed a parked 1984 Chevrolet occupied by a male. Officer Dickerson continued on Blue Hill Avenue until he was out of sight of the parked vehicle and then radioed "Harry" Base requesting a stolen car check on the vehicle. On receiving an affirmative reply to his inquiry, Officer Dickerson radioed the location and requested a back up. Officers Charles W. Horsley, the B427D, and Antone O. Fonseca, the B428D, both acknowledged and stated they would respond. On arriving back at the scene Officer Dickerson observed Officer Horsley at the operator's side of the vehicle now occupied by an unknown female in the driver's seat and the male in the passenger's seat. Joined by Officer Fonseca, the suspects were questioned relative to ownership of the vehicle and a second stolen car check was requested and confirmation received. The suspects were placed under arrest and ordered out of the vehicle. As the male suspect stepped out of the car he suddenly pushed the officers in an attempt to escape and all four fell to the ground where a violent struggle ensued. Suddenly several shots rang out and Officers Horsley and Fonseca both lay wounded on the sidewalk. Officer Dickerson drew his service revolver and returned the fire of the armed assailant who after shooting the officers continued to fire his weapon. After recovering from the initial shock Officers Fonseca and Horsley drew their service revolvers and returned the fire. Officer Dickerson approached the now wounded felon and disarmed him, then radioed for assistance. Medical assistance arrived and the wounded were removed to the hospital.

Both officers were treated for gun shot wounds to the body and are currently recuperating from their injuries.

These three officers are worthy recipients of the Walter Scott Medal for their courage in a very stressful situation.

The officers then went to the front door of No. 38 where Officer Lally received burns to his hand attempting the door.

When their efforts to enter were thwarted by dense smoke and flames, they ran to the rear of the building where they were able to gain entrance and succeeded in evacuating a mother and her two minor children to safety.

To: Police Officers Thomas A. Cosby and James R. O'Brien, Area B.

On Saturday, February 4, 1984, about 10:00 p.m., Police Officers Thomas A. Cosby and James R. O'Brien of Area B while assigned to S104D observed four unknown males, one with a shotgun, standing over a male, who was face down on the sidewalk with the shotgun at the back of his head. Officer O'Brien immediately alighted from the cruiser and with his service revolver drawn ordered the perpetrator to drop the shotgun and surrender. At this time the suspect regarded the order and pointed the shotgun at Officers O'Brien and Cosby. Despite the danger in grave danger they chose not to fire suspect for fear of injury to the victim. While constantly apprising operations of the situation, Officer Cosby attempted to cover his partner and begin negotiations with the perpetrator. By maneuvering himself to the flank of the perpetrator he caused the suspect to abandon the victim and attempt to flee into a waiting vehicle.

As the perpetrator moved toward the getaway car, he again pointed the shotgun at the officers with distance between the suspect and the officers. Officer O'Brien was able to fire one shot. He and the four males were able to make good their escape and Officer O'Brien held his fire due to the possibility of a bullet ricocheting from the moving vehicle. Officer O'Brien immediately tended to the injured and Officer Cosby transmitted all the necessary information regarding the suspects. A short time later the suspects were arrested and the shotguns were recovered.

Both officers during this highly tense, life-threatening incident conducted themselves correctly with the highest traditions of the Boston Police Department, disregarding their own safety for an unknown citizen.

About 5:45 p.m., Friday, January 27, 1984, Police Officers Thomas J. Higgins and Daniel J. Fitzgerald when on routine patrol observed a 1974 Ford being operated erratically in the vicinity of Parker and Heath Streets. At the same time they observed a second motor vehicle pursuing the Ford. The officers immediately pursued the aforementioned vehicles to the rear of 921 Parker Street, where the operator of the second vehicle exited his car and ran up to the Ford only to immediately turn and run toward the officers, shouting "that man stole my mother's car and he just pointed a gun at me." The officers then observed the operator of the Ford flee on foot into the rear hallway of 926 Parker Street. Although assuming the fleeing suspect was armed, the police officers immediately gave chase with Officer Fitzgerald providing cover, Officer Higgins entered the hallway, found the suspect and placed him under arrest. A 15-inch, 12-gauge, loaded, sawed-off shotgun was found lying on the front seat of the Ford. A subsequent investigation by the officers revealed that the suspect had threatened to kill two people with the shotgun.

As a result of the alert, quick and decisive action taken by these officers two or possibly three lives were saved and the stolen motor vehicle was returned to its owner.

Special Citation

To: Police Officer William J. Walsh, Area D.

About 11:15 p.m., Friday, August 24, 1984, while off duty and operating his private motor vehicle on Massachusetts Avenue, Police Officer William J. Walsh observed two males running with one of them carrying a lady's handbag in one hand and a silver gun in the other. He observed another male chasing them. Police Officer Walsh took up the chase and after a lengthy foot pursuit tackled the suspect with the gun and recovered the personal property of a female who had been robbed by these two men. Officer Walsh then broadcast a description of the second suspect who was taken into custody within minutes a short distance away. With this apprehension additional property taken in two earlier armed robberies was also recovered and a number of other breaking and enterings and armed robberies were cleared.

Officer Walsh's alertness and awareness even while off duty made possible the arrest of two dangerous felons who had steadily plagued the area.

Special Citation

To: Police Officers Kevin D. Jones and Richard J. Sweeney, Area D.

About 9:30 p.m., Saturday, September 8, 1984, Patrol Officers Richard J. Sweeney and Kevin D. Jones of Area D and assigned to the D201F were on routine patrol when they observed a male acting suspicious in the alley at 1167 Boylston Street. As the officers approached, the male discarded a lady's handbag and fled on foot into the alley with the officers in pursuit. After a short foot chase the suspect was arrested.

About the same time a short distance away, the N107F was investigating a vicious robbery where the victim was brutally punched several times in the face, her handbag stolen and gold chains torn from her neck.

The suspect was returned to the robbery scene where he was identified by the victim and the stolen property was recovered.

The alert response by these two officers resulting in the arrest of a felon who preys upon defenseless women on our neighborhood streets is laudable.

Special Citation

To: Police Officers Robert Rosado, David P. Roberto, Timothy J. Murray, Area B.

During the calendar year 1984 Patrol Officers Timothy J. Murray, David P. Roberto and Robert Rosado assigned to Area B have been instrumental in effecting the arrest of more than 300 criminal offenders. Many of these arrests were made possible by the officers diligent use of the warrant printout book.

The department is pleased to recognize this outstanding accomplishment.

Special Citation

To: Cadet Donald P. Stone, Area A.

About 6:00 p.m., Thursday, June 21, 1984, Cadet Donald P. Stone of Area A while off duty at home in East Boston heard a woman's screams emanating from an adjacent apartment. Cadet Stone sped to the scene and observed the woman holding her infant daughter, who was not breathing.

Cadet Stone took the infant and immediately commenced mouth-to-mouth resuscitation. The infant's breathing returned to normal.

The department is pleased to recognize the quickness and compassion shown by this police officer.
